This book is happily dedicated to the manager of the San Francisco Giants on the occasion of his election to the Baseball Hall of Fame.

As number 5 has said many times about number 20, "We had a good ballclub before he came to Baltimore, but Frank Robinson made us a winner." See page 13.

1981 ATTENDANCE NOTES: Despite the fact the Orioles lost 25 home dates due to the baseball strike, the club attracted 1,024,247 fans in 53 dates at Memorial Stadium and was one of seven A.L. clubs to go over the million mark. It is the seventh consecutive season and the 15th time in 28 years that the O's have drawn over one million fans. Baltimore went over the half million mark in its 23rd home date on May 31, the earliest in club history that the O's have reached 500,000.

The Birds' opener against Kansas City on April 10 drew 50,323, an opening day record. The club also drew over 50,000 against Detroit on May 30 when 51,464 attended, the third largest regular season crowd in team history.

A three-game, mid-week series with New York, May 25-27, attracted 124,464, the largest ever for an all-week-night series and the greatest attended series prior to mid-June in Memorial Stadium history. Detroit followed the Yankees into town, May 29-31, and drew 102,517 for three dates, marking the first time the club has ever had back-to-back 100,000+ series. The total attendance for that six-game homestand was 226,981, an average of 37,830 that is second best in club annals (average attendance for homestand).

In 28 seasons the Orioles have had 19 qualifying .300 hitters (477 plate appearances from '54 thru '60 and 502 plate appearances since '61) and only three times (three in '80 and two in '69 & '77) have they had more than one in the same season...The complete list: 1956-Bob Nieman, .322...1957-Bob Boyd, .318...1959-Gene Woodling, .300...1961-Jim Gentile, .302...1962-Brooks Robinson, .303...1964-Brooks Robinson, .317...1966-Frank Robinson, .316*...1967-Frank Robinson, .311...1969-Frank Robinson, .308 and Boog Powell, .304...1970-Frank Robinson, .306...1971-Merv Rettenmund, .318...1973-Tommy Davis, .306...1975-Ken Singleton, .300...1977-Ken Singleton, .328 (club record) and Al Bumbry, .317...1980-Al Bumbry, .318, Ken Singleton, .304, and Eddie Murray, .300.

30 HOME RUN CLUB

Six different Orioles have hit 30 or more homers in a season 12 different times. Boog Powell accomplished the feat four times, Frank Robinson three times, Jim Gentile twice, and Gus Triandos, Ken Singleton, and Eddie Murray, once each. Triandos was the first Oriole to achieve that mark when he hit 30 homers in '58, earning him a share of the A.L. record for a catcher that still stands.

By Year: 1958-Triandos (30)...1961-Gentile (46)...1962-Gentile (33)...1964-Powell (39)...1966-F. Robinson (49) and Powell (34)...1967-F. Robinson (30)...1969-Powell (37) and F. Robinson (32)...1970-Powell (35)...1979-Singleton (35)...1980-Murray (32).

Frank Robinson's club record 49 homers in '66 was the only time an Oriole had led the league in home runs until '81, when Murray tied three others for A.L. top honors with 22.

100 RBI MEN

During the O's first seven years ('54 thru '60), nobody drove in 100 runs; then, in '61, Jim Gentile broke the barrier with gusto while accumulating 141 rbi, still a club record.

Since then, six different players have driven in 100 runs 11 times: Boog Powell (3 times); Brooks, Frank and Ken Singleton (twice each); Lee May and Eddie Murray (once each).

By Year: 1961-Gentile (141)...1964-Brooks (118)... 1966-Frank (122), Powell (109) and Brooks (100)...1969-Powell (121) and Frank (100)...1970-Powell (114)...1976-May (109)*...1979-Singleton (111)...1980-Murray (116) and Singleton (104).

Note: Murray became the fourth Oriole to lead the American League in runs batted in with 78 in '81.

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM: The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471' drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field... This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge... That was one by Boog Powell 469' to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450'), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 541' away from home plate.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

1981: The O's hit five grand slams in 1981 to lead the majors. No other club in either league had more than two. . .The O's hit all five within a period of just over 3 weeks (Aug. 15 thru Sep. 7) in the second half, all of them at Memorial Stadium. DOUG DeCINCES and EDDIE MURRAY each hit 2 (the only other major leaguer with as many as 2 was the Mets' DAVE KINGMAN), and LENN SAKATA hit his first lifetime (see details above).

There was a total of 34 bases loaded home runs hit last year, 20 in the A.L. and 14 in the N.L.

The Orioles' opposition hit two slams, both in the second half also: FRANK WHITE, K.C., at Baltimore (off JEFF SCHNEIDER) on Aug. 12 (1st game) and JEFF BURROUGHS, Sea., at Seattle (off DENNIS MARTINEZ) on Aug. 24.

Previous Years: The O's CLUB RECORD is 8—accomplished twice . . .in '70 including one each in ALCS & WS, and in '79 (all in regular season). . .Individually, BOOG POWELL is the club lifetime leader with 7, but LEE MAY has hit the most at Memorial Stadium, 5.

JIM GENTILE hit 5 slams in 1961 to set an A.L. record and tie the major league standard set in 1955 by the Cubs' ERNIE BANKS.

GENTILE is one of 7 to have hit 2 in one game and was the first of 3 to do so on consecutive plate appearances. That event took place at Minnesota on May 9, '61 at Minnesota (off PETE RAMOS and PAUL GIEL).

Subsequently, the Tigers' JIM NORTHRUP hit back-to-back slams in '68, then 2 years later the Orioles' FRANK ROBINSON hit consecutive slams at Washington (RFK Stadium) in the 5th and 6th innings on June 26, '70.

BROOKS ROBINSON blasted bases loaded homers in consecutive games in '62: on May 6 at Dodger Stadium vs. California (KEN McBRIDE) and May 9 at Baltimore vs. K.C. A's (ED RAKOW).

DAVE McNALLY, who hit one in the 3rd game of the '70 WS off Cincinnati's WAYNE GRANGER, remains the only pitcher ever to hit a world series slam . . . MIKE CUELLAR, on the other hand, is the only PLAYER to hit a grand slam in ALCS competition: at Minnesota off JIM PERRY in game one, 1970 . . . The Dodgers' RON CEY and DUSTY BAKER are the only 2 to have hit slams in the NLCS (both in '77).

Opponents: In 28 years, the O's have "out-slammed" their opponents 91 to 59 (including a 49 to 27 edge in Memorial Stadium).

Seven opponents have hit two career slams against the O's (nobody has hit more), including three who have hit both in Memorial Stadium: ROY SIEVERS (Was.), BILL SKOWRON (N.Y.) and MIKE EPSTEIN (Was.) . . . The other "two-timers" are RICO PETROCELLI (Bos.), RAY BOONE (Det.), DARRELL PORTER (Mil.), and COOKIE ROJAS (K.C.).

Grand Slam Gophers: A total of 7 opposing pitchers have yielded two grand slams each to the Orioles (no one has given up more than 2) . . . DON AASE of the Angels is the only active on that list (to LEE MAY on May 5, '79 and to DOUG DeCINCES on Aug. 27, '81, both in Baltimore).

Among Orioles' pitchers, MILT PAPPAS was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore while DAVE McNALLY was victimized 4 times. On the current pitching roster, only SAMMY STEWART has given up more than one (he yielded slams to BUMP WILLS and TONY ARMAS in '80). JIM PALMER, MIKE FLANAGAN, and TIPPY MARTINEZ have never thrown grand slam "gophers".

On the road, Baltimore drew 954,002 for 46 dates and was one of five American League clubs to average over 20,000 away from home. With the loss of 28 road dates due to the strike, the O's had the fewest away dates of any American League team. Due to that fact, the Birds failed to go over the million mark in road attendance for the first-time since 1965, snapping a string of 15 consecutive million-plus seasons.

Notes On 20-Games Winners

The Orioles produced at least one 20-game winner for 13 consecutive seasons from '68 thru '80 to establish a new major league record. The O's shared the previous mark with the New York Giants, who had Christy Mathewson to produce twelve straight 20-win seasons from 1903-14.

With the shortened season (105 games), the O's leading winner in '81 was Dennis Martinez, who tied four other pitchers (Steve McCatty and Mike Norris of Oakland; Pete Vuckovich of Milwaukee; Tom Seaver of Cincinnati) for the major league lead with 14 victories. It marked the third year in a row that a Baltimore pitcher had led or tied for the major league lead in wins (Flanagan's 23 wins in '79 and Stone's 25 victories in '80 each topped the majors).

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat were four hurlers from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within six days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24-1st game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24-2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone is the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

* Orioles lost, 2-1, when Tigers scored twice in top of 9th inning . . . First Detroit run scored on Barber's wild pitch and deciding run scored on error.

§ Johnson and Zuverink were beaten by Jack Harshman who also pitched one-hitter. . . . Bertaina defeated Bob Meyer who also threw one-hitter. . . . Score in both games was 1-0.

NO-HITTERS BY OPPONENTS

Two no-hitters have been pitched against the Orioles in the 28 years they have been back in the American League, both by the Angels. Bo Belinsky was the first, on May 5, '62 at Dodger Stadium, winning 2-0 over Steve Barber . . . In 1975 Nolan Ryan no-hit the Orioles on June 1 at Anaheim Stadium, defeating Ross Grimsley, 1-0.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS-LOSERS vs. ORIOLES

Winners: Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more often than any other even though he has been retired since '67. . . Ford was 30-16 lifetime against the Birds.

He is followed by "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-21), Jim Perry (20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23).

Losers: Hunter, the second biggest winner against the O's, is also the biggest loser (24). . . It wasn't always thus. . . At one time, he was 23-16 vs. the O's, then lost eight of his last 11 decisions (from '76 thru '78, and had no record in '79).

Others oft-beaten by the Birds are Tiant and Jim Perry (22), Fritz Peterson (14-21), Kaat (21), Lolich (19) and Sam McDowell (9-19). . . Probably the least successful opponent was Jim Colborn, formerly of Milwaukee, K.C., and Seattle, who was 3-17 lifetime. . . Rudy May is 3-13, Len Barker 2-7, Milt Wilcox 1-9, Geoff Zahn 1-8. . . However, Wilcox (Sept. 21) and Zahn (Aug. 20) each recorded their first lifetime wins against the Orioles in '81.

ORIOLES' "HALL OF FAME"

The Orioles' "Hall of Fame" was created in '77 by the Oriole Advocates in cooperation with the ballclub to honor the outstanding players, managers and coaches to have represented the Orioles during the modern major league era, from '54 to the present.

Since that time, 5 players have been inducted, by vote of selected writers, announcers and veteran members of the Oriole Advocates: Brooks and Frank Robinson ('77), Dave McNally ('78), Boog Powell ('79) and Gus Triandos ('81). It is expected that at least one more former Oriole will be added this summer.

To become a member, a candidate must be mentioned on 75% of the ballots cast. To qualify for nomination, he must have spent at least 3 seasons with the Orioles and can no longer be with the club in the same capacity in which he is being considered.

Inductees are presented with a full size replica of their Orioles' lockers and duplicates of these are permanently displayed in the Hit 'n Run Club at Memorial Stadium.

Instrumental in making the Orioles' Hall of Fame a reality were Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both past presidents of the Oriole Advocates. . . . The chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee this year is Ted Mitchell, also a past president of the Oriole Advocates.

FRANK ELECTED TO BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In January Frank Robinson became the second modern Oriole to be elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, joining Robin Roberts who was so honored in '76. . . . Frank who was named on 370 of 415 votes cast (89.1%) will be inducted into the Hall on Sunday, August 1 along with Hank Aaron (406 of 415, 98.2%). Frank and Aaron were only the 12th & 13th players elected to the "Hall" in their 1st year of eligibility (exclusive of the 5 named in the 1st election).

JIM HENNEMAN'S SIMPLIFIED MAGIC NUMBER CALCULATING SYSTEM

For trailing club—add games won plus games left, then add one. Subtract number of games won by first place team. That's the magic number.

TRIPLE PLAYS

After completing a triple play in each of three consecutive seasons ('77 thru '79), the Orioles have been shutout in that department the last two years. The club had executed just five triple plays in their first 23 years in Baltimore.

The Birds' last two triple plays ('78 & '79) were of the "around the horn" variety involving Doug DeCinces, Rich Dauer, and Eddie Murray. Brooks Robinson started the other three Orioles' "around the horn" triple plays, all in a five-year span from 1969-73. The complete list of O's triple plays:

Jun. 10, '79—at Bal.—Buddy Bell "gitp"...5-4-3 (D. DeCinces, R. Dauer, E. Murray).

Sep. 9, '78—at Tor.—Rick Cerone "gitp"...5-4-3 (D. DeCinces, R. Dauer, E. Murray).

Jun. 3, '77—at K.C. John Watham hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith back to Belanger. Belanger then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out, completing the game-ending triple play and giving the O's a 7-6 win—9-6-4-6-6.

Sep. 29, '73—at Det.—Frank Howard "gitp"...5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, T. Crowley).

Jul. 7, '73—vs. Oak. at Bal.—Gene Tenace "gitp"...5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, E. Cabell).

Aug. 6, '69—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Eliseo Rodriguez "gitp"...5-4-3 (B. Robinson, D. Johnson, B. Powell).

Apr. 9, '59—at Was.—Ed Fitzgerald line drive...3-6-3 (B. Boyd C. Carrasquel, B. Boyd).

Aug. 3, '55—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Art Ceccarelli "gidp" then runner was thrown out at home...3-6-2 (G. Triandos, W. Miranda, H. Smith).

The Orioles have hit into 13 triple plays in 27 seasons, the last victim being Gary Roenicke against Oakland at Baltimore on May 7, '79. He grounded to third baseman Wayne Gross, who started an "around the horn" 5-4-3 triple play, the first executed against the Orioles since 1972. On four of the 13 occasions that Birds' opponents have completed triple plays, Brooks Robinson has been the batter. Brooks grounded into one, lined into another, and two were "gidp's", with a runner then being thrown out between third and home.

BIRDS' FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE IN '54

The modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on April 15, 1954 before a crowd of 46,354 including Vice President Richard M. Nixon who threw out the first ball. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American league game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the Chicago shortstop, was the first to bat in the new stadium and singled off Turley.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher.

The Birds' starting lineup in that game was: Bobby Young, 2b; Eddie Waitkus, 1b; Gil Coan, cf; Vic Wertz, rf; Sam Mele, lf; Stephens, 3b; Billy Hunter, ss; Courtney, c and Turley, p.

Many have forgotten that the O's opened that first season on the road, at Detroit, where Don Larsen lost to Steve Gromek, 3-0, on April 13 (the Birds' first game ever)...The next day at Tiger Stadium (Apr. 14) Duane Pillette gave the O's their first victory, a 3-2 decision over Ray Herbert.

Notes: After winning at least one Gold Glove for 20 consecutive seasons ('60 thru '79), the Orioles have been shutout for the last two seasons, despite some impressive fielding credentials. In '81 the O's became the first major league club in 19 seasons to have four league individual fielding leaders (Eddie Murray-1b; Rich Dauer-2b; Ken Singleton-of; Rick Dempsey-c) and in '80, the Birds tied an all-time major league record for fewest errors by a club in a single season (95).

However, with a total of 45 Gold Gloves since the inception of the award in '57, the Orioles lead the majors by a substantial margin over Cincinnati-37, which has also been blanked the last two seasons. Other leaders are St. Louis-35, Chicago White Sox and Pittsburgh-28 each, and Boston-27.

The O's have captured four Gold Gloves in a season five different times, two on three occasions, and two in six different seasons. Multiple Orioles' individual winners: Brooks Robinson-16 (tied with Jim Kaat for most ever by one player); Paul Blair and Mark Belanger-8 each; Jim Palmer and Bobby Grich-4 each; Dave Johnson-3 and Luis Aparicio-2.

The Gold Glove awards are presented by THE SPORTING NEWS in cooperation with the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company to those players considered to be the best at their positions by vote of league managers and coaches. Selection is based not only on consistency (i.e., fielding percentage), but also on range, overall ability, and effectiveness.

In 1981 Eddie Murray received all 15 first-place votes cast to win the award for the second time. He was the first unanimous selection since Ken Singleton in '77. Dennis Martinez was second and Sammy Stewart placed third in the voting, which is done on a 5-3-1 scoring system.

Brooks Robinson was selected as "most valuable Oriole" four times ('60, '62, '64, '71) while Frank Robinson ('66, '67, '71) and Ken Singleton ('75, '77, '79) are three-time winners. Brooks and Frank shared the honors in 1971, one of only two occasions that there has been a tie in the voting (Paul Blair and Mike Cuellar in '74 was the other time).

The major league draft is held annually at baseball's winter meetings and is followed with a separate selection by National Association clubs from class AAA to A levels. Until 1958 major league clubs could draft players within a range between $15,000 (for AAA players) and $2,000 (for class D players). In 1958 the price for big league drafts rose to $25,000.

However, in 1959, a first year player draft at the big league level was set up to discourage the payment of inordinately large bonus payments to free agents. The new rule provided that first year players could be selected at the major league level (if not protected on a major league team's 40 man roster) for $12,000. In 1961 an even lower draft price was set up for more recent first year players. That figure was $8,000.

That year, incidentally, the Baltimore organization set a record of sorts by being relieved of 19 eligible first year players (seven during the big league selections and 11 more during the minor league draft). In 1965 the first year player draft began to lose its significance and then disappeared in 1970.

THE BIRDS AND THE BROWNS

The Baltimore Orioles were charter members of the American League when it began operation in 1901. However, after two seasons the club was moved to New York where it ultimately became known as the New York Yankees.

The franchise from which the current Orioles descend came into the A.L. in 1901 representing Milwaukee, but in 1902 was transferred to St. Louis and named the Browns. In 52 seasons (1902 thru 1953) the Browns were, perhaps, the most unsuccessful team in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465 (.433) and finished in the second division 40 times. They won their only pennant in 1944 then lost the world series in six games to their home town rivals, the Cardinals.

In June, 1951, Bill and Charles DeWitt sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck who operated the club for the next 2½ seasons. On September 29, 1953, he sold his shares to a group of Baltimore businessmen who brought major league baseball back to this city after a 51-year lapse.

DETAILED SUMMARY
ORIOLES 1981 SEASON

Final Overall Record: 59-46 (.562)—Second in A.L. Eastern Division, one game behind Milwaukee.
Home: 33-22 Road: 26-24 vs. East: 26-23 vs. West: 33-23
First Half: 31-23 (.574)—Second, two games behind New York.
Second Half: 28-23 (.549)—Fourth, two games behind Milwaukee.

ARTIFICIAL TURF: In 1981, the Orioles were 5-3 in the 3 A.L. ballparks with artificial turf (K.C. . . . 1-1; Sea. . . . 2-1; Tor. . . . 2-1). Baltimore's lifetime record on the carpet is 83-81. The O's are 79-77 in A.L. stadiums (Chi. . . . 27-24 ('68-'75); K.C. . . . 19-30; Sea. . . . 15-10; Tor. . . . 18-13) and 4-4 in Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in 3 world series ('70 Cin. . . . 2-0; '71 Pit. . . . 0-3; '79 Pit. . . . 2-1).

The Birds were 9-10 on the carpet in '80 and 14-7 in '79 (including world series).

BATTING/HOME RUNS: The Orioles' overall team batting average of .251 placed them 11th in the A.L. The Birds batted .262 in the 1st half and .240 in the 2nd half. While the O's were just 7th overall with 88 home runs, they hit 49 in 51 2nd half games to trail only Oakland (50). Those 49 home runs accounted for 49% of the club's 2nd half run production (99 of 201 runs).

Baltimore led the major leagues with 5 grand slams, all of which were hit at Memorial Stadium between Aug. 15 and Sep. 7: Doug DeCinces, Aug. 15 vs. Chi; Eddie Murray, Aug. 16 vs. Chi; DeCinces, Aug. 27 vs. Cal; Lenn Sakata, Sep. 6 vs. Oak; Murray, Sep. 7 vs. Cle. Murray, DeCinces, and the Mets' Dave Kingman were the only major league players with 2 slams. The Orioles hit 5 of the A.L.'s 20 total slams, and no other major league club had more than 2.

The Birds also tied Detroit for the A.L. lead with 404 bases on balls and topped the majors by grounding into 110 double plays. The club was 5th in the circuit in doubles (165) and on-base percentage (.331).

CLOSE GAMES/LATE-INNING WINS: Baltimore led the American League in performance in one-run games for the 2nd time in the last 3 years with a 21-7 (.750) record, the best in the majors. The O's were 8-4 in one-run contests in the 1st half and 13-3 in the 2nd half. The club was 11th in the A.L. with a 9-13 mark in games decided by two runs. Yet, the Orioles combined record of 30-20 (.600) in one and two-run games was 2nd in the league to Oakland (32-21, .604).

Baltimore was 46-6 in games in which it took a lead into the 7th inning and 17-15 in games decided in the seventh inning or later. The club won 7 games in "sudden death" at Memorial Stadium, which accounted for 21% of the O's home victories in '81. Terry Crowley drove in the winning run in 2 of those wins. The Birds were also beaten in "sudden death" 4 times on the road, 3 of those losses coming at Yankee Stadium.

The Orioles finished with a 5-4 (.556) record in extra inning games, 4th in the circuit.

DAY/NIGHT: For the third consecutive season, the Orioles had the American League's best record in night games at 46-30 (.605). In '80, the O's set a major league record with 79 victories under the lights. However, the Birds had their trouble in day games this season, winning just 13 of 29 decisions to place 9th in the league. The club was just 6-13 on Sundays.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: 1st Half—1st (20), 2nd (17), 3rd (7), 4th (7), 5th (4), 6th (5). The O's occupied 1st place on Apr. 10 (1-0, tie) and from May 18 thru June 5, when their largest lead was 3 games (May 27-30). The club's greatest deficit of the 1st half was 3½ games on Apr. 28-29.

2nd half—1st (2), 2nd (17), 3rd (9), 4th (23), 5th (2). Baltimore's only 2 days in 1st during the 2nd half came on Aug. 10 (1-0, tie) and again on Aug. 29 (11-7, ½ game lead). The O's were never higher than 4th beginning Sep. 13 with the largest deficit being 4 games on both Sep. 13 and 22.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Orioles' designated hitters combined for a .252 average (96-for-381), 6th in the A.L., with 11 homers and 57 runs batted in (5th in league). Four players saw extensive time in that role: Terry Crowley, .257 (28-for-109), 4 hr, 20 rbi in 42 games . . . Ken Singleton, .284 (31-for-109), 3 hr, 15 rbi in 30 games . . . Benny Ayala, .265 (18-for-68), 2 hr, 8 rbi in 27 games . . . Jose Morales, .221 (15-for-68), 2 hr, 11 rbi in 22 games.

DOUBLEHEADERS: The Orioles participated in 6 twinbills in '81, more than any A.L. club except Oakland (7), winning 2, losing 3, and splitting one. The lone split came against K.C. on Aug. 12. Baltimore's only doubleheader of the 2nd half. The team was 2-1-1 in twi-night doubleheaders and 0-2 in daytime twinbills.

FIELDING: Baltimore finished 3rd in the league with a .9834 fielding percentage (68 errors in 4,100 total chances) to trail Detroit (.9842) and Texas (.9837) by a slim margin. The O's had fewer errors than any club except Detroit (67), but Texas had 130 more total chances than Baltimore.

It was just the 4th time in the last 22 years (starting in '60) that the Birds have not finished 1st or 2nd in that department. The O's were 3rd in the league in double plays with 114 and 1st with 11 passed balls.

The Orioles had 4 A.L. individual fielding leaders, Eddie Murray at first base, Rich Dauer at second base, Ken Singleton in the outfield, and Rick Dempsey behind the plate. It marked the 1st time a major league club had had 4 fielding leaders since the '62 Chicago White Sox (1B-Joe Cunningham, 2B-Nellie Fox, SS-Luis Aparicio, P-Ray Herbert).

Murray led A.L. first basemen with a .999 percentage (one error in 991 total chances) and in assists with 91 while finishing 2nd in putouts (899), chances, and double plays (98). It was the 3rd consecutive season he has finished 2nd in total chances. Eddie's only error of the season came on Sep. 21, and it broke a string of 113 consecutive errorless games (1,112 chances) dating back to Sep. 7, '80. Since that time, Murray has erred just once in 126 games (1,252 chances).

Dauer fielded .989 (5 errors in 459 total chances) to edge K.C.'s Frank White (.988). Rich had a 76-game errorless streak (400 chances) snapped on Apr. 25. Three of his 5 errors came in 3 consecutive games, Sept. 2, 3, and 4. Dempsey committed just one error (May 30) in 420 chances to beat Texas' Jim Sundberg (.996). Rick also threw out 16 of 46 runners attempting to steal.

Singleton did not commit an error in 127 chances over 72 games to become the 2nd consecutive Baltimore outfielder to lead the league in fielding. Gary Roenicke fielded 1.000 (0 e in 205 tc) in '80. Ken's last error came on Aug. 2, '80, 132 games and 234 total chances ago.

Doug DeCinces paced A.L. third basemen in double plays (31) while tying for the top spot in putouts (86) and errors (17). He was 3rd in total chances (294) and 5th in assists (191). Dennis Martinez led A.L. pitchers in putouts (20), assists (44), and total chances (66).

HOME AND AWAY: The Orioles finished 3rd in the A.L. with a 33-22 (.600) home record, the 5th straight time and 11th overall that the club has had a .600 or better winning percentage at Memorial Stadium. The club has had a winning record at home in 23 of its 28 years in Baltimore.

The Birds had the A.L.'s 6th best road record at 26-24 (.520), the 13th time in the last 14 seasons (starting '68) that the team has had a winning record on the road. In the 2nd half, the O's were 16-15 at home and 12-8 on the road.

INJURIES: The Birds were hit hardest by injuries on the pitching staff. Steve Stone, who won the A.L.'s Cy Young Award with a club record 25 victories in '80, was placed on the disabled list on May 18 with tendinitis in his right elbow and did not pitch again until Aug. 20. Stone was also bothered by recurring arm problems in Sep. and made just 12 starts all year. Mike Flanagan was sidelined from Aug. 25 to Sep. 18 with a torn muscle in his left forearm, ending a streak of 157 consecutive starts. Jim Palmer was hampered by shoulder and neck problems and failed to finish better than .500 (7-8) for just the 2nd time in his major league career. Dave Ford did not pitch after Sep. 9 because of atrophy in his right shoulder.

Other injuries: Lenn Sakata, disabled for 3 weeks (May 10-28) with a severely sprained right ankle; Doug DeCinces, bothered by recurring back problems and muscle spasms, especially in the first half; Eddie Murray missed five games and was plagued much of Apr. by a viral infection; Mark Belanger (knee, hamstring, back pulls), Rick Dempsey (bruised hand), and Ken Singleton (bruised foot) were also bothered by various problems. See individual biographies for more details on injuries.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: April . . . 7-8 (.467); May . . . 21-8 (.724, best May ever); June . . . 3-7 (.300); August . . . 11-9 (.550); September . . . 14-13 (.519, worst Sep. since '72); October . . . 3-1 (.750).

PINCH-HITTING: After combining for a .289 (91-for-315) pinch-hitting average in '79 and '80, the Orioles slumped to .202 (24-for-119) this season, 8th in the league. The club had 2 homers and 20 runs batted in, 3rd in the A.L. . . . Baltimore had more pinch-hitting appearances (145) than any other team except Cleveland.

Terry Crowley batted .286 (6-for-21) and finished among the A.L. leaders in games (2nd, 31), hits (tied for 3rd, 6) rbi (4th, 7), and at bats (5th, 21). Crowley has a career pinch hit average of .274 (96-for-350), and his 96 pinch hits place him 8th on the all-time list and 3rd among active players. His lifetime pinch hit average with Baltimore is .298 (72-for-242), including a .318 (48-for-151) mark since returning to the O's in Aug. '77.

Jose Morales batted .263 (5-for-19) in 21 games and tied for the league lead in pinch game-winning rbi (3) and doubles (3). He was also 3rd in runs batted in (8) and slugging percentage (.579), tied for 4th in total bases (11), and tied for 7th in at bats (19). Of his 5 pinch hits, 3 were doubles and one a home run. He has a lifetime pinch average of .280 (99-for-353), and his 99 pinch hits place him 7th on the all-time list and 2nd among active players to Mike Lum (103).

Benny Ayala batted .313 (5-for-16) with a homer and 5 rbi in 20 games. John Lowenstein hit .300 (3-for-10) in 14 total appearances.

PITCHING: Baltimore finished 8th in the league with a 3.70 earned run average, the club's 2nd highest era in the last 25 years. The O's had never finished lower than 6th in the A.L. in team era in 27 previous seasons. The Birds had a 3.45 era in 54 1st half games and a 3.94 mark in 51 2nd half contests. The club was tied for 5th with 10 shutouts, 3 of those coming by 1-0 scores.

The Orioles' bullpen collectively recorded a 12-12 mark with a 3.55 era (114 er in 289 ip) and 22 saves. The Baltimore starters were 47-34 with a 3.76 era (272 er in 651 ip).

STREAKS, WINNING AND LOSING: The Orioles' 2 longest '81 winning streaks both occurred in May, when the Birds were 21-8. The club won 8 straight from May 13 thru 18 to go from 2nd place, 1½ games back, to 1st, 1½ games in front. Just prior to that period, the Birds put together a 5-game winning streak from May 4 thru 9. From May 4 thru 18, the team was 13-2 and advanced from 4th (2½ GB) to 1st (1½ GA). In the 2nd half, Baltimore won 4 in a row twice and 3 straight once.

The club's longest losing streak was 5 from May 30 thru June 4. During the 2nd half, the Orioles never lost more than 2 games in a row.

WINS: With the overall 2nd place finish, the Orioles have now finished 1st or 2nd in 13 of the last 16 seasons (starting '66). Baltimore has won more games than any other major league club in the last 25 years (starting '57) with a 2238-1697 record (.569) (see page 167 for full details).

The O's also own the major's best record in the last four seasons (starting '78) with a 351-236 mark (.598). That's slightly better than the Yankees (351-241, .593), who have played five more games in that span.

Baltimore has had 14 consecutive winning seasons (starting '68). The only major league club with a longer streak is the Boston Red Sox, who have been over the .500 mark in 15 straight campaigns (starting '67).

CHRONOLOGY OF 1981

THE FIRST TWO MONTHS

Much of the early Orioles season followed a familiar pattern. They won their opener as usual, plunged almost immediately into their traditional early season slump, then broke out of it abruptly in late April, and went on an extended tear, reminiscent of the pennant winning year of '79.

OPENING DAY VICTORY AND THE WOES OF APRIL

A record crowd of over 51,000 watched the Orioles win their opener for the 10th time in the last 12 years (they're 18-10 overall), beating the defending A.L. champion Kansas City Royals at Memorial Stadium.

However, a two-week downspin followed, low-lighted by the loss of 3 straight games at Comiskey Park, one of them an 18-5 drubbing by the White Sox. On Apr. 28, the O's sported a very ordinary 5-8 record, despite the Krypton-like efforts of Ken Singleton, proving again that baseball with all of its individuality remains a team game.

SINGLETON HOT/MURRAY COLD

To that point, Singleton was enjoying the best start ever experienced by an Orioles batter. He was to finish the first month with a .472 batting average (25-for-53), a .981 slugging percentage (52 bases in 53 at bats), a .517 on-base percentage (30-for-58), 7 home runs and 14 rbi. He capped that splendid performance by going 10-for-10 over a 2½ game span late in the month to set a club record, and was subsequently picked as the American League's "player of the month."

Meanwhile, however, the other half of the O's devastating switch-hitting tandem, Eddie Murray, was suffering perhaps his most serious career slump (compounded by a defiant virus that sidelined him for 5 days in mid-April) and hit only .133 (10-for-75) without a home run thru May 10.

Doug DeCinces' struggle was even more pronounced. He didn't hit a home run in his first 34 games, thru May 22, before finding the range 7 times in the next 7 games.

When that early slump bottomed out (Apr. 28), Singleton was batting .511, but the rest of the club, without him, was hitting a scrawny .220 (.245 including Singleton), and the Birds' pitching staff was staggering along with a 4.74 era.

MERRY MONTH OF MAY

The O's salvaged something of April by winning the final two games (finishing at 7-8), and that precipitated a month-long spree in which they captured 23 of 29 (thru May 29). In that prosperous stretch, the Orioles played 11 series and didn't lose a single one (8-0-3).

Unquestionably, the high point of this hot streak was the three-game sweep of the Yankees in Baltimore on May 25, 26 and 27. It was the 18th time in 28 years the O's had swept the Bombers in a series of 3 or more games.

Thru this extended period of excellence, Orioles' hitters recovered their collective batting eyes (they hit .304 and raised the club average to .272) while the pitchers were lopping a run and a half off the staff era (despite the absence of Cy Young Award winner Steve Stone who went down with a sore elbow).

Mike Flanagan, Dennis Martinez and Scott McGregor pitched consistently well as starters; Sammy Stewart was awesome in long relief; and Tippy Martinez was nearly flawless while taking over for the slumping Tim Stoddard as the O's prime short man.

On May 29, the O's, with a 28-14 record, stood astride the A.L. East, 3 games up on Milwaukee, 4 ahead of Cleveland and 4½ in front of New York. Only the Los Angeles Dodgers, among the 26 major league clubs, boasted a better record (32-14, .696).

Despite losing the last 2 games of the month to the Tigers in Baltimore, the O's enjoyed their most successful May ever, both on the field where they went 21-8 (.724) and at the turnstiles which clicked past 500,000 for the first time ever before late June.

JUNE GLOOM

Little did anyone realize, as the Orioles launched what was to be a two-week road trip to New York and the West Coast, that those 2 defeats at the end of May marked the start of a sharp decline that would produce 9 losses in the next 12 games.

The nearly time-wide consistency at the plate that had developed during the 23-6 streak suddenly evaporated and so did the O's ability to score.

Whereas the 3 victories over the Yankees in Baltimore climaxed the O's success of the month before, 3 losses to the Yankees in New York in early June (2 of them in extra innings) represented the depth of the early June slump.

The 3-9 tailspin knocked the Birds off their 1st place perch into the runner-up spot when, after the O's lost to the M's in the Kingdome on June 11, major league baseball took an unprecedented 8½ week summer sabbatical that would close down the ballparks until Monday, Aug. 10.

THE SECOND SEASON

Exactly four months after defeating the Royals on opening day at Memorial Stadium, the O's beat them again, 3-2, when the season reopened in Baltimore on Aug. 10; this time on a 12th inning single by John Lowenstein. Back-to-back homers by Singleton and Murray which staked the O's to a 1st inning lead were followed by 10 consecutive hitless innings before Lowenstein's safety in the 12th climaxed the winning rally. In some ways that game was a capsule summary of what was to follow during the O's second season.

UP AND DOWN

The Birds split their 1st 10 games, then rallied to win 6 of 8 against the A's and Mariners on the West Coast and the Angels in Baltimore to jump into 1st place on Aug. 29 (for the first time since June 7) with an 11-8 record. . . They dropped to 2nd the following night and never regained the lead.

On Sep. 8, the O's were 17-11 (their best record in the 2nd half), in 2nd place, 1½ games back of the division leading Tigers. Over the next three weeks, however, they went 9-11 (thru Sep. 29) and during that stretch, on Sep. 13, slipped permanently into 4th place.

FATAL BLOW

If there was a point at which the bottom dropped out, it was in New York on Saturday night, Sep. 26. Behind Jim Palmer and McGregor, the O's had beaten Ron Guidry and Tommy John, 5-1 and 1-0, on Thursday and Friday, respectively. On this night they led the Yankees 4-3 in the bottom of the 9th, but Bobby Murcer's pinch-homer off Tim Stoddard gave the Yankees their 3rd "sudden death" win of the year over the Birds at Yankee Stadium. The next afternoon, New York won easily, and the O's dropped 2½ back with only 6 to play.

Though they finished the season on a high note by beating both the Tigers and Yankees two out of three, it was a case of "too little, too late."

2ND HALF ANALYSIS

Perhaps, the 3 most distinguishing characteristics of the O's 2nd season were:

(1) They lived by the home run and died by the lack of consistent timely hitting when "Dr. Long Ball" was unavailable.

(2) The reversal of roles by Singleton and Murray.

(3) Uncommonly erratic Baltimore pitching.

HOME RUNS

In the 2nd season the O's banged out 49 home runs in 51 games. Only the A's (50) hit more. Additionally, the O's made their home runs count in almost unprecedented fashion. Thirty-one of them were hit with at least one man aboard and their five 2nd half grand slams (they had none in the 1st half) were 3 more than any other club in either league hit all season long.

The end result was that home runs accounted for 99 of 201 2nd half runs, nearly 50% of the total. Unfortunately, Baltimore ranked 10th during the 2nd season in the A.L. in runs and the .240 team batting average in that period ranked 12th.

MURRAY HOT/SINGLETON COLD

When the 1st half ended, Murray was rallying from his worst career slump while Singleton had understandably cooled off since his torrid opening month.

In the 2nd half, Murray continued his comeback with an awesome offensive effort that produced a .331 average, 14 home runs and 52 rbi in 50 games. He was the hands down winner of the O's "mvp" award and wound up with the A.L. full-season lead in rbi (78) while tying for the home run title (22).

Meanwhile, however, Singleton continued his decline at the plate and plunged into the worst slump of his career. In the 2nd half he batted only .209, hit only 4 homers and drove in only 17 runs in 50 games.

It was an agonizing time not only for Singleton, one of the game's best hitters and one of its most respected citizens, but also for his legion of admirers who wanted to help but didn't know how.

PITCHING

This is not to say, however, that all of the O's 2nd half troubles were attributable to an inconsistent offense. The pitching staff, despite solid hurling of Dennis and Tippy and McGregor, gave up nearly half a run a game more in the 2nd season than in the 1st, and the club's full season 3.70 era was its 2nd highest in the last 25 years.

IT'S A RELATIVE THING

The consensus—among fans, players, media and front office personnel alike—seems to be that 1981 was an off year for the Orioles. Expectations were high, particularly after the O's moved 3 games in front on May 29 with a 28-14 record, but from that point on, in this uniquely disjointed season, their record was a modest 31-32.

And, yet, how bad is it to finish with the 2nd best overall record in your division, only one game behind the first place team.

ORIOLES VS. OPPONENTS—1981

vs. BOSTON ('81: 2-2, Lifetime: 249-252)... The Red Sox remain the only club in the A.L. with a lifetime winning record vs. Baltimore... The two clubs did not play each other after Sunday, Apr. 26 in Baltimore.

Red Sox: In that final game (4/26) Jerry Remy singled home the tying and lead runs, then scored an insurance tally all the way from 2nd base on Carl Yastrzemski's sac fly, all in the 8th inning, in Sox' come-from-behind 7-5 win... O's had led 4-0 in 1st inning.

Yastrzemski who went 2-for-11 with 4 rbi in 3 games is batting .299 lifetime (347-for-1161) vs. O's... He's hit 32 of his 426 career homers against Baltimore.

After 2 seasons in A.L., Tony Perez is one of Memorial Stadium's biggest boosters... He's played 9 games there in that period, gone 15-for-32 (.469), hit 5 homers and driven in 14 runs... In his only prior Baltimore experience, Perez went 0-for-11 in 3 games during the '70 World Series.

Rick Miller was Boston's leading '81 hitter against the O's with 6-for-12 (.500).

Jim Rice has a .339 lifetime average vs. O's (119-for-351) with 23 homers and 71 rbi in 98 games... In the last 5 years, he's driven in 49 runs in 53 games against Baltimore. Lifetime Rice is batting only .215 (17-for-79) against Jim Palmer, but 8 of his hits have been homers... His first 7 home runs off Palmer were solos. However, his most recent was a 3-run job at Baltimore on Sep. 23, '80.

Mike Torrez, who didn't have a decision in his lone start vs. O's in '81, has lost 7 straight to Baltimore since his last victory on June 25, '78 (complete game victory over Dennis Martinez)...Over the last 3 years, Mike is 0-5 with a yield of 43 hits, 11 walks and 31 earned runs in 24.2 innings (era 11.31)...He is 2-7 vs. O's since joining Boston and 5-9 since the Birds traded him to A's in spring of '76.

Dennis Eckersley was 1-0 in '81 and is now 7-7 lifetime vs. Baltimore...He was 4-0 at the start of his career (thru May 24, '76), but is only 3-7 since then.

Orioles: Ken Singleton batted .500 (6-for-12) as did Rich Dauer (8-for-16)...Singleton has a .522 lifetime average (24-for-46) against Eckersley.

Vs. Torrez, Al Bumbry is batting .444 lifetime (16-for-36) and Dauer has a career mark of .433 (13-for-33) against Mike...Eddie Murray has 14 career homers at the Red Sox' expense, more than he's hit against any other opponent.

vs. CALIFORNIA ('81: 6-6, Lifetime: 164-132)...Despite a .500 record vs. the Angels in '81, the O's are 28-12 (.700) against them in the last 3 years (including 3-1 in '79 ALCS)...In that period, the Birds are 14-6 (incl. ALCS) at Anaheim where they are now 55-50 lifetime.

O's on West Coast: Though the Birds were only 8-7 on the Pacific Coast in '81, they boast a 45-22 (.672) record in the 3 far western ballparks over the last 4 seasons. In the last 5 years, Baltimore is 111-51 (.685) against California, Oakland and Seattle overall (starting '77).

Angels: Two original Orioles, Don Baylor and Bobby Grich, neither of whom had excelled previously against their former club, were the Angels most prolific run-producers in the '81 season series...Each had 10 rbi while Grich hit 5 homers and Baylor 4. Baylor batted .333 (15-for-45) with 9 extra base hits (5 d, 4 hr) while Grich had 7 (1 d, 1 t, 5 hr) and batted .310 (13-for-42)...Bobby hit 2 home runs off Scott McGregor in Baltimore on Aug. 27...Earlier in the year, June 6, he suffered a broken hand when hit with a Steve Luebber pitch.

The leading anti-Oriole hitter was Rick Burleson (.405, 17-for-42)...Rod Carew batted .365 (19-for-52) vs. Baltimore and now has a .315 average lifetime (119-for-607) against the O's, somewhat below his overall career mark of .332 (2505-for-7548).

Fred Lynn in his 1st year with California was 6-for-33 (.182) and former Pirate catcher Ed Ott batted only .080 (2-for-25).

Ken Forsch was 1-1 and in his 1st appearance ever vs. Baltimore, pitched a shutout, winning 10-0 on June 6...Geoff Zahn was 0-7 lifetime vs. the O's before beating Dennis Martinez at Anaheim Aug. 20...He lost later in the year so is now 1-8...No Angel pitcher defeated the O's more than once.

Orioles: Scott McGregor (3-0) and Dennis Martinez (3-1) accounted for all 6 Baltimore wins against the Angels...McGregor has now won 9 in a row from California (including '79 ALCS) since losing to Chris Knapp at Anaheim on Aug. 18, '78...During that 9 win skein, he has compiled a 1.59 era (73.2 ip, 50 h, 13 er) and has held Angels batters to a .183 average (42-for-230).

Mike Flanagan and Jim Palmer were both 0-2 vs. California.

The O's top 2 hitters were Gary Roenicke (.348, 8-for-23) and Rich Dauer (.340, 16-for-47)...Jose Morales has a .412 lifetime average vs. the Angels (21-for-51). Ken Singleton has a .455 average lifetime (10-for-22) vs. Steve Renko.

vs. CHICAGO ('81: 3-6, Lifetime: 234-210)...The Sox won the season series for the 1st time since '74...They batted .313 (100-for-319) in the 9 games while out-scoring Baltimore, 48-37.

The Birds batted only .226 (67-for-297), but, if you disregard one game in which they were battered 18-5 on Apr. 23, the O's actually outscored Chicago in the other 8 encounters (32-30).

In that Apr. 23rd game, the 1st of a make-up doubleheader, the Sox amassed 26 hits, an Orioles' record yield for one game...The Sox also won the nightcap that day to sweep that 3 game series in Comiskey Park...It was to be the O's only trip to Chicago in '81.

Bottle Incident: While waiting for the game to be called because of rain on Apr. 22, Dennis Martinez was hit in the head by a beer bottle in front of the O's dugout and sustained a 4 stitch cut. The man who threw the bottle was immediately arrested and the 23-year old student from a Chicago suburb was ultimately charged and convicted of battery. He was sentenced to serve 26 weekends in jail, to pay room and board for the use of the cell and was also given a year's probation.

White Sox: Tony Bernazard, in his 1st A.L. season, became an instant Orioles nemesis...In the 9 games, he hit .486 (17-for-35), had a .561 on-base percentage (23-for-41) and was credited with the gwrbi in 4 of the Sox' 6 wins against the O's.

Lamar Johnson whose 23 game hit streak vs. Baltimore ended on Apr. 21 batted a modest .261 (6-for-23)...It was the 1st time in his 6 seasons he had batted below .300 against Baltimore...He still has a .368 (70-for-190) career average vs. the Birds, highest among all active veteran players.

Wayne Nordhagen, another Chicagoan who has consistently excelled at the plate against the Orioles, batted .304 (7-for-23) and now has a .324 lifetime average (34-for-105)...He's hit 7 of his 37 lifetime A.L. homers against Baltimore.

Rookie Rusty Kuntz went 5-for-9 in 6 games...Greg Luzinski batted an even .300 (9-for-30), but was held to 1 home run and 1 rbi.

Richard Dotson, despite a 4.66 era (19.1 ip, 20 h, 10 er), was 3-0, the only opposing pitcher to defeat the O's 3 times. He's 4-1 lifetime ...Steve Trout was 0-1 and is now 1-5 lifetime...He has lost 4 straight decisions to the O's since pitching his 1st big league shutout at Memorial Stadium on Aug. 13, '79 (7-0 over McGregor).

Steve Kemp batted .311 (14-for-45) and drew 13 walks for an on-base percentage of .466 (27-for-58) last year while with the Tigers... Over the last 3 years, Kemp is 37-for-103 (.359) with 21 walks and 26 rbi in 29 games.

Jerry Koosman was 0-2 vs. the O's in '81 while with the Twins ...Koosman, who beat the Orioles twice in the '69 World Series, is 0-4 vs. Baltimore since coming to the A.L. in '79.

Orioles: The O's .226 team average was only that high because of Ken Singleton who hit .438 (14-for-32, with 3 d, 4 hr, & 9 rbi in 9 games) ...Without him, the Orioles average was .200 even...The last 6 of Ken's club record 10 straight hits came against Chicago pitching Apr. 27 & 28.

Terry Crowley is the only veteran Oriole with a .300 lifetime average against the White Sox (.309, 17-for-55)...Lenn Sakata is anxiously awaiting his next hit off White Sox pitching...It will be his first ...He's 0-for-34 lifetime.

The day after he was "beaned" by a beer bottle in Chicago, Dennis Martinez relieved Scott McGregor in the 4th inning (of that 18-5 debacle on Apr. 23) and failed to retire any of the 5 batters he faced (all 5 scored)...After that, however, Dennis was flawless...On Apr. 29 he combined with Tippy Martinez to blank Trout, 3-0, then pitched a 3-hit shutout on Aug. 15 against Lamarr Hoyt.

Both Sammy Stewart and Steve Stone were 0-2...Jim Palmer had no decisions in '81, but is 13-2 against the Chisox since losing to them on June 16, '74...Lifetime, he is 24-9.

vs. CLEVELAND ('81: 4-2, Lifetime: 253-249)...The O's and Indians didn't meet for the first time until Sep. 7, then played all 6 of their games within 11 days.

Lifetime Rivalry: Baltimore holds a slim 4 game edge in the 28 year rivalry vs. Cleveland, but the Birds have come a long way since the early days. After their 1st 3 years in the league, the O's trailed the Indians 11-55 (3-19 in both '54 & '55 and 5-17 in '56), and were 40-90 after 6 seasons (thru '59).

It wasn't until June '79 that the O's finally pulled ahead in the won-lost column for the 1st time in Baltimore history. Over the last 13 seasons (starting '69), the O's are 127-79 (.617) vs. Cleveland.

McGregor vs. Barker: Scott McGregor has faced Len Barker in each of his last 5 starts against Cleveland (and vice versa)...In that stretch, Scott is 4-0 with a no-decision while Barker is 1-4, having beaten Tippy Martinez in relief of McGregor on Sep. 27, '80...McGregor has won those 4 straight decisions since his last loss to Cleveland on Sep. 22, '79 (to Rick Waits)...Lifetime, Scott is 7-2 vs. the Indians.

Barker is 2-7 lifetime vs. the O's and 2-6 since joining Cleveland in '79. In '81, he was 0-2 (19 h, 11 er in 11.1 inn. with 6 so). The last time he faced an Orioles starter, other than McGregor, was on May 21, '80 when he beat Mike Flanagan.

Indians: Toby Harrah (.455, 10-for-22) and Rick Manning (.423, 11-for-26) were the Indians' biggest offensive contributors vs. the O's in the abbreviated '81 season series...Manning stole 4 bases in 4 tries.

Orioles: Eddie Murray drove in 11 runs in 9 games vs. Cleveland while batting .391 (9-for-23) in '81...One of his 2 homers was a slam off Wayne Garland in Baltimore on Sep. 7.

Doug DeCinces also batted .391 (9-for-23) vs. the Tribe with 5 rbi...Dan Graham who was only 6-for-55 (.109) in the 2nd half went 4-for-7 during that period in 4 games against the Indians...Al Bumbry batted .346 (9-for-26) and now has a lifetime .315 average (110-for-349) vs. Cleveland...In the last 2 years Bumbry has had a .483 on-base percentage (42-for-87) in 18 games...Another Oriole with a .300 plus career average against the Indians is Ken Singleton (.313, 104-for-332).

Jim Palmer was 1-0 in '81 and is now 27-11 lifetime... He has more career wins vs. the Indians than against any other club.

vs. DETROIT ('81: 6-7, Lifetime: 270-239)... Detroit won the season series for only the 2nd time in the last 10 years.

Weaver vs. Anderson: Earl holds a 22-14 edge over Sparky since the latter became the Tigers Manager in '79 (the record is 26-15 if you include the '70 World Series).

Tigers: Kirk Gibson was the Tigers' leading regular vs. the O's with a .423 average (11-for-26) plus 2 home runs... John Wockenfuss, the Wilmington native, enjoyed another good year vs. the O's with 3 homers and back-to-back gwrbi in the Tiger victories of Sep. 22 & 23 in Baltimore ...Among his 63 career home runs, 11 have been hit against Baltimore pitching, including 6 in the last 2 years.

George Cappuzzello, in his 9th pro season, made his big league debut when he started against the Birds at Baltimore on May 31, but didn't get out of the 1st inning (though the Tigers went on to win)... On Sep. 22, on the Tigers' next trip to Memorial Stadium, George earned his 1st (and only) big league win, in relief.

Jack Morris was 2-0 in 2 starts and yielded only 1 run in 15 innings (0.60 era).

Orioles: The Birds batted only .227 (96-for-424), some 49 points less than the Bengals (.275, 119-for-433), and were out-scored by the Tigers, 46-63.

Jim Dwyer batted .318 (9-for-22) and hit 2 of his 3 homers against the Tigers... Lifetime, Dwyer is batting .333 (21-for-63) vs. Detroit... Ken Singleton (54), Eddie Murray (50) and Doug DeCinces (48) have all driven in more runs lifetime vs. the Bengals than against any other opponent.

Dennis Martinez (2-1) was the O's only multiple winner vs. Detroit... Scott McGregor beat Milt Wilcox on May 22 to record his 6th straight victory over the Tigers and to improve his career record to 10-1 ...Then, Scott lost 3 in a row to Detroit the rest of the way.

Jim Palmer was 0-1, a loss on May 30 to Morris which snapped Jim's 7 game winning streak against the Tigers... He's won 7 of his last 8 against them since losing on July 31, '76, and is 19-11 lifetime.

vs. KANSAS CITY ('81: 5-3, Lifetime: 87-61)... The O's won the season series for the 1st time in 6 years (since '75)... From '76 thru '80, they were 0-2 with 3 ties in season series vs. K.C.... In that 6 year period, the O's are only 29-36 vs. the Royals.

However, Baltimore still holds a commanding lead in lifetime victories thanks largely to the fact that the Birds won 23 of the first 24 games they ever played against the Royals, in '69 & '70 (including a record 23 straight after Dick Drago beat Dick Hall on May 9, '69 in Baltimore in the first O's-Royals game)... Since the end of that streak, the O's hold a slim 64-60 edge.

Royals Stadium: The O's have a 51-24 (.680) lifetime advantage against the Royals at Baltimore and were 17-7 against them at old Municipal Stadium. However, since Royals Stadium opened in '73, the Orioles are 19-30 there and have gone 6-17 on the K.C. carpet starting June 4, '77.

Opening Days: In '82 the O's will play their home opener against K.C. for the 3rd straight time (or, 4th straight if you call the 1st game of the '81 2nd half an opening game)... The O's have won both (or, all 3 depending on your point of view) of the previous openers.

Oddities: Amos Otis dropped routine fly balls in left field in each of the 1st 2 games of the year and Gary Roenicke returned the favor against the Royals, also at Memorial Stadium, on Aug. 12... Otis' 1st muff with 2 out and 1 on in the 5th inning opening day led to the O's 2-run game-winning rally (4 walks and the boot produced the 2 runs).

In those 1st 2 games of the year Royals pitchers issued 3 bases loaded walks (Gura-2, Quisenberry-1)... Ken Singleton hit home runs in the 1st innings of both the '81 opener and "re-opener."

Royals: The secret to the O's winning the season series was the containment of: George Brett-.125 (4-for-32, 0 hr, 0 rbi), Willie Aikens-.095 (2-for-22, 1 hr, 1 rbi) and Willie Wilson-.222 (8-for-36, 3 r, 1 hr, 1 rbi, 2 sb).

Nevertheless, Brett, who went 1-for-17 in the final 4 game series vs. the O's in August, maintains a .354 career average vs. Baltimore (114-for-322)... Only Lamar Johnson (.368) and Ricky Henderson (.358) have higher career averages vs. Baltimore among opponents with 100 or more at bats.

Hal McRae batted .441 (15-for-34) and U. L. Washington hit .321 (9-for-28)... Otis batted only .172 (5-for-29), but hit 2 homers and led K.C. with 6 rbi vs. Baltimore.

Interestingly, though the Royals were only 3-5 vs. the O's, they held the edge in batting (.249 to .209), scoring (28-21) and pitching (2.15 to 2.92).

Larry Gura (1-1 in '81) has yielded only 7 earned runs in 45.2 innings against Baltimore these past 2 years (1.38 era), but has only a 3-3 record to show for his efforts. . . Lifetime, he's 9-5.

Dan Quisenberry had 1 save in 4 appearances last year. . . In his 3 A.L. seasons he has worked in 11 games vs. the O's, totaling 14.2 innings and has yet to yield an earned run. . . He's 1-0 with 2 saves in that span.

Orioles: Singleton was the only O's regular to bat over .300 vs. K.C. (.357, 10-for-28). . . He is batting .318 lifetime (83-for-261) while Jose Morales is hitting .338 (24-for-71) and Jim Dwyer .303 (10-for-33).

The O's top 3 relief pitchers (Tippy Martinez, Tim Stoddard and Sammy Stewart) played a part in all 5 of the Birds' victories with a combined 2-0 record plus 3 saves. . . Their aggregate era was 0.51 (1 er in 17.2 ip). . . Tippy was 2-0, Stoddard had 2 saves and Stewart 1 save. . . Mike Flanagan was 1-2.

vs. MILWAUKEE ('81: 2-4, Lifetime: 118-67). . . The O's lost the season series for only the 3rd time in 13 years (including Seattle in '69). Though only 1-2 at County Stadium last year, the O's have a 55-33 lifetime record there in 12 seasons.

The Brewers out-hit (.285 to .264), out-scored (30-22) and out-pitched (3.40 to 5.02) the O's, but the Birds did hold a 6-2 edge in home runs.

Brewers: Cecil Cooper had another good year against Baltimore . . . He went 10-for-23 (.435) and in his 5 seasons at Milwaukee has batted .344 (72-for-209) vs. the O's. . . In his last 40 games against the Birds (starting '78) Cooper has driven in 34 runs.

Paul Molitor (.471, 8-for-17) has a .304 lifetime average (50-for-164) with 12 steals in 13 attempts. . . Ted Simmons batted .348 (8-for-23) vs. Baltimore in his 1st A.L. season and led the Brewers with 7 rbi in 6 games. . . Larry Hisle was 0-for-1 in 1 game and has appeared in only 10 games against the O's in the last 3 seasons. . . Nonetheless, he boasts a .344 career average (98-for-285), and have driven in 43 runs in 46 games over the last 6 seasons.

Pete Vuckovich was the only pitcher on either club with 2 wins in the series, and he gave up only 1 run in 12 innings. . . He's 4-1 lifetime . . . MVP Rollie Fingers was 1-0 with 1 save in 2 appearances while Moose Haas was 0-1 and is now 4-5 lifetime vs. his hometown club.

Orioles: Eddie Murray was devastating with a .522 average (12-for-23), 3 homers and 8 rbi in 6 games, and Al Bumbry batted .476 (10-for-21).

Lenn Sakata has made the most of his opportunities against the club that originally signed him and brought him to the majors. . . Overall in 9 games during the past 2 years, Lenn has hit .348 (8-for-23) with 3 homers (of his 8 total in the majors) and 7 rbi. . . On Sep. 20 he homered twice for the first time in his career (off Mike Caldwell and Reggie Cleveland), and had 5 rbi in the O's 8-2 win at Baltimore.

In '80, in his only 2 plate appearances vs. Milwaukee, Lenn won 1 game with a sudden death 11th inning home run (June 2) and another time hit an 8th inning game tying sac fly (July 27) that led to another O's win in 12 innings.

Aside from Sakata, Benny Ayala (.303, 10-for-33), Murray (.317, 71-for-224) and Gary Roenicke (.324, 24-for-74) all have .300 plus career averages against the Brewers.

Roenicke is batting .571 lifetime (12-for-21) vs. Caldwell, and Murray is 7-for-14 (.500) against Vuckovich.

vs. MINNESOTA ('81: 6-0, Lifetime: 249-195). . . The O's went undefeated against the Twins in '81 and have now beaten them 12 straight times since John Verhoeven decisioned Tippy Martinez in 11 innings on July 21, '80. . . The O's have also won 8 straight from Minnesota at Baltimore since Steve Stone lost to Pete Redfern on May 5, '80.

The O's are 16-2 over the last 2 seasons and 21-4 against the Griffs since losing on Aug. 27, '79. . . All 6 games in the abbreviated '81 season series were played in May.

Weird Ending: Two of the 3 O's-Twins games at Memorial Stadium (May 4-5-6) ended in "sudden death". . . The first (May 4) on Terry Crowley's 10th inning pinch-hit, and the second (May 6) in the 9th on a highly unusual play.

After Al Bumbry singled in the tying run with 1 down in the 9th, the O's had runners on 2nd (Bumbry) and 3rd (Sakata) and Mark Belanger batting. . . Belanger grounded to 3rd baseman John Castino who threw to the plate and the Twins ultimately tagged Sakata in a 5-2-6-3 rundown. On that play Bumbry moved to 3rd, then Belanger headed for 2nd, and Bumbry streaked for home. Belanger was trapped and should have been out (3-4-9-4) except that Mark collided with 2nd baseman Rob Wilfong and jarred the ball loose as "Bee" scored the winning run.

Twins: Rookie Gary Ward, in his 9th pro season, went 10-for-20 with 2 homers (the only 2 hit by the Twins vs. the O's), a double and 3 rbi in 5 games . . . He was the top hitter among all O's opponents with 20 or more at bats. Ward was also the first successful base stealer against Rick Dempsey in '81 (May 15) after Rick had thrown out the 1st 9 attempting to steal.

Hosken Powell has batted .341 (30-for-88) over the last 3 years vs. Baltimore . . .

Both Jerry Koosman and Roger Erickson were 0-2 in '81. . . Erickson is 0-5 lifetime vs. the O's . . . Doug Corbett who appeared in 3 games vs. the O's in '81 without a decision or save has pitched effectively against the Birds in his 2 A.L. seasons, but is 0-2 with only 1 save in 9 appearances despite a 1.42 era (12.2 ip, 2 er).

In the last 2 years Redfern (5/5/80, loser T. Martinez) and Verhoeven (7/21/80, loser Stone) are the only Twins pitchers to have beaten Baltimore.

Orioles: The Orioles hit .327 as a team (70-for-214) and out-scored the Twins 34-16. . . Ten of the 17 Orioles who batted in the season series hit over .300. . . Among them: Gary Roenicke (.450, 9-for-20), Rich Dauer (.400, 8-for-20) and Eddie Murray (.393, 11-for-28). . .

In the last 2 years (18 games) the O's have hit .323 (209-for-648) vs. Minny and over the last 4 seasons (40 games) have a .297 club average (419-for-1410).

Lenn Sakata who was 4-for-6 in '81 is now 11-for-21 lifetime (.524) vs. Minnesota. . . Dan Graham, despite a horrendous season, went 3-for-10 against the club which originally signed him and in 2 years with the O's has a .364 average (12-for-33) with 15 rbi in only 9 games.

In addition to Sakata and Graham, the following also boast .300 plus career averages vs. Minny: Roenicke (.347, 35-for-101), Rick Dempsey, another original Twin (.325, 52-for-160), Murray (.310, 62-for-200) and Ken Singleton (.310, 77-for-248).

None of the 8 Orioles pitchers who worked against the Twins in '81 had an era of over 3.00. . . Dennis Martinez was 2-0 in 2 starts and Mike Flanagan (1-0) extended his winning streak over Minnesota to 9 straight. . . Mike lost his 1st 2 career decisions to the Twins, the latter on May 29, '77 (to Dave Goltz), and hasn't been beaten by them since. (ergo: he's 9-2 lifetime).

Jim Palmer was 1-0 and is now 19-11 lifetime (not including 2 wins in decisive games of both the '69 & '70 ALCS). . . Scott McGregor who did not pitch against Minnesota in '81 has a 6 game winning streak going since his only career loss on July 22, '78 (to Goltz). . . He's 7-1 lifetime.

vs. NEW YORK ('81: 7-6, Lifetime: 260-244). . . The O's won the season series for the 2nd straight year, by the same margin as in '80, 7-6. . . Baltimore is 14-8 in the last 22 games against the Yankees starting Apr. 30, '80.

Season Series: In the last 18 years ('64 thru '81), the Orioles have won the season series 14 times, lost only 3 and tied 1. . . In that period, the O's are 178-118 (.581).

In the 28 years the Birds have been in the league, they have a 16-10-2 record in season series vs. N.Y. and are 16-5-2 starting in '59.

O's & Yankees Lifetime: Baltimore remains the only A.L. club with a winning lifetime record over the Yankees (260-244, .516). . . Detroit ranks 2nd at .473 (762-849) and the Milwaukee Brewers (excluding '69 in Seattle) 3rd with a .466 percentage (82-94).

The O's were 32-76 (.296) during their 1st 5 years in the A.L. ('54 thru '58). . . Since then, they have gone 228-168 (.576). . . From '64 thru '81, a period of 18 years (see "Season Series" above), the Birds are 178-118, .581.

O's at Yankee Stadium: The O's were 2-5 at Yankee Stadium in '81, their worst record in the "House of Ruth" since '60 when they were 1-10. . . However, the Birds still have the best lifetime record in Yankee Stadium among all Yankee opponents, 115-120 (.489). . . The Twins (excluding Was.) are 2nd at .439 (58-74) and the Oakland A's (excluding K.C. and Phi.) are 3rd at .437 (31-40). . . Obviously these figures do not include w-l records in N.Y. when the Yankees were based at Shea Stadium during the reconstruction of Yankee Stadium ('74-'75).

Three of the O's 5 '81 Yankee Stadium losses were in "sudden death": JUNE 2—O's led 3-2 in 9th, but Yanks tied on Graig Nettles' single and Dave Revering won it with 2-run homer in 11th off Sammy Stewart. . . JUNE 3—Dennis Martinez pitched 10 scoreless innings, allowing just 3 hits, but Nettles won in 11th with 2-run homer off Tippy Martinez. Dave Righetti worked 8 shutout innings, but the win went to Ron Davis who blanked the O's over the final 3. . . SEP. 26—O's led in 9th but Bobby Murcer hit a 3-run homer off Tim Stoddard in the bottom half.

Sweeps: In 28 years the O's hold a 30 to 29 edge in series sweeps (3 game series minimum) over the Yankees. . . In '81 the O's swept the 1st 3 game set in Baltimore (May 25-26-27), but a week later the Yankees returned the favor by capturing all 3 games at New York (June 2-3-4).

The O's are 18-11 in sweeps at Baltimore and 12-18 in New York.

Yankees: The Yankees out-hit the O's (.251 to .244), out-scored them (52 to 48), and out-pitched them (3.32 to 3.61). The O's held the edge in homers (16 to 12).

Graig Nettles was the Yankees' leading hitter at .349 (15-for-43) with 2 homers & 8 rbi. . . He now has 28 lifetime home runs vs. Baltimore and ranks 3rd among actives behind Reggie Jackson and Carl Yastrzemski, both of whom have connected 32 times against the O's. . . The all-time record is 67 by Harmon Killebrew followed by Mickey Mantle's 54 . . . In rbi Nettles with 104 vs. the O's is 2nd (among active players) to Yastrzemski's 160. . . Reggie has 91.

Reggie batted only .163 (7-for-43), but hit 3 homers and drove in 6 while Dave Winfield hit 3 hrs and drove in 8 on a .286 average (14-for-49) . . . In the last 2 years Reggie has batted only .155 vs. Baltimore (13-for-84). . . Willie Randolph drew 11 walks in the season series, but batted only .152 (7-for-46).

Dave Righetti and Ron Davis were both 2-0 while Ron Guidry and Tommy John were both 0-2. . . Righetti fanned 20 batters in 24 innings, an '81 high for opposing pitchers. . . Guidry who is 5-5 lifetime has lost 4 straight decisions to the O's (all to Jim Palmer) since his last victory on Aug. 6, '79 when he beat Tippy. . . John is 14-12 lifetime vs. the O's (5-3 since returning to the A.L.).

Goose Gossage lost 2 games overall in '81, one of them to Baltimore on Terry Crowley's 2-out pinch-single in the 9th inning on May 27 in Baltimore. . . He also beat the O's on June 2. . . Ken Singleton is the O's leading lifetime hitter vs. Gossage at .333 (9-for-27).

Orioles: Crowley has a .198 lifetime average (16-for-81) vs. the Yankees, but you couldn't tell it the way he has hit against them the past 2 years during which he's gone 11-for-27 (.407) including 6-for-16 (.375) in '81. . . In the last 2 years he's driven in the winning run 3 times including twice last year (back-to-back): May 26 (2 homers off Gene Nelson, 4 rbi) and May 27 (2-out 9th inning "sudden death" single off Gossage).

Doug DeCinces, whose 15 lifetime homers vs. N.Y. represented a high among O's, connected 5 times and drove in 11 runs in 13 games against the Bombers. . . He was robbed of a 6th hr on an incredible leaping catch into the left field stands by Winfield on Sep. 24 at Yankee Stadium. . . Doug had 2 in a game off the Yankees on both May 25 and 27 and had 9 rbi in that 3 game O's sweep in Baltimore. . . DeCinces now has 5 career homers off Guidry (including 1 in '81), tops in the A.L.

Among the regulars Rich Dauer had the highest '81 average vs. the Yankees (.340, 17-for-50). . . Benny Ayala (.305, 18-for-59) and Jim Dwyer (.314, 11-for-35) both have 300+ lifetime averages against N.Y.

Both Scott McGregor and Jim Palmer were 2-0 in '81. . . McGregor, now 5-5 lifetime, has won all of his career decisions by shutout scores, including 2 in '81. He's gone the route in 4 of those and was relieved by Tippy in the other in the 9th inning on Aug. 3, '79. . . Three of his victories over the Yankees have been by 1-0 scores.

In '81 Scott was knocked out early (5th inning) in his 1st start vs. N.Y., on May 26 (4.2 ip, 11 h, 4 r) though the O's went on to win. In his next 2 efforts he won 1-0 at N.Y. on a cg 6-hitter Sep. 25, and 3-0 in a 7-hit cg effort at Baltimore Oct. 3. . . In those last 2 games he threw 85 and 93 pitches, respectively.

Palmer went the route in both his starts and allowed only 2 runs, winning 10-1 on May 25 and 5-1 on Sep. 24, both over Guidry. . . Jim has now beaten the Yankees 4 straight times (all at Guidry's expense) since losing to Ron Davis on Apr. 23, '80. . . Palmer is 27-15 lifetime against the Yankees. . . He has more wins against them than any other active pitcher. . . In the last 40 years only 9 others have beaten N.Y. more often than Jim. . . He has a 6-2 record at Yankee Stadium since it reopened in '76 and is 15-6 there lifetime.

Mike Flanagan beat N.Y. at Baltimore on the last day of the season, 5-2, with relief help from Tim Stoddard to record his 1st victory over the Yankees since Aug. 12, '78. He had dropped 5 straight decisions to them (and immediately prior to that had beaten them 5 straight times). Lifetime, he is 7-7.

vs. OAKLAND ('81: 7-5, Lifetime-Oak. only: 97-73). . . The Orioles won their season series against Oakland for the 5th straight year (starting '77). . . During that period, the O's are 41-16 (.719) vs. the A's (including 11-0 in '78).

From July 8, '76 thru the '81 season, the O's are 23-7 (.767) at the Oakland-Alameda Coliseum (including 3-3 in '81). . . Lifetime, they are 54-39 there (.581), including 3-3 in 3 ALCS.

In '81, the O's out-hit (.248 to .231), out-scored (46 to 44) and out-pitched (3.43 to 3.82) the A's, but Oakland held a 14 to 9 edge in home runs.

Weaver vs. Martin: Earl Weaver and Billy Martin have been managing against each other since '69 and Earl holds an 86-69 edge including a 3-0 record in the '69 ALCS when Martin was managing the Twins.

A's: Tony Armas led all opponents with 6 home runs and 13 rbi against the O's in '81. . . All of his hr & rbi came in the final 7 games of the season series and he was robbed of a 3-run homer on Sep. 5 by Al Bumbry. . . He was 2-for-19 with no hr and no rbi in the first 5 A's-O's games. In the last 2 years, Armas has hit 10 homers and driven in 24 runs in 24 games vs. Baltimore. . . During his 1st 3 years in the league ('77-'78-'79), he hit only 1 home run in 21 games.

Rickey Henderson batted .400 (20-for-50) and stole 4 bases in 6 tries. . . In his last 2 years Henderson in 24 games vs. the O's has batted .378 (34-for-90) with 20 runs, 17 walks and 13 stolen bases. . . Lifetime, Henderson has a .358 (39-for-109) average vs. Baltimore, second only to Lamar Johnson's .368 among hitters with more than 100 at bats vs. the O's. . . Cliff Johnson was also productive with 3 homers and 10 rbi in 11 games. Mike Norris was 0-2 with an 8.31 era in 2 starts (13 ip, 17 h, 12 er) and Rick Langford was 1-2.

Orioles: Doug DeCinces batted .379 (11-for-29) and John Lowenstein hit .361 (13-for-36) with 2 homers and 6 rbi in 11 games. . . Gary Roenicke went 7-for-12 (.583) and Jose Morales 5-for-12 (.417) in '81.

Mike Flanagan was 2-0 vs. the A's in '81. He is 5-1 over the last 2 years and 12-3 lifetime, including 8-0 at Oakland Coliseum. . . Jim Palmer was 1-2, is 1-4 in the last 3 years since going 4-0 vs. Oakland in '78, and is 19-13 lifetime (not including his pennant clinching victory in the '71 ALCS).

vs. SEATTLE ('81: 4-2, Lifetime: 36-14). . . The O's are 4-0-1 in 5 season series vs. the M's, having tied 6-6 in 1980. . . The Birds are 15-10 lifetime at the Kingdome and 21-4 against Seattle in Baltimore. . . The M's lost their 1st 14 games at Memorial Stadium before snapping that streak on July 25, '79 when ex-Oriole Mike Parrott beat Sammy Stewart. . . The only series the M's have ever won in Baltimore was June 13-14-15, '80 when they won 2 of 3 games.

Mariners: Richie Zisk batted .458 (11-for-24) vs. the O's in '81 with 2 homers and 3 rbi. . . Parrott and Larry Andersen were both 1-0, accounting for the 2 Seattle victories. . .

Orioles: Ken Singleton has a lifetime average of .341 (56-for-164) vs. Seattle and has 18 homers plus 50 rbi in only 46 games. . . At the Kingdome he has a career average of .345 (29-for-84) with 10 homers and 24 rbi in 23 games.

Steve Stone was 1-0 vs. the M's in '81 and is now 6-0 since joining the Orioles in '79. . . In that time he has started 7 games, completed 5, pitched 58 innings, allowed only 31 hits and 5 earned runs for an 0.78 era against Seattle.

Dennis Martinez is 9-2 lifetime including 1-1 in '81. . . Jim Palmer has not been effective against the M's. . . He is 2-3 overall with a 5.88 era (33.2 ip, 42 h, 22 er), but has never won in the Kingdome. . . As a matter of fact, he lost his 1st 2 starts there in '77 both to Glenn Abbott (May 16 & Aug. 7) then didn't pitch there for more than 4 years, until Aug. 25, '81 (no decision). . . In 3 games lifetime he has worked 9 innings and yielded 13 hits plus 11 runs at Seattle.

vs. TEXAS ('81: 2-1, Lifetime-Tex. only: 60-48). . . The O's played only 3 games vs. Texas in '81, but maintained their substantial lifetime winning record against the Rangers at Arlington Stadium. . . The Birds are 37-18 (.673) there since the old Washington franchise moved to Texas in '71. . . On the other hand the Rangers hold 30-23 advantage (.566) at Memorial Stadium (although the 2 clubs didn't play in Baltimore in '81).

Rangers: In the last 2 years Al Oliver has hit .397 vs. Baltimore (25-for-63) while Jim Sundberg has attacked O's pitching at a .352 pace (44-for-125) in the last 4 seasons. . . Pat Putnam boasts a .329 career average vs. the Birds (24-for-73) and John Grubb is batting .363 lifetime (29-for-80) against the O's. "See Lamar Johnson vs. O's under Chicago on page 42."

Steve Comer has a 4 year career era of 1.59 vs. Baltimore in 7 appearances including 6 starts to go with a 3-1 record. . . He's allowed only 29 hits and 7 earned runs in 39.2 innings.

Orioles: Dan Graham (3-for-9 in '81) has a 2-year average of .457 (16-for-35) vs. the Rangers with 9 rbi in 9 games. . . Steve Stone and Dennis Martinez were each 1-0 while Mike Flanagan was 0-1 in '81.

vs. TORONTO ('81: 5-2, Lifetime: 45-18). . . The O's have won all 5 season series against the Blue Jays since that franchise began operating in 1977. . . . The Birds are 32-6 against Toronto since losing 7 of 9 games played between June 26, '78 (the nite the Jays swamped them

24-10) and Aug. 8, '78...(that stretch included 6 straight O's losses at Exhibition Stadium). All 7 '81 games were played between Apr. 30 & May 14.

At home the O's have won 19 of last 20 (since losing on 7/6/78)...A 19 game winning streak vs. the Jays at home was ended on May 3, '81 when Mark Bomback decisioned Steve Stone, 4-2.

The Birds are also 25-2 vs. Toronto at Memorial Stadium since losing on Sep. 19, '77...Lifetime Baltimore holds a 27-5 edge at home and an 18-13 advantage at Toronto.

Blue Jays: Toronto hit only .192 (42-for-219) in the 7 games... Jorge Bell was the leading regular at .286 (6-for-21)...He hit his 1st big league home run in Baltimore, off Scott McGregor on May 3....Danny Ainge batted only .042 (1-for 24).

ALL-STAR GAME NOTES

1981: Ken Singleton was rewarded for his outstanding start as he was the Orioles' 1st elected starter in an all-star game since '76. Ken finished 2nd to New York's Reggie Jackson in the outfield balloting with 541,100 votes, placing him ahead of Yankee Dave Winfield. It was Ken's 3rd midsummer classic.

Singy started the August 9 contest at Cleveland Stadium in left field and became the 3rd Baltimore player to homer in an all-star game (see below) when he connected off Cincinnati's Tom Seaver to lead off the bottom of the 2nd inning. He also singled and grounded out and scored two runs.

American League manager and former O's coach Jim Frey also selected Eddie Murray and Scott McGregor to the squad. Murray, named for the 2nd time but making his 1st appearance, played the final 5 innings at 1st base and was 0-for-2. McGregor, chosen for the 1st time, did not see action in the 5-4 National League win, the N.L.'s 10th straight win and 18th in the last 19 games.

Elected Starters: Bobby Grich had been the last Oriole to start an all-star game when he earned the berth at 2nd base in '76. Other O's who have been elected to starting positions are Boog Powell ('70, '71), Brooks Robinson ('71, '72, '73, '74), and Frank Robinson ('71). In addition, pitchers Jim Palmer ('70, '72, '77, '78) and Steve Stone ('80) have been chosen by the manager to start.

Selection of the starting team was returned to the fans in '70 under the sponsorship of the Gillette Company in cooperation with Major League Baseball. Following the ballot box "stuffing" incident in Cincinnati in '57, responsibility for choosing the starting teams was entrusted to major league players for 12 years ('58 thru '69). In '81, there were 3,243,674 votes cast.

Orioles All-Star MVPs: Three Orioles have won "mvp" honors in all-star competition: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66) and Frank Robinson ('71).

O'Dell, the former Orioles lefthander who also pitched for the Giants, Braves and Pirates, hurled the last three innings of the only all-star game ever played in Baltimore and retired all nine batters he faced to protect a one run lead, thus giving the A.L. a 4-3 win.

Brooks won the '66 Arch Ward Memorial Trophy on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort at bat (including a triple) and an 8-for-8 performance afield. He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank's fourth inning home run at Detroit in '71 put the A.L. on top to stay and earned him "mvp" honors. It was the first all-star victory since '62 for the A.L. which has not won an all-star game since '71.

FARM SYSTEM—1981

The O's AAA team in Rochester qualified for the International League playoffs for the 2nd straight year, but lost to eventual I.L. champion Columbus, 3 games to 2 in the opening round. Cal Ripken, Jr. was selected as the league's "rookie of the year" as well as the all-star 3rd baseman, despite the fact he played the final 2 months in Baltimore.

The class A Charlotte O's, the '80 Southern League champs, missed the playoffs by 6/1000th's of a percentage point, losing the 2nd half title to Savannah on the final day of the season. Willie Royster was selected as the designated hitter on the all-star team.

The Hagerstown Suns, a co-op club that won the Carolina League championship in its 1st year of existence, had a distinct Oriole flavor. The O's provided a majority of the club's players as well as the manager, Grady Little, who was selected as the circuit's "manager of the year". In December it was announced that Baltimore had signed a full working agreement with Hagerstown for the '82 season.

Oriole minor league products were also selected to all-star teams in the Florida State (outfielder Mike Young) and Appalachian (outfielder Dave Falcone) Leagues. Over the past 19 seasons, the O's minor league clubs have compiled a cumulative record of 6717-6083 (.525). The Orioles were chosen as the Topps' "Baseball Organization of the Year" in '66, '71, and '72.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES, INC.

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique non-profit corporation dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. The organization, founded officially in July, 1960, comprises some 75 men and women drawn from a wide cross-section of the Baltimore-area business community.

Thru the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial contributions primarily to youth organizations, and have played a major role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace on Emory Street. Recently the Advocates provided the leadership in establishing the Baltimore Orioles "Hall of Fame" (see page 13)...They have also become an essential arm of the Orioles' public relations and promotions program. On "souvenir giveaway" days at the stadium, it is the Advocates who see to it that every eligible person coming to the park receives the particular item.

Probably the biggest contribution of all, however, has been the formation and administration of the Junior Orioles program that began in '63 with 750 youngsters and reached an all-time high of 20,000 members (in '77). It is a massive undertaking, a quality "knothole" program that requires a great deal of time and effort.

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCERS

CHUCK THOMPSON

Chuck Thompson was born in Palmer, Mass., grew up in Reading, Pa., and has lived in the Baltimore area for the past 33 years. This is his 23rd season as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles.

During his 40 years in the business, Chuck has done play-by-play, on radio and television, for baseball, football, basketball, golf, and ice hockey. He's been named the outstanding sportscaster in Maryland by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association on numerous occasions.

Chuck began his announcing career in 1939 at WEEU in Reading. Three years later he became a staff announcer for WIBG in Philadelphia, where he covered Temple University football.

After seeing combat in three major European campaigns for the U.S. Army in World War II, he returned to Philadelphia to describe the action of the Phillies and A's, Warriors, Eagles, and Rockets (ice hockey).

He came to Baltimore in 1949 to do play-by-play for the International League Orioles, the Baltimore Bullets, U.S. Naval Academy football, and the Colts in the All-America Conference.

In 1955 Chuck joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during the 24 years of that association did American League Orioles baseball for 19 years ('55-'56 and '62 thru '78), Colts football, Washington Senators baseball (1957-61), and the NBC-TV "Game-of-the-Week" (1959-60).

His versatile career contains many highlights. In December, 1958, he covered the Colts-Giants "sudden death" NFL championship game, and a month later he was on the 18th green at Pebble Beach, California, to describe the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament for ABC-TV.

Chuck was selected by NBC to do the radio broadcast of the 1960 World Series between the Yankees and the Pirates, and he was behind the mike when Bill Mazeroski hit his decisive homer at Forbes Field to win that classic for Pittsburgh.

In 1965, for CBS-TV, he worked the Colts-Packers "sudden death" playoff game for the NFL's western division championship.

And, he covered the first four world series in which the Orioles were involved.

Chuck is a golf and fishing enthusiast. He and his wife, Rose, have three children and five grandchildren.

BILL O'DONNELL

Bill O'Donnell, a veteran of 32 years in sports broadcasting, is in his 17th season as an Orioles' play-by-play announcer.

The New York City native joined the Birds' broadcast team in 1966 (the year of the club's first world championship) after 13 years as the voice of Syracuse University football. He also worked basketball for the Orangemen as well as Eastern League and International League baseball during that period.

Bill graduated from Fordham Prep (N.Y.) and was majoring in classical studies and languages at Fordham University when he joined the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II. His service tour included a stint as sports editor of the Navy News while on Guam.

Upon discharge, he completed his education at Mohawk College (Utica, N.Y.), then began his broadcasting career in 1950 by doing the play-by-play for the Pocatello, Idaho club in the old Pioneer League. In Pocatello he also broadcast football, basketball, and boxing for Idaho State University.

Since then there is very little he hasn't done in baseball, basketball, and football, collegiate or professional, at the local, regional, or nationwide network levels. He was a member of NBC-TV's baseball "Game-of-the-Week" team from 1969 to 1976, covered the 1975 American League Championship Series between Boston and Oakland for NBC television, and worked the 1969 and 1971 World Series for NBC radio and television.

His extensive basketball background includes numerous ECAC telecasts (1964-73), and 2 seasons of television play-by-play for the Cleveland Cavaliers of the NBA.

Bill's football experience includes three years of radio play-by-play for the Baltimore Colts (1966-68) and six years as a member of NBC-TV's NFL crew. On the collegiate level he has worked NCAA telecasts for ABC, and described Notre Dame football for the school's television network. More recently he has done college basketball and football for ESPN cable TV network and college basketball for NBC/TVS and CBS radio.

An avid reader, Bill is married to the former Patricia Martin. They have five children and one grandchild.

TOM MARR

Tom Marr, born and raised in Montgomery County, Maryland, is a veteran of 22 years in broadcasting and has spent the last 16 years with WFBR Radio in Baltimore.

Tom is in his 4th year with the Orioles' broadcast team, having made his debut as a major league play-by-play announcer in '79. He also conducts pre- and post-game radio shows. He previously did six Orioles games from Japan when the Birds made their trip to the Orient in '71.

He began his broadcasting career doing a high school sports show at WWDC in Washington, and later worked in radio stations in Rhode Island, Connecticut and Virginia before coming to WFBR.

Tom has an extensive radio-television background in both news and sports. He has broken several stories that have received national attention and has appeared twice on the CBS Evening News with Walter Cronkite.

From '69 to '75, Marr covered Baltimore's pro teams for the CBS Radio Network, supplying an average of more than 150 reports a year. For three years prior to joining the Orioles broadcasting team he was the weekend sports anchor at WMAR-TV.

When not involved with baseball, Tom still participates in WFBR's award winning discussion program, "Conference Call" as a regular panel member.

In addition to his pre-game, post-game and play-by-play responsibilities, he hosts the "Earl Weaver Radio Show", 15 minutes before each game.

Tom is a graduate of Montgomery Blair High School in Silver Spring and a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps. He is married and the father of five children. His wife, Sharon, is a Baltimore City Police Officer.

BROOKS ROBINSON

Born and raised in Little Rock, Ark., but has lived for many years in Lutherville, Baltimore County.

He'll be doing color on tv with Chuck Thompson and Bill O'Donnell for 5th straight year (and 4th year on WMAR-TV, Ch. 2).

He is also active as a vice-president of Personal Management Associates (PMA) and as a special assistant with the Crown Central Petroleum Company.

PMA is a Baltimore firm which provides athletes with advice and assistance in all areas of their professional, financial and personal lives. At PMA he works with Ron Shapiro and Mark Belanger.

Last Season-'77: Brooks signed in '77 as a player-coach and played sparingly. Then on Aug. 21, he became a coach exclusively when he went on the voluntarily retired list to accommodate the return of Rick Dempsey to active duty after a siege on the disabled list.

Brooks' 268th and last home run was one of the most dramatic and emotional in O's history. It was on Apr. 19, '77. The O's were hosting Cleveland, and were trailing 5-2 going into the 9th...Lee May singled one run across with one out, then Brooks came up with two on and one out as pinch-hitter for Larry Harlow.

He worked the count to "3 and 2", fouled off a few more pitches, then homered into the left field stands off lefty Dave LaRoche to produce a 6-5 "sudden death" victory.

His last plate appearance occurred as a pinch-hitter at Cal. on Aug. 5, and his last base hit was a June 3 seventh inning single off lefty Steve Mingori at K.C.

An Orioles' record regular season crowd of 51,798 attended "Thanks, Brooks" Day on Sunday, Sep. 18, against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and most beloved Oriole of all time.

Winding Down-'76: Brooks started the season at third base, but in early July, Doug DeCinces became the regular third baseman.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER

Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

Believe It or Not: Brooks made three errors in one inning against the A's in Baltimore on July 28, '71 (6th inning)...However, the O's won the game when Frank Robby hit a three run homer in the 9th to erase an 0-2 deficit.

All-Star Games: He played in 18 consecutive all star games from '60 thru '74 (including two per year in '60, '61, '62)...He had a lifetime all-star average of .289 (13-for-45), was the "mvp" in '66 (at St. L.) and nearly won two other such awards in '64 at Shea Stadium and '70 at Cincinnati.

He hit one home run ('67 at Anaheim), three triples and did not make an error in 43 chances.

Brooks was elected to starting lineup in Gillette-sponsored fan vote four times ('71, '72, '73, '74) and started a total of 11 games...He led A.L. players in votes in '71 and had his last hit that year (at Detroit).

Post-Season Play: Brooks played in all 39 post-season games in which the O's were involved while he was with the club...He batted a composite .303 (44-for-145) in 18 ALCS and 21 world series games.

WS: He homered in his first world series at bat in first inning at Dodger Stadium in '66, immediately following Frank's two-run homer (both were off Don Drysdale).

He was a landslide "mvp" in '70 vs. Reds...He hit .429 (9-for-21) and was brilliant on defense.

He errored on first fielding chance then handled 23 more flawlessly, many of them sensationally...He stole at least two hits each from Johnny Bench and Lee May...It was during the series that Lee gave him the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners).

Brooks was also among leading hitters in '71 world series vs. Pirates (.318) Overall, he made three errors in 76 world series chances.

ALCS: After his first three ALCS (O's swept them all), he had a .486 average (18-for-37)...His last hit in post-season competition was a home run off "Catfish" Hunter in the '74 ALCS.

"ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS"

In September, 1979, Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select committee of Baltimoreans working closely with the ballclub's front office, created the "Orioles Designated Hitters", an organization designed to sell full season tickets in greater numbers than ever before.

The basic plan was to enlist the talents of successful men and women from the area business community to serve as the principal sales force for the annual season ticket campaign.

Results from the first 2 years ('80 & '81) attest to the soundness of the concept. In '80 when 28 of 45 original candidates qualified for membership by meeting stringent sales standards, Orioles full season sales increased dramatically by 150% to an all-time high of 4,018.

Then, in '81 with 30 candidates qualifying, sales jumped another 30% to a record 5,215.

Generally a new candidate for membership must achieve a high percentage of renewals on old accounts assigned to him, and must sell a minimum of 25 new full season tickets.

Though a DH must requalify each year, the requirements for those who achieved membership in the preceding year are somewhat different and are based on the number of tickets sold previously.

In '80, the 3 top sellers were Lou Michaelson, Charlie Offutt and Frank Trommer. . . . Last year Michaelson, Allen Becker and Offutt were 1-2-3.

Rewards for members include a trip for two to spring training, a special custom "DH" blazer, use of a special box on the mezzanine level during the season, and other valuable incentive prizes for top sellers.

The "DH" program is modeled closely after the highly successful "Royal Lancers", conceived more than a decade ago by K.C. Royals owner Ewing Kauffman. In fact, Mr. Kauffman delivered the keynote speech at the first official meeting of the "Orioles Designated Hitters" in September, '79.

Mayor Schaefer, the 3 charter members of the organization (Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman), Orioles director for business affairs Bob Aylward, sales director Jon Richardson and former club vice-president Al Harazin (now with the Mets) were instrumental in initiating and directing the DH program through its successful infancy.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

Wes Stock is the only pitcher to have won both ends of a doubleheader in an Orioles uniform. He did it on May 26, '63 in Cleveland.

Under previous ownership, Mr. Hoffberger served as board chairman from November, 1965, through October, 1979, and during those 14 years, the Orioles won two world championships, five American League pennants, and six eastern division titles.

He was president of the National Brewing Company for 28 years (starting 1947) until October, 1975. At that time, he became board chairman, president, and chief executive officer of the newly formed Carling National Breweries, Inc. (created by the joining together of the Carling Brewing Company, U.S.A. and the National Brewing Co.). He remained with Carling-National until resigning in 1978.

Currently he is chairman and chief executive officer of Diversified Resource Management, Limited with offices in downtown Baltimore.

In November, 1975, Mr. Hoffberger was elected president of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds of North America, and served actively for three years. In 1978, he was elected chairman of the United Israel Appeal, Inc.

He is a director and chairman of the executive committee of Fairchild Industries and a director of a number of other corporations including Maryland National Bank, Dayco Corp., and Motor Freight Express. . . He is an officer and director of The Johns Hopkins Hospital and numerous other organizations.

Mr. Hoffberger was named "man of the year" in 1966 by the Advertising Club of Baltimore and "outstanding man of industry" in 1971 by the Baltimore Jaycees.

A Baltimore native, Mr. Hoffberger was educated at the University of Virginia. He served with the U.S. Army during World War II and attained the rank of captain. He is an ardent horseman and a long-time breeder of thoroughbred horses.

He and his wife, Alice, have four children (three boys and one girl).

HENRY J. PETERS has been the Orioles' executive vice-president and general manager since he signed a five-year contract in November, 1975. At that time he replaced Frank Cashen who had resigned to join the Carling-National Brewing Company.

In February, 1980, after being named major league "executive of the year" by both The Sporting News and U.P.I. the previous season, Hank agreed to an extension of his contract, offered by new owner Edward Bennett Williams, through 1984.

A veteran of 35 years in professional baseball, he has shown an amazing ability to adjust to the abrupt and rapid changes that have affected player-management relationships during the past several years.

Now 57, Hank came to Baltimore after four years as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the governing body of minor league baseball).

Before accepting the National Association presidency in December, 1971, he had spent five years with the Cleveland Indians as vice-president and director of player personnel, and prior to that he had been with the Kansas City A's for 10 years. While with the A's, in 1965, he had the distinction of being the last general manager appointed by former club owner Charles O. Finley. He has also worked with the St. Louis Browns and Cincinnati Reds.

A St. Louis native, Hank broke into baseball in 1946, following three years with the U.S. Army in World War II during which he served in England, Germany, and Czechoslovakia.

He started with the hometown Browns in the minor league department under then farm director Jim McLaughlin, the Orioles' former coordinator of scouting and player development, and general manager Bill DeWitt.

When that franchise was moved to Baltimore in October, 1953, Hank took a job as general manager of the independent Burlington, Iowa club in the Class B Three-I League.

After the 1954 season, he joined the new Kansas City A's organization as farm director and remained in that position through 1960. In early 1961, he left the A's, following disagreement with Finley, and spent the balance of the season working, again for DeWitt, as farm director of the Cincinnati Reds who won the N.L. pennant that season.

However, he returned to the A's in December, 1961, as assistant general manager and farm director and was appointed general manager in 1965. During his tenure in K.C. such future stars as Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Bert Campaneris, Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando, Joe Rudi, Rick Monday, Gene Tenace, and Rollie Fingers were signed and developed in the A's farm system.

Hank moved to Cleveland in 1966 and remained there until he was elected to succeed the retiring National Association President Phil Piton. At the time, the National Association was headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, but in September, 1973, Hank moved the office to its present site in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Hank and his wife, Dottie, whom he met while both were working for the Browns, have been married for 31 years. They have two children: Sharon and Steve, and a granddaughter, Shannon Nicole Torrez, born in December, 1981.

RALPH SALVON, TRAINER

Ralph Salvon is in his 15th year as Orioles' head trainer, third in seniority among A.L. trainers behind Freddy Frederico of Milwaukee and Bill Behm of Detroit.

Ralph joined Baltimore's major league staff in '66 as an assistant to the O's veteran trainer Eddie Weidner. When Weidner retired in '68 after 52 years with the ballclub, Ralph succeeded him.

The Fitchburg, Mass. native has been a trainer in organized baseball since graduating from Gus Mauch's Trainer's School in '52. He worked in the Orioles' minor league organization from '54-'55 and '59-'61 and also trained in the St. Louis Browns, Kansas City A's, and Houston Astros systems. Currently a resident of Phoenix, Md., Ralph also serves as trainer for the O's basketball team in the off-season.

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Louis, Mo. . . . Now lives in Baltimore but spends most of the off-season at his home in Hialeah, Fla. (suburb of Miami).

Contract Status: Signed thru '82. . . Signed a three year contract in late '77 and a two-year extension in Aug. '80.

Tenure: Has been in Baltimore organization since '56. . . . Has 14 years in majors. . . . Became manager on July 11, '68.

Signed Originally with: St. Louis Cardinals.

Managing Record in Majors: Earl has won six eastern division championships ('69, '70, '71, '73, '74, '79), four A.L. pennants ('69, '70, '71, '79) and one world championship ('70) in 13½ years as the Orioles' manager. He has finished first or second 12 times in 14 seasons (O's were third in '72 and fourth in '78).

Under his leadership, Baltimore has won 90 or more games 11 times in 14 years (including 100 or more five times).

At the time he replaced Hank Bauer as manager on July 11, '68, he had been serving as the O's first base coach, having been brought up that season after a long career as manager in the O's farm system.

100 Wins: Earl has won 100 or more games five times ('69, '70, '71, '79, '80), tying him with Joe McCarthy for second on the all-time list in 100-victory seasons just behind Connie Mack (6). Earl's 5 100-win seasons have come in just 13½ years as a big league manager. Mack managed 53 years, including 50 with the Philadelphia A's (1901-50) while McCarthy was a major league skipper for 24 seasons.

Frank Chance and John McGraw each won 100 or more games four times while Sparky Anderson and Billy Southworth have had three "century seasons" apiece. Walt Alston, Fred Clarke, Leo Durocher, Miller Huggins, Ralph Houk, Danny Ozark, and Frank Selee have accomplished the feat twice each.

During Earl's first three full years ('69, '70, '71), his teams tied the major league record for most consecutive years winning 100 or more games (109-108-101) and set A.L. records for most wins in two consecutive seasons (217, '69 & '70) and three consecutive seasons (318, '69, '70, '71).

Won-Loss Percentage: Earl's won-lost percentage of .597 (1260-851) ranks 3rd on the all-time list (5 years minimum & since 1900) behind McCarthy at .614 (2126-1335) and Frank Selee who managed the Braves from 1890-1901 and the Cubs from 1902-1905 at .598 (1299-872). Selee, showing a lot of late foot, moved into the runner-up spot at the end of last season.

The other members of the "top 5" are: Billy Southworth-4th (.5934, 1064-729) and Frank Chance-5th (.5929, 932-640).

Among active managers, Earl leads in percentage with Sparky Anderson in 2nd place (.582, 1063-763), Tom Lasorda in 3rd (.562, 429-334), Billy Martin in 4th (.556, 963-769) and Dick Williams in 5th place (.531, 1075-948).

All-Time Victories: He ranks 20th on the all-time list with 1260 career wins having passed both Joe Cronin and Bill Rigney in '81. . . He will have the opportunity this year to pass Charlie Grimm (1287), his arch-rival Selee (1299) and another Orioles manager Ned Hanlon (1315) . . . Hanlon was the Birds' skipper between 1892 and 1898 (N.L.).

Among current pilots Earl is 3rd behind Gene Mauch (1551-1739, .471, 10th all-time) and Ralph Houk (1366-1298, .531, 16th all-time).

He is also 9th all-time in victories with one team (1st among actives). . . Connie Mack (3627) is the leader in that category and Earl should move into 8th this year, ahead of Cap Anson (1288 w/Cubs).

Seniority: He has managed the same club for a longer period (13½ years, 2111 games) than any other current manager. . . He is 11th on the all-time list and will move into 10th this year ahead of Hughie Jennings (14 seasons w/Tigers). . . Tops on that list is, of course, Connie Mack (50 years w/A's).

In total seniority among active managers, Mauch (3290 games, 20+ seasons) and Houk (2664 games, 17 seasons) are 1-2, Earl is 3rd and Dick Williams 4th (2023 games, 13+ seasons).

In '80 Earl became 28th to manage in 2000 big league games (Williams became the 29th in '81).

Sep.-Oct.: In 14 years, Earl's regular season record for Sep. & Oct. is 263-152, .634...That breaks down to 249-146, .630 in September and 14-6, .700 for October.

Earl's best September ever was in '74 when the Birds were 22-6 (.786)...That year Baltimore was 8 games back in 4th place at 63-65 on Aug. 28 before winning 28 of their last 34 to capture the division crown by 2 games.

24 in Row: He has finished over .500 for 24 straight years as a manager (not including winter league competition)...Earl hasn't had a losing season since his 1st full year as a manager in organized baseball ('57 in Fitzgerald, Ga.).

In 20 of his last 23 years, his clubs have finished 1st or 2nd. He has finished as low as 4th once in the last 20 years (since Fox Cities in '61)...That was in '78.

Manager of the Year & Other Awards: Earl made a clean sweep of the "manager of the year" awards for the first time in '79...He was picked as the major league's top skipper by The Sporting News for the second time in three years ('77, '79); by the A.P. as the A.L.'s best for the third time in seven years ('73, '77, '79), and by U.P.I., also as the A.L.'s best, for the first time ever...In '77 when he captured The Sporting News and A.P. awards, the U.P.I. honors went to Bob Lemon, then with the White Sox.

He is one of three Oriole skippers to earn "manager of the year" laurels in the club's 28 seasons in Baltimore...Hank Bauer won TSN honors once and the A.P. twice while Paul Richards topped the A.P. poll once.

ALCS/WS: Earl holds the major league record for most championship series managed (six) and most total victories in LCS competition (15)...Sparky Anderson is second in both departments with five and 14, respectively...Weaver's clubs have won four of six championship series with an overall record of 15-7.

In '79 he became the 11th in history to manage in at least four world series: Casey Stengel (10); Joe McCarthy and John McGraw (9); Connie Mack (8); Walter Alston (7); Miller Huggins (6); Sparky Anderson, Frank Chance, Bill McKechnie and Billy Southworth (4 each)...Earl has won one of four series with an 11-13 composite record.

All-Star Games: Earl has managed in four all-star games ('70, '71, '72, '80)...He was also the "honorary manager" in '74 when he stepped down as skipper in favor of Dick Williams, who had managed the Oakland A's to the '73 A.L. pennant but was inactive at the time of the All-Star game.

Earl has a 1-3 record in the mid-season classics but has the distinction of leading the A.L. all-stars to their last victory, a 6-4 triumph at Detroit in '71...The O's Frank Robinson won the Arch Ward Trophy as the game's "mvp"...Since that time, the A.L. has lost ten straight.

Ejections: He was tossed out of 3 games in '81, raising his lifetime total to 81 (regular season only). He was also suspended (for 3 games) for the 4th time in his Orioles career as the result of an altercation with rookie umpire Mark Johnson at Ft. Myers in an exhibition game over Johnson's refusal to provide Earl with lineup changes made by Jim Frey, then managing the Royals. That game was also forfeited to K.C. It was the 2nd forfeit in which he has been involved. The other was at Toronto on 9/15/77 in the "tarp incident" (Marty Springstead).

The two principal ejectors in Earl's experience have been Springstead and the now retired Ron Luciano (7 times each). The only umpire with substantial seniority who never threw Earl out of a game was the late Nestor Chylak.

Winter League Managing: Earl managed Santurce in the Puerto Rican League during the winters of '66-'67 and '67-'68...He won postseason playoffs the first winter and the pennant the second year...He also managed the O's Arizona Instructional League clubs at Scottsdale for a number of winters.

He has also been a manager in two-season tours of Japan. . . In '79 he lead a group of A.L. all-stars against the National League on a three-week tour and in '71, he directed the Orioles to a 12-2-4 record against Japanese competition on a month-long trip.

Playing Career: Earl was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown Cardinals' system and played as high as the AA level. . . He trained with the Cards in '52, but Red Schoendienst was the incumbent second baseman at the time.

He played on pennant winners during each of his first four pro seasons; led his league in fielding five times; was a three-time league "mvp" (Illinois State League-'48, Western Association-'49, and Western League-'51), and was named to league all-star teams five times.

Personal: He is a graduate of Beaumont High School in St. Louis. . . Earl is an ardent golfer and a dedicated gardener. . . He and O's groundskeeper Pat Santarone have an annual competition to see who can grow the biggest tomatoes.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in the Perry Hall section of Baltimore County. The Weavers also own a home in Hialeah, Fla. where they spend most of their winters. . . Earl has three children by a previous marriage: Michael Earl, Rhonda Lee and Theresa Ann.

Earl has hosted "Manager's Corner" on WFBR radio prior to each Orioles' game for the last 2 seasons.

ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS

Born: Dec. 22, '40; 6'1"; 185; Batted, L; Threw, R; Position: C.

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands...Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70.

Contract Status: Signed thru '82

Tenure: This is his 23rd season in professional baseball...He has spent 12½ years in Baltimore organization...Has 10 years, 89 days service as major league player.

Signed Originally with: Milwaukee (Atlanta) Braves.

Major League Career: When he first joined the O's in '68, Ellie had spent 9 seasons in the minors....During the 14 years that have elapsed since then, he has been with Baltimore for nearly 12½.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's that winter, then logged 1½ years in the Yankees organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Birds.

Coach: Ellie was appointed bullpen coach in Nov. '77...He also served as a player-coach for parts of the '78 and '79 seasons...He has also supervised off-season workouts the last 3 winters for players living in the Baltimore area.

'79 Season: He coached exclusively all year until Sep. 1 when the roster expanded to 40 men....He made only one appearance, in a game at Detroit on Sep. 19, and went 0-for-1 with a throwing error from behind the plate....He was not eligible for post-season play.

Sunday, June 24 was known as "Silver Sunday" and the O's officially celebrated their 25th anniversary season in Baltimore by staging an old-timers game between the standout Orioles players of the past quarter century....Ellie emerged as the hero of that game with a home run off Milt Pappas that gave Mike Cuellar a 1-0 victory in the intrasquad exhibition.

'78 Season: He started the season as a coach, but was activated six weeks later (on May 18) replacing Gary Roenicke who was optioned to Rochester. Ellie remained on the player list for the remainder of the year while also continuing as a coach.

Last Home Run: Ellie hit his last big league home run on Aug. 23, a blast off Oakland's Dave Heaverlo.

'78 Batting/ERA Leader: In 13 games Ellie batted .333 (6-for-18), and in his one career pitching stint he compiled a 0.00 era, thus leading the club in both categories (actually he tied Dave Ford in era....Ford pitched 15 scoreless innings in Sep.).

His pitching career took place in Toronto on June 26 where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting by the Blue Jays....Ellie worked 2.1 innings, allowing no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage that had been inflicted on four predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez and Larry Harlow)....Don Stanhouse then pitched the final inning and, inspired by Ellie's effort, he, too, held the Jays scoreless.

Yankees, '76-'77: In '76 Ellie played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (12-for-57).

Ellie spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

Orioles ('68-'76): Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72... However, when the season ended, he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Ellie played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69-'70-'71....He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67. . . . Ellie had played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

Odds and Ends: Ellie hit 2 grand slams for the Birds, both in Memorial Stadium: July 20, '70 off Chicago's Barry Moore, and Aug. 18, '75 off the Twins Dave Goltz. . . . He nearly always caught when Mike Cuellar was pitching. . . . He led the O's in batting on the '71 Japan tour with a .400 average (16-for-40).

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 average (18-for-66) in 23 postseason games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five championship and four world series).

'70 WS: Ellie hit .364 (4-for-11) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in games 1 and 2.

In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0, but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th. . . . There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run. . . . See "Carbo-Burkhart Incident" below.

In game 2 the Birds were down at one point 4-0, but in the 5th inning the Birds battled back to tie, then in that same inning Ellie delivered a 2-run double to left that gave them a 6-4 lead. . . . The O's won ultimately 6-5.

"Carbo-Burkhart" Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd, representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate. . . . As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home. Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and Umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the runners as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out.

Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

Puerto Rico: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rico Winter League each year from '60-'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan. . . . His 112 homers in that loop rank him second on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

Minors: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the "Babe Ruth of Mexico". . . . In his last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was second in rbi (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59-'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals system ('62-'63) before going to Mexico.

Personal: Ellie is one of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform. . . He is an accomplished after-dinner speaker and is very active in community projects in the Baltimore area. . . Speaks fluent Spanish. . . . Plays the flute.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early 70's.

Top 8: With 96 career pinch-hits, Terry ranks 8th on all-time list topped by Manny Mota (150)... He is 3rd among actives behind Mike Lum (103)—6th all-time and teammate Jose Morales (99)—7th all-time ... Lum will play the '82 season in Japan. See complete list on page 88.

DESIGNATED HITTING

Batted .257 (28-for-109) in '81 with 4 hr and 20 rbi in 42 games... Over the last 3 years, he's hit .283 as a dh (97-for-343), but prior to that didn't have much success in that role ('76-.244, '77-.143, '78-.179).

Lifetime, he's batting .264 (118-for-447) with 15 homers in 158 games as a dh... Hadn't hit any dh homers until '80 when he connected 11 times in 65 games.

Drove in gwrbi in successive games vs. Yankees at Baltimore May 26 & 27...On the 26th, he hit 2 homers off rookie Gene Nelson good for 4 rbi...The following night he singled home the winning run with a 2-out, 10th-inning single off Rich Gossage.

Earlier, on May 4, he contributed a 10th-inning "sudden death" safety off the Twins' Doug Corbett, also at Baltimore (Terry is 3-for-3 lifetime vs. Corbett and has twice beaten him with 10th-inning hits; the first time with a home run at Minny on May 30, '80).

Appeared in 4 games defensively at 1st base, including 3 starts in which he went 1-for-10.

vs. Opponents: Went 6-for-16 (.375) vs. N.Y. and over the last 2 years has batted .440 (11-for-25) against the Bombers... Lifetime, however, his average is only .198 (16-for-180) vs. the Yankees... Has .309 career average vs. Chisox (17-for-55) and .308 against Bosox (49-for-159).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Has spent nearly 14 complete seasons during his 16-year pro career with the Baltimore organization (all except 2 years with Cincinnati and one month with Atlanta).

Best Year '80: Set personal highs in runs (30), hits (67), homers (12), and rbi (50). Hit his 3rd career slam, off Chicago's Lamarr Hoyt on Aug. 5 (see list of others on page 9), batted .338 with runners in scoring position (24-for-71), and drove in the winning run 3 times in the late innings.

LCS: Went 1-for-2 as a pinch-hitter in '79 ALCS, an rbi single in game 3 that gave O's 3-2 lead in 7th (followed Al Bumbry's triple)... But Angels came back to win in 9th.

That was his only hit in 3 LCS... He was not eligible for either '69 or '71 ALCS; played in '70; and was eligible but did not play in '73.

WS: Appeared in 5 of 7 games in '79 vs. Pirates, all as pinch-hitter... Made a huge contribution in O's come-from-behind win at Pittsburgh in game 4, driving in the tying and winning runs in the 6-run 7th that overcame a 6-3 Pirates lead.

He batted for Dave Skaggs with bases loaded (and O's down by 1) and pulled a 2-run double to right off Kent Tekulve who had given up an identical blow to John Lowenstein, also a pinch-hitter, 2 batters earlier.

His only previous world series hit was a bizarre one for the Reds in '75 vs. Bosox. In game 6 (the one that belongs to Carlton Fisk) he hit a bouncer to Rick Burleson who held the ball until Denny Doyle could cover 2nd... By the time Doyle arrived, it was too late, and "Crow" was credited with a single.

He was 0-for-1 in '70 and was not eligible in either '69 or '71.

Last Year in Minors, '77: Led International League in homers (30), despite the fact he was called up to Baltimore on Aug. 12... Finished 2nd in I.L. Orioles, '69-'73: Made his big league debut after being called up to the O's on Sep. 2, '69, and became O's top pinch-hitter in '70... Was only rookie to start '70 season for O's.

After a poor spring training in '71, was sent back to Rochester... Was recalled in mid-season for 6 weeks (subbing for Tom Shopay who was disabled) and came up again at end of season.

Hit a home run in final at bat as an Oriole on Sep. 29, '73, off Cleveland's Tom Timmerman.

Cincinnati, '74-'75: The Reds purchased his contract from Texas in Mar. '74, 3 months after the O's had sold his pact to the Rangers... "Crow" was Reds' principal pinch-hitter for the 2 years he was in Cincinnati.

Defensively he played 29 games in '74 and 8 games in '75.

Atlanta/Return to O's, '76: See notation under career stats.

1981 SEASON/MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Summary: Led O's in doubles (27) and strikeout "in-frequency" (see below) and was tops among A.L. qualifiers at 2nd base in fielding percentage...Was batting over .300 thru the end of May...Reached a late-season high of .284 on Aug. 28, but hit only .226 (30-for-133) the rest of the way...Dipped to a low of .255 on Sep. 23, batted .283 (51-for-180) in 1st half & .243 (46-for-189) in 2nd half.

By Month: April-.298 (17-for-57)...May-.306 (26-for-85)...June-.211 (8-for-38)...August-.243 (17-for-70)...September-.221 (23-for-104)...October-.400 (6-for-15).

Aprils: By hitting .298 (17-for-57) in April '81, Rich boosted his career average over .200 to .221 (52-for-234)...Slow starts in the 1st month of the season had become a Dauer tradition.

His 1st April with O's was '77 when he went 0-for-22...In '78 he was 3-for-28, and in '79 was 2-for-27 thru 8 games before a sharp rally brought him up to .324 (24-for-74) for the month. However, in '80 he regressed to 8-for-54 (.148) in April.

Strikeouts: Fanned only 18 times in 404 plate appearances, or once every 22.44 trips. This was the 3rd best ratio in the A.L. behind: (1) Mike Hargrove, Cle. (1/24.88) and (2) Dave Stapleton, Bos. (1/22.47). The Cubs' Bill Buckner led the majors, as he did in '80, at 1 strikeout for every 28.31 appearances.

Dauer who led the A.L. in this category in '80 (1/32.5) has struck out only once per every 19.13 plate appearances lifetime (126 k's, 2411 appearances), best ratio in the league. . . Buckner's career figure of 1/23.86 is tops in the majors. . . Among others with outstanding career strikeout ratios: George Brett, K.C. (1/17.55) and ex-Oriole Bob Bailor, N.Y. Mets (1/18.16).

vs. Opponents: Batted .500 (8-for-16) vs. Boston; .340 (16-for-47) vs. Cal.; .400 (8-for-20) vs. Minnesota, and .340 (17-for-50) against the Yankees. . . Hit 2 homers each against both New York and Seattle.

Odds and Ends: Has lifetime average of .262 in Baltimore and .261 on the road, but has hit 19 of his 26 career homers on the road.

FIELDING

Percentage Leader: Led A.L. 2nd basemen in percentage in '81 at .989 (5 errors in 459 chances). . . Has career .988 fielding average at keystone (29 errors in 2512 chances including 201 po & 253 a). . . Though he still has a long way to go, his career percentage is well above the existing major league mark for "highest percentage 10 or more years, or 1000 or more games" both currently held by Bobby Grich (.985).

'80-'81 Streak: Played 76 consecutive errorless games (400 chances) from July 12, '80 until booting a ground ball on Apr. 25, '81. . . It was the 2nd longest streak of his career, 10 games shy of the previous one of '77-'78 (see below). He had made only one miscue over a stretch of 120 games (605 chances) when he committed his 2nd error of '81, on Aug. 16.

Fielding Records, '78: Set 2 one season major league records for 2nd basemen in '78: (1) 86 consecutive errorless games, and (2) 424 consecutive chances without error.

Until he threw a ball away in the final game of '78, he hadn't made an error at 2nd all season. His efforts eclipsed previous marks of the Mets Ken Boswell (85 straight errorless games in '70) and of the late Ken Hubbs, Cubs (418 errorless chances in '62). Ironically, Hubbs, killed in the crash of a plane he was piloting in Feb. '64, was from Rich's home town (Colton, CA).

Rich also broke the A.L. records in those categories, formerly held by Bobby Doerr, Red Sox (73 games and 414 chances, both in '48).

Strangely, Dauer who fielded .998 that year didn't qualify for the percentage title because he played too few games at 2nd (87 played, 108 required).

He had played one errorless game at the end of '77, but his "more than one season" streaks of 87 games and 433 chances fell short of the major league records held respectively by Cincinnati's Joe Morgan-91 ('77-'78) and Baltimore's Jerry Adair-458 ('64-'65). . . He also fell short of Adair's 2 year A.L. record 89 game errorless string.

3rd Base: Appeared in only 4 games at 3rd base in '81 and handled 11 chances without a miscue. . . Lifetime he has erred 15 times in 340 chances over 144 games at 3rd for a percentage of .956.

PREVIOUS MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1980: Enjoyed best overall season. . . Set personal highs in 7 offensive categories including average (.284) and rbi (63); led A.L. in strikeout "in-frequency"; was 2nd in A.L. to Twins' Rob Wilfong in fielding percentage at 2nd base (.991); and his .336 average with men in scoring position (69-for-146) was 2nd on the club.

1979: Tied Eddie Murray for club lead in gwrbi (14). . . Drew 4 of his 36 walks in one game, vs. Oakland on May 8 at Baltimore.

1978: Became a full-time regular on June 12, 1st as a 3rd base substitute for the injured Doug DeCinces, then, when Doug returned, as the O's starting 2nd baseman.

1976-77: Came up to O's 1st time in Sep. '76 and went 4-for-39 in 11 games. Then, in '77, started as O's regular 2nd baseman, but went 0-for-26 until May 13 and was only 1-for-41 (.024) thru May 31. . . To that point, his career average in majors was .063 (5-for-80).

He also had an 0-for-25 string at Memorial Stadium (including 0-for-5 in late '76) before getting his 1st hit at home on June 11, '77 (off Chicago's Ken Brett). . .

After the 0-for-41 start, Rich batted .278 (73-for-263). . . He recorded his 1st big league hit, in his 1st at bat, on Sep. 11², '76, a single off Brewers' Jim Colborn at Milwaukee. . . Hit his 1st big league homer at Boston on June 9, '77 off Bill Lee.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER

Spent only 3 seasons in the minors after jumping directly from the University of Southern California campus to the "AA" Southern League in '74 after being signed by Ray Poitevint.

When the O's picked him 1st in June '74, it was the 4th time he had been selected in the free agent draft . . . Oakland (twice) and Cleveland had tapped him earlier (before he went to U.S.C.).

Rochester '76: Won the International League batting title by hitting safely in his last 2 regular season at bats with an average of .33588, just edging Charleston's Miguel Dilone who hit .33578.

Rich was co-mvp in the I.L. along with shortstop Mickey Klutts of Syracuse and Toledo 1st baseman Joe Lis . . . He was also picked to the league all-star team by vote of fellow players and led the loop in hits (176).

He teamed with Kiko Garcia to provide Wings with top keystone combination and led I.L. 2nd basemen in fielding percentage.

1974-75: Hit .328 in his rookie pro season as a 3rd baseman at Asheville, but broke left ankle in July after only 53 games and was sidelined rest of year . . .

Started '75 at Rochester, but was sent back to Southern League in May after batting only .170 in 18 games.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND

He played two years at San Bernardino Valley College then transferred to Southern Cal.

U.S.C.: Rich played on two national championship teams ('73 & '74) at U.S.C. (they were fourth and fifth straight for Coach Rod Dedeaux' Trojans) . . . While he was there, Rich played with Roy Smalley, Fred Lynn, Steve Kemp and Pete Redfern . . . Senior year, he was a first team all-American and set NCAA one-season records in hits (108), rbi (92) and total bases (181).

He also established U.S.C. standards for homers (15), doubles (24) and runs (70), and his rbi total shattered the old school record of 67 set by Ron Fairly. Rich was selected to the '74 College World Series all-tournament team.

Colton High: He played baseball and football at Colton . . . He also participated in American Legion and Little, Pony and Colt League programs.

PERSONAL

Rich and his wife, the former Chris King of San Bernardino, were married Feb. 1, '75 and are the parents of a daughter, Casey Lynn (3/24/81). The Dauers own a home in Cockeysville, north of Baltimore . . . During the off-seasons, he plays a lot of racquetball; represents the ballclub as an after dinner speaker, and plays on the Orioles winter basketball team.

Enjoyed good 1st half, but an arm injury in August marred his 2nd half and snapped a string of 157 consecutive starts (hadn't missed a start since June '77).

Was 7-4 with 3.61 era (13 g, 87.1 ip, 73 h, 35 er) in the 1st half and 2-2 with a 5.97 era (7 g, 28.2 ip, 35 h, 19 er) after play resumed.

Early Season: Lost his 1st 2 starts, but then won 6 of his next 7 from Apr. 25 thru May 23...During this stretch he blanked Toronto twice, threw 3 complete games and compiled a 2.14 era (47 ip, 14 er) to lower his seasonal era to 3.10 (61 ip, 21 er). He was 6-3 at that point.

Incurred stiffness in his throwing arm after blanking Blue Jays May 14, but didn't miss a start.

Late Season: In his last 11 starts, starting May 27, Mike went 3-3 with 5 no decisions and a 5.97 era (55 ip, 33 er)...Upon returning from his injury he went 0-1 in 3 starts before concluding the year on a high note by beating the Yankees on October 4 (last day of season), 5-2.

Injury: Tore muscle in his left forearm Aug. 23 at Oakland on a strikeout pitch to Cliff Johnson in 3rd inning...Came out of that game after the 4th and did not pitch again for 26 days...Felt pain when throwing curves and changeups.

Home Cooking: Was 6-2 at home and 3-4 on the road... Lifetime at Memorial Stadium he's 46-22 with a 3.32 era (632 ip, 233 er). On the road he's 39-37 with a 4.26 era (613 ip, 290 er).

By Month: April: 2-2, 2.70, 4 gs... May: 4-1, 3.96, 6 gs... June: 1-1, 4.34, 3 gs... August: 1-1, 5.40, 3 gs... Sep.: 0-1, 9.72, 3 gs... Oct.: 1-0, 2.57, 1 gs.

vs. Opponents: His win on Oct. 4 was his 1st vs. Yankees since Aug. 12, '78... He had lost 5 straight to the Bombers in the interim, and, immediately prior to that, had won 5 in a row against New York.

That was his lone decision in '81 vs. the Yankees against whom he is 7-7 lifetime.

He continued his dominance over Toronto with a pair of complete game shutouts in 2 starts—Apr. 30 at Bal., a 4-0 3-hitter and May 14 at Toronto, a 10-0 5-hitter. He used only 78 pitches in the latter, believed to be a club record... Is 8-0 vs. Blue Jays at Memorial Stadium lifetime with an 0.88 era (71 ip, 7 er, 3 sho)... Overall, he's 12-4 against Toronto with a 2.58 era (132.2 ip, 38 er) and 4 shutouts.

Extended win streak vs. Minnesota to 9 with a 3-2 win in Baltimore May 5, his only '81 appearance against the Twins... Last lost to Twins May 29, '77 to Dave Goltz... He is 9-2 lifetime.

Was 2-0 vs. Oakland in 3 starts, beating Mike Norris May 19 and Rick Langford June 10... Has won 11 of his last 12 against the A's since Langford beat him on Aug. 3, '77... His only loss in that period was to Matt Keough on Sep. 4, '80... Is 8-0 lifetime at Oakland Coliseum.

See records vs. each opponent on page 27.

Therapy: At conclusion of '80 season Mike was examined by both Dr. B. Stanley Cohen of Baltimore's Sinai Hospital and Dr. Arthur Pappas, team physician for the Red Sox... They diagnosed Mike's problem as a "tired arm", and prescribed a continuing physical therapy and weight program designed to increase arm strength. Teammate Dave Ford is on a similar program.

1981 & CAREER

Last 4 & 5 Years: In the last 4 seasons only K.C.'s Dennis Leonard (1013 ip, 136 gs) has pitched more innings or started more games than Mike (914 ip, 135 gs)... In that period only the Yankees' Ron Guidry has won more games (71 to 67).

Over the last 5 seasons (starting '77) Mike with 82 wins trails only Leonard and Guidry (87 wins each) in the A.L.

O's All-Time Lists: Ranks 6th in 5 O's lifetime categories: wins (85), losses (59), strikeouts (769), innings (1244) and shutouts (13).

Singleton Homers: Since Mike made his big league debut on Sep. 5, '75 Ken Singleton has hit 130 homers, 44 of them in games pitched by Flanagan (34%)... In '81 Ken hit only 2 home runs on Mike's behalf (Apr. 30 vs. Tor. & Aug. 23 vs. Oak.), but in '79 it was 15 of 35 and in '80, 7 of 24.

Move to 1st: Mike caught 5 runners leaning the wrong way in '81 (including 3 officially scored as caught stealing) and has picked off 27 runners in the last 4 seasons.

Overall, from '78 thru '81, only 38 of 76 runners attempting to steal while Mike was on the mound have succeeded. For the sake of comparison, base-stealers in '81 had a 62% success rate.

ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1980: Hampered thru much of the year by a sore left arm, Mike nevertheless won 16 games... He was 12-8 on Aug. 6 after winning 4 in a row (longest win steak of year) with 11 complete games in 25 starts, but after that was just 4-5 with 1 complete game in 12 starts.

His shoulder problems began in earnest on June 27... See "Therapy" above.

1979: Led majors with 23 wins and earned the A.L. Cy Young Award, (the O's have won 6 Cys in last 13 years)... He tied for A.L. lead in shutouts (5) and was among the leaders in 6 other categories.

On July 7 Mike was 10-6 but had a 4.05 era... In his last 18 starts, he went 13-3 with a 2.22 era, 10 complete games... In one stretch from Aug. 8 thru Sep. 13 he won 8 in a row (in 8 starts).

He credited much of his '79 success to the development of a change-up taught to him by Scott McGregor.

Cy Young & Other Honors: Mike was landslide winner of the BBWAA award, capturing 26 1sts and 2 2nds among the 28 ballots cast for a total of 136 points (5-3-1 point system)... He was only pitcher named on all ballots and finished well ahead of New York southpaws Tommy John (1 1st, 51 points) and Ron Guidry (1 1st, 26 points).

In addition, he was named A.L. "pitcher of the year" by The Sporting News by vote of fellow players and was named the top lefthander on TSN's A.L. All-Star team. Was also selected the outstanding lefthander on both the A.P. and U.P.I. A.L. All Star teams.

Mike finished 6th (highest ranking pitcher) in the A.L. "mvp" voting, was named as "graduate of the year" by both the Junior American Legion and Babe Ruth programs, and received the Clark Griffith Memorial Award for outstanding achievement by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

CS/WS: Started game 2 of the ALCS and, after yielding a 1st inning homer to Dan Ford, became beneficiary of 9 Orioles runs which gave him a 9-1 lead after 3 innings. In the 8th he still led by 6 but failed to retire any of the 1st 3 batters and was relieved by Don Stanhouse who was ineffective but got the job done. The Angels trailed only 9-8 and had bases loaded in 9th when Brian Downing bounced into a game-ending force.

Mike pitched the world series opener and went the route for a 5-4 win. Again he was treated to a big cushion (O's scored 5 in 1st). Pirates had tying runs on 3rd when game ended.

Started game 5 in Pittsburgh and was down by 2-1 in the 6th when removed for a pinch-hitter... Pirates roughed up 3 successors and won 7-1 with Mike getting the loss.

He was 1 of 5 relief pitchers to work for the O's in the 9th inning of game 7.

1978: Was 11-4 thru June 22 and had gone 24-6 since the previous June 27, but was hampered by a severe case of tendinitis in his left ankle the 2nd half of the season and went just 8-11 the rest of the way.

Won his 17th game on Aug. 26 (only Guidry with 18 had more in the majors at the time)... Needed only 3 wins in final 8 starts to reach 20, but lost that bid on the last day of the season when Detroit beat him.

Had distinction of being 1 of only 3 pitchers to beat Guidry (along with fellow lefties Mike Willis and Mike Caldwell)... Was selected to A.L. pitching staff for all star game in San Diego but did not work.

Near No-Hitter-'78: On Sep. 26, '78 at home, Mike nearly became 5th O's pitcher to toss a no-hitter... Instead he became the 6th Baltimore hurler deprived of one in the 9th inning (Bob Turley-'54, Don Ferrarese-'56, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar-both '69 and Jim Palmer-'73).

Mike came closer than the other 5... He had 2 down in the 9th when Cleveland's Gary Alexander homered into the low rows of the right field seats... He then gave up singles to Alfredo Griffin and Duane Kuiper and Stanhouse came on to preserve the win.

On 2 earlier occasions in '78 he flirted with no-hitters: July 13 vs. Min. (5.1 hitless innings) and Aug. 21 vs. Oak. (6.1 hitless).

1977: Started the season 2-8 but from June 27 on won 13 of 15 decisions, including his last 6 in a row.

1975-76: Made his big league debut on Sep. 5, '75 at home vs. the Yankees with no decision, then started for the 1st time on Sep. 28 at Yankee Stadium in final game of year and lost 3-2 to Larry Gura.

Started '76 with O's but was 0-3 in 10 appearances when he was sent back to Rochester July 2... Returned to Baltimore on Aug. 11 after going 6-1 for Red Wings, but dropped 2 more decisions... Was 0-5 lifetime when he broke into win column with 6-hit 7-1 victory over Royals on Sep. 1, '76.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER/AMATEUR BACKGROUND

Minors: Was 35-16 in 3+ minor league seasons and 19-5 in a season and a half at Rochester... Was selected as International League's top lefty in '75.

Signing: Was Baltimore's 7th pick in June '73 draft. Would undoubtedly have been chosen earlier except for elbow problems that developed originally in high school... Was signed by John Stokoe who was convinced his arm was again sound.

Was drafted earlier by Houston in '71, but opted instead to go to the University of Massachusetts (at Amherst).

College: Was 12-1 in 2 years at U. of Mass., and led Yankee Conference in wins (9), strikeouts (89) and era (1.72) as a sophomore... High School/Other: Played 4 years of baseball and basketball at Memorial High in Manchester (graduated '71)...The school won 2 state titles in each sport while he was there...Once fanned 31 batters in an extra inning game...Holds New Hampshire schoolboy record for most points scored in a state tournament championship game (44) and was selected as 1 of New Hampshire's 5 best high school basketball players in the 70s...

His prospects took a downward turn in summer of '70 when he came out of an American Legion Junior World Series game at Klamath Falls, Oregon with a sore elbow...Didn't pitch his senior year, but resumed mound career in Cape Cod (summer) League and at U. of Mass.

Once pitched in Fairbanks, Alaska during a Babe Ruth League tournament.

Personal: Mike's father, Edward, was a pitcher (late 40s, early 50s) in the Red Sox system, and his grandfather, Edward, Sr., signed a pro contract in 1913...Hobbies: hunting and fishing.

Hit 11 of his 15 homers against righthanders . . . His final home run of the year, vs. Toronto at Anaheim off Paul Mirabella on Sep. 25, was the 100th of his career. It was also the only homer he hit in his final 34 games of the season.

By Month: April-.264 (19-for-72), 5 hr, 11 rbi, 19 g . . . May-.286 (28-for-98), 4 hr, 12 rbi, 24 g . . . June-.351 (13-for-37), 3 hr, 9 rbi, 9 g . . . August-.250 (20-for-80), 2 hr, 12 rbi, 19 g . . . Sep.-Oct.-.273 (24-for-88), 1 hr, 4 rbi, 26 g.

Bats & Brawls (& Gatefolds): It was a busy, sometimes turbulent year for Dan both on and off the field . . . He was a principal in 2 on-field fights; was suspended for 3 days for using a corked bat and in July was featured on the Playgirl Magazine "gatefold" attired in his birthday suit.

After hitting a 2-run homer off Mike Norris at Oakland Apr. 29, Ford was crossing home plate when he noticed A's catcher Mike Heath inspecting his bat for cork . . . A tug-of-war ensued, causing both benches to empty.

On Aug. 23 after going 7-for-9 with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 7 rbi the 2 previous nights against Cleveland (at Cal.), Dan was plunked in the ribs by the Tribe's John Denny, precipitating a 15 minute melee.

Then, during a game at Cleveland Sep. 4, Dan grounded out off Len Barker and as a piece of his bat chipped off, revealing to umpires Marty Springstead and Dallas Parks, the presence of an illegal substance (cork) inside . . . The incident cost Dan a fine and an enforced 3 day vacation.

Angels, '79: Set career highs in avg. (.290), runs (100), hits (165), home runs (21) and rbi (101) in '79 while helping Angels to their 1st division title ever . . . Had 4 rbi in the game against the Royals that clinched the division title on Sep. 25, '79 . . . Batted .340 (16-for-47) as a starter, with 3 homers and 14 rbi that month as the Angels fought off K.C. . . . Hit his lone major league grand slam on June 8 at Anaheim off Detroit's John Hiller.

Was A.L. "player of the week" Aug. 6-12 with a .519 average (14-for-27), 3 doubles, a triple, a home run and 6 rbi . . . During that 7 day period, he tied an Angels record with 8 consecutive hits (Aug. 8 & 10), enjoyed his only 5 hit day in the majors and hit for the cycle in the same game (Aug. 10 vs. Seattle at Cal., 5-for-7, 1 single, 2 doubles, 1 triple and 1 home run off Mike Parrott) . . . In one 4-game span (Aug. 7-11), he went 13-for-18, raising his average to .301, his highest ever that late in the season.

ALCS: Homered in the 1st inning of both games 1 and 2 at Baltimore (off Jim Palmer and Mike Flanagan), and led the Angels in average (.294), homers (2), and rbi (4) in the 4 game ALCS.

Angels, '80: Didn't play in any spring training exhibitions, but was in right field on opening day and contributed a double and home run . . . However, by late May his average was down to .220 (26-for-118) and it was obvious that his knee needed more time to heal.

He was disabled on June 3 and did not return to active duty until Aug. 5. Shortly after his return, he put together a 16-game hitting streak (Aug. 14 thru Sep. 4), the longest of his career, and in the 33 games he played after coming off the "dl", he batted .343 (37-for-108) with 5 homers and 16 rbi.

In '78 he ranked 2nd in the A.L. in triples with 13 to Rod Carew's 16, and had 57 extra-basehits, but was no better than 3rd on his own team in that category. Carew had 68 and Lyman Bostock 62.

Oakland: Was signed by Oakland scout Phil Pote after the A's had picked him in 1st round of June '70 draft...Batted .290 and averaged 14.5 homers in his 4 minor league seasons in the A's system...Trained with the "big club" in the spring of '74.

Led the Pacific Coast League in outfield assists (16) in '72 and was picked to the Midwest League all-star team in '71.

He appeared in his last game on Sep. 9 and then began an extensive physical therapy program administered by Red Sox' team physician Dr. Arthur Pappas who had previously worked with Mike Flanagan.

Pitched his best game and earned his only victory May 16 at Minnesota when he relieved an ailing Steve Stone in 3rd inning with a 3-0 lead and blanked the Twins on 4 hits over the last 7 innings (winning 7-0). That was also his longest stint of the season.

Was optioned to Rochester Aug. 20 to accommodate Stone's return to the roster from the disabled list, but was recalled Sep. 1.

Started on May 24[2] at Detroit (no decision) and again on June 4 at Yankee Stadium when he lost to Gene Nelson, 12-3.

In his other appearance, he worked 6.2 innings of scoreless relief vs. Milwaukee on Sep. 14 to extend his scoreless innings string to 15. The streak ended in the 1st inning of his 1st '79 appearance (at 15.2), falling 2.1 innings short of the club record for scoreless innings at the start of a career (18), set by Tom Phoebus in '66.

Minors: Was signed by Dave Ritterpusch and Bob Engle. . . Though he was used primarily in relief in the majors, 107 of 109 minor league outings were in a starting role. . . He walked an average of only 1.87 batters per 9 innings in 4½ seasons in the O's farm system.

Was promoted to AA Charlotte in '76 after only a half season as a pro and was named the Southern League's "pitcher of the year". . . He led that circuit in wins (17), innings (212), strikeouts (121), complete games (19), and tied in shutouts (4).

'81 AND PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS vs. Opponents: Batted .361 (13-for-36) with 2 homers and 6 rbi in 11 games vs. Oakland in '81... Hit 2 homers off Rick Langford Sep. 5 ...Earlier in season, on May 19 at Baltimore, John was beaned in 6th inning by Mike Norris, a blow that shattered his glasses. An inning later, however, John came up again against Norris, stroked a single, went to 2nd on a balk and came around to score the ultimate winning run on a DeCinces' single.

Lifetime, he's done his best work against the Brewers... His .297 career average (97-for-327), 10 homers and 49 rbi vs. Milwaukee all represent career highs.

Fielding: His lone '81 error occurred on Sep. 29, ending a string of 92 consecutive errorless games dating back to Aug. 29, '80... He handled 104 chances last year and fielded .990.

Has committed just one error in each of his 3 Baltimore seasons (had exactly 132 chances in both '79 and '80)... That's 3 boots in 368 chances for a .992 percentage.

Fence Busting/Injuries: Since joining O's, John has made frequent contact with outfield fences, and on 3 occasions has been sidelined with injuries as a result, once in '79 and twice in '80... Two of the collisions required time on the disabled list.

Sprained tendons in right hand while batting on Sep. 24, '80 and missed last 12 games of season.

PREVIOUS O'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1980: Despite 3 injuries that sidelined him for a total of 6 weeks, John had a very good year: (1) batted over .300 for 1st time in career... (2) Led O's in batting with men on 2nd & 3rd (.349, 16-for-46)... (3) had a .408 on-base percentage (93-for-228), best on the club... (4) batted .417 as a pinch-hitter (5-for-12), and (5) was responsible for getting the winning run across 4 times in the 7th inning or later (coming from behind or a tie).

1979: Hit 11 homers, 2nd highest total of career and was 2nd on club in steals with 16 in 20 attempts... Had 13 of his 34 rbi vs. Mariners.

"3's": On July 21 vs. the Angels at Baltimore he did everything in 3's... Played all 3 outfield positions, walked 3 times, and had a 3-base hit that drove in 3 runs.

Grand Slams/RBI: Hit his 2nd career slam on July 24[2] off Seattle's Odell Jones at Baltimore, went 3-for-5 and drove in 6 runs, a career high... His previous bases loaded homer was hit at Yankee Stadium while he was with the Indians, on June 24, '74, off Mike Wallace ...John drove in 5 runs in that game.

ALCS/WS: John was the hero of ALCS game 1 when, in his 1st post-season game ever, he hit a 3-run pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 10th off John Montague to give the O's an instant 6-3 win at Baltimore... It was the 1st home run by a pinch-hitter in ALCS history ...He played in all 4 games and started 2.

John appeared in 6 world series games and was a starter in 3, but his major contribution was as a pinch-hitter in game 4. The O's trailed 6-3 in the 8th inning at Pittsburgh, but John initiated a 6-run rally with a 2-run pinch-double off Pirate reliefer Kent Tekulve, and the Birds went on to win 9-6.

EARLY CAREER

Cleveland: He was signed originally for Cleveland by former Oriole Bob Nieman... Had never played a regular season game outside the Indians' organization until after he was traded to Texas in '78. This, despite the fact, that he was acquired by Toronto in Dec. '76... The Blue Jays traded John back to Cleveland during spring training the following March.

His best year in 8 with Cleveland (2 partial, 6 full) was '73 when he hit .292, but his most productive was '74. That season he set career highs in 7 categories including runs (65), hits (123), rbi (48) and steals (36) ...His stolen base total was 3rd highest in A.L.... In '75 he set a career high in homers with 12 including one in each of 3 consecutive games May 25, 27, 28.

He batted exactly .242 three times in a 4 year span ('74, '75, '77)... Once scored from 2nd on a long fly ball (by Buddy Bell), on May 21, '77.

Texas-'78: Though listed as an outfielder, he played more games at 3rd base (25) than in the outfield (16).

Minors: Missed most of his 2nd pro season because of a 6-month tour of active duty with the U.S. Marine Corps. . . Was an all-star 3rd baseman in the American Association in '70.

Amateur Background: Was 2nd team NCAA (college division) all-American choice in '68 as a shortstop at U. of California, Riverside. . . Also played short at Norte Vista High in Riverside. . . Played basketball and football as well.

Played in Little League and Babe Ruth programs. . . Once had 16 rbi and 4 home runs (2 with bases loaded) in a Little League game.

Personal: Hobbies: golf, camping, hunting, wilderness hiking, fishing, skiing, racquetball and tennis. . . Has been actively involved in Nevada state programs for teenage alcohol and drug abuse. . . Holds a B.A. degree with a major in anthropology from U. of Cal. Riverside.

John and his wife, the former Barbara Schlotfelt, were married on Feb. 11, '71.

Dennis Martinez' fortunes which had declined noticeably during the year and a half from mid-'79 thru the end of the '80 season (he was 11-18 in that period) took a sharp upward turn in '81.

He tied for the major league lead in wins (14) with Oakland's Steve McCatty and Mike Norris, Milwaukee's Pete Vuckovich and Cincinnati's Tom Seaver. . . It was the 3rd straight year an Oriole had led the majors (or tied) in victories: Mike Flanagan-23 in '79 and Steve Stone-25 in '80 were outright leaders.

Also led the O's in won-lost percentage (.737, 14-5), starts (24), innings (179), strikeouts (88) and complete games (9).

Additionally led all major league pitchers in putouts, assists and total chances—see "Fielding" below.

Shared A.L. "pitcher of the month" honors in September (4-1, 7 starts) with K.C.'s Larry Gura.

Home: Was 8-0 at Baltimore (6-5 on road) and has now won 9 straight at Memorial Stadium since Gaylord Perry beat him for the Yankees on Aug. 16, '80. . . Had a 2.27 era (91 ip, 23 er) in Baltimore compared to 4.40 (88 ip, 43 er) on the road.

Lifetime he is 35-22 (.614) with a 2.93 era (544 ip, 177 er) in Baltimore . . . In other parks it's 4.41 (498 ip, 244 er), and 31-23 (.574).

Dennis has pitched all 7 of his career shutouts at Memorial Stadium.

1st/2nd Halves: Was 7-3 in 1st half with 3.42 era (73.2 ip, 81 h, 25 er) and 7-2 in the 2nd with a 3.25 era (105.1 ip, 92 h, 38 er).

Win Streaks: Won 6 straight decisions (Aug. 26 thru Sep. 23) and 5 in a row (Apr. 29 thru May 20). . . His career high is 10 from Apr. 22 thru June 20, '79.

Masterpieces: Dennis threw 2 3-hit shutouts, beating Chisox on Aug. 15, 4-0 and the Tigers 1-0 (on Jim Dwyer's 9th inning homer) on Sep. 23 (despite 7 walks). . . Both games were played at Baltimore.

However, his most impressive performance perhaps was at Yankee Stadium on June 3 when he pitched 10 shutout innings, allowing only 3 hits. It was a scoreless tie until Tippy came on to start the 11th and gave up a 2-run homer to Graig Nettles.

Bottle Incident: While waiting for the game to be called because of rain at Chicago on Apr. 22, Dennis was hit in the head by a beer bottle in front of the O's dugout and sustained a 4-stitch cut. The man who threw the missile was immediately arrested and the 23-year old student from a Chicago suburb was ultimately charged and convicted of battery. He was sentenced to serve 26 weekends in jail, to pay room and board for the use of the cell and he was also placed on probation for a year. Dennis pitched the next day (in relief).

Fielding: Dennis' reputation as a fine fielder was enhanced by the fact that he led all major league pitchers in putouts (20), assists (44) and chances accepted (64, not including 2 errors).

He'd previously led the A.L. in chances in both '78 (78) and '79 (85) and in assists in '78 (51).

'81 & ORIOLES CAREER

vs. Opponents: Was 2-0 vs. both Chisox and Twins and 3-1 against the Angels in '81.

Chicago: . . . The day after he was hit with a bottle at Comiskey Park he failed to retire any of 5 batters faced and was charged with 5 runs (4 er) in relief of starter Scott McGregor during the Chisox' 18-5 rout of the O's.

After that Dennis faced the Sox twice as a starter in Baltimore, was 2-0, and didn't allow a run in 17.1 innings (Apr. 29 & Aug. 15).

Oakland . . Has never lost to the A's against whom he is 5-0, including 1-0 in '81. Has a 2.45 era (55 ip, 15 er) vs. Oakland.

Seattle . . . Won his 1st 7 career decisions vs. the M's, but was 1-1 against them in each of the last 2 years.

New York . . . Is only 1-6 vs. New York lifetime. . . His lone win was in relief over Dick Tidrow on May 20, '77 at N.Y. . . . Since then he's dropped 4 decisions including 1 in '81 (Sep. 27 at N.Y. to Dave Righetti).

Boston . . . Has pitched far more against the Red Sox than against any other club: 21 games, 18 decisions (7-11) and 144.1 innings.

1st Nicaraguan: In '76 Dennis became the 1st Nicaraguan ever to play in the major leagues (see details on debut under "1976" below)... Tony Chevez who pitched briefly for the O's in '77 was the 2nd and in '80 Twins' hurler Al Williams became the 3rd from Nicaragua to make it to the majors (all pitchers).

CS/WS: Started game 3 of the '79 ALCS at Anaheim, pitched well thru 8 innings, and carried a 3-2 lead into the 9th.

In the 9th, Denny retired lead-off man Don Baylor, but then gave up a double to Rod Carew. At that point Don Stanhouse came on, and a walk, an error and Larry Harlow's double gave the Angels their only ALCS victory, 4-3. The loss went to Stanhouse.

Started game 4 of the world series at Pittsburgh, but the Pirates roughed him up for 6 hits (including a Willie Stargell homer) and 4 runs in just 1.1 innings, and he gave way to Sammy Stewart. The O's were down, 4-0, but bounced back to win for Tim Stoddard, 9-6.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1980: From June 24, '79 thru the '80 season, Dennis was 11-18 with a 3.98 era (167.1 ip, 74 er).

Two shoulder injuries (torn deltoid muscle) made the 1st half of the season a nightmare... He missed the 1st 10 days of the season, then later appeared in only 1 big league game during a 2 month stretch from May 10 thru July 13, not including 2 starts at Miami in July while on "rehabilitation assignment".

After returning from the disabled list in mid-July, he went 5-3 with a save in 18 games including 8 starts and forged a highly respectable 3.12 era.

Spent a highly encouraging winter in Puerto Rico playing for Ray Miller at Caguas where he was 6-1 with a 1.39 era and won the final playoff game (2-1) which gave Caguas the P.R. League championship.

1979: Led the A.L. in starts (39), innings (292) and complete games (18); was the league's most prolific fielder (85 chances), and put together a 10-game winning streak. Despite all this, he was the only pitcher on O's staff with a losing record (15-16).

Good Start: Thru June 20 Dennis was 10-2 on the year, 18-3 since Aug. 15, '78, and 41-22 in the major leagues.

Sad Ending: After that, starting June 24, he went 5-14 in 22 starts the rest of the way (including 1-8 from Aug. 16 to the end)... Nine of his 14 defeats in that span were by 1 run and the O's averaged only 2 runs per game for him in that period. Despite the record, he completed 9 of those final 22 starts.

Odds & Ends: After the world series, he went to Japan for a series of major league all star games accompanied by Earl Weaver and teammates Rick Dempsey and Ken Singleton... Retired last 19 batters during a route-going 4-hit win over Toronto May 20.

1978: Thru July 28, Dennis was 7-7 with a 5.13 era. From then on he went 9-4 (including 8-1 after Aug. 1), and compiled a 1.72 era (130.2 ip, 87 h, 25 er) over 15 starts of which he completed 12.

His 4 losses during the final 2 months were by scores of 2-1 3 times and 2-0 once.

Pitched 6.2 hitless innings vs. Seattle Aug. 25 at Baltimore before Bill Stein spoiled it with a single... Dennis wound-up with a 2-hit shutout... Pitched 11 scoreless innings and retired 18 in a row at one stretch at California Aug. 30, yielding only 5 hits... Stanhouse ultimately lost, 1-0, in 14 innings.

1977: In his 1st full year, he was 6-3 in 13 starts and 8-4 with 4 saves in 29 relief appearances.

1976: Made his debut Sep. 14 vs. Detroit at Baltimore... Picked up a win that night after 5.2 scoreless relief innings and fanned 5 Tigers including the 1st 3 he faced (Mickey Stanley, Bill Freehan, and Chuck Scrivener).

Tippy led O's with a career high 11 saves as well as in appearances (37), and was also the Birds' Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award winner with 25 points (2 points for each win and save, minus 1 point for each loss).

He was 2-2 with 9 saves and a 2.20 era (28.2 ip, 24 h, 7 er) in 21 1st half appearances, and 1-1 with 2 saves plus a 3.56 era (30.1 ip, 24 h, 12 er) in 16 appearances during the 2nd half.

He was scored on in 13 of 37 games total, but yielded earned runs in only 4 of his 1st 21 relief efforts (thru 1st half)... He preserved a lead or tie (upon entering) 17 times in 24 tries, and prevented 39 of 51 inherited runners from scoring (.756).

Matched his career strikeout high when he whiffed 9 Angels on Aug. 30 at Baltimore... It was exactly 1 year to the day that he had struck out 9 Angels in '79, also at Baltimore.

Tippy didn't allow a run in a stretch of 15.2 innings spread over 12 games from Apr. 27 to May 24.

'81 AND CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Orioles Only: Since joining the O's on June 15, '76, Tippy is 28-15 with 46 saves and an era of 3.21 (379 ip, 332 h, 135 er)... He's pitched in 240 games, all in relief, walked 192 and fanned 296.

He now ranks 4th on the O's all-time saves list (46), behind Stu Miller (88), Eddie Watt (72) and Dick Hall (51)... He is 9th in appearances (240)... Palmer leads at 503.

Memorial Stadium: With the Orioles Tippy is 18-7 with 21 saves and a 2.57 era (178.2 ip, 153 h, 51 er) in 104 appearances at Baltimore... On the road in the same period, he's 10-8 with 25 saves and a 3.77 era (200.1 ip, 179 h, 84 er) in 136 games... See "Home Runs" below.

Saves For: In '81 he saved 3 wins each for Dennis Martinez, Scott McGregor and Steve Stone and 2 for Mike Flanagan.

Lifetime with the O's he's saved games for: Jim Palmer (8); McGregor (7); Stone (6); D. Martinez, Flanagan & Rudy May (5 each); Ross Grimsley (4); Dave Ford (2); Dick Drago, Joe Kerrigan, Dyar Miller and Dave Pagan (1 each).

Longest Game: His longest stint in the majors was 8.1 innings vs. Texas on May 12, '80 at Baltimore.

Home Runs: Tippy has been stingy with home run balls throughout his career, having yielded only 18 since coming to the A.L. in '74 with the Yankees, and only 15 in 5½ seasons with the Orioles (that's only 1 every 25+ innings since becoming an Oriole).

At Memorial Stadium he's thrown only 5 "gophers" lifetime in 180.1 innings (including 1.2 innings for Yankees in '74), an average of 1 every 36 innings or 4 complete games.

Only 2 batters have managed to hit as many as 2 home runs against him: Carl Yastrzemski (both while Tippy was with Yankees) and the Tigers' Lance Parrish (1 in '80 and 1 in '81)... Seven of his 18 lifetime home run balls have been served up at Yankee Stadium (including 3 while he was still with N.Y.)... The Tigers have hit 6 of the 18 he's given up in the majors.

He once had a streak of 65 straight appearances (123.2 ip) without allowing a home run... After Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez hit one on May 23, '78, Tippy didn't allow another until Chicago's Marv Foley found the range on Apr. 19, '80. Earlier in his career he had a stretch of 55 consecutive homerless games (May 20, '76 to July 26, '77).

Starts: He has started only 2 games in 284 major league appearances and lost both games for the Yankees in '75 (to Boston July 27 and to California on Aug. 24).

"Sudden Death" Wins: Tippy won 2 games in "sudden death" last season and, has now picked up 11 of his 18 career Memorial Stadium victories in that dramatic fashion... In '79 the O's won 9 games in "sudden death" and Tippy was the winning pitcher in 5 of them (including 3 in relief of Steve Stone).

Vs. Opponents: See page 27.

1976: After coming to Baltimore June 15, '76 he was 3-1 with 8 saves and a 2.57 era (12 er in 42 ip) for the O's.

Yankees: Was originally signed for the Yankees by Sam Suplizio as an undrafted free agent off the Colorado State (Ft. Collins) campus in '72... One year later he led Carolina League in saves (15) and was 13-8 while fanning 160 in 105 innings.

Joined Yankees for 1st time in Aug. '74, then almost made club at start of '75. However, an injury to Dick Tidrow (rhp) necessitated adding another righthander to the staff instead... He won the James P. Dawson Award as the top rookie in the Yankees' '75 spring camp.

Was recalled from minors July 16, '75 and went on to lead the staff in saves (8)... Lyle was 5-7 with only 6 saves that year for N.Y.

Amateur Background: He played football, basketball and baseball at La Junta High School, and was drafted as an outfielder by the Washington Senators after his senior year on a late round in June '69, but chose to attend Colorado State.

Personal: Tippy is of Spanish-Mexican descent, but is a 3rd generation American and speaks little Spanish... He and his wife, the former Carol Sarlo, were classmates (graduated '69) at La Junta High... They have 2 children: Jacen Anthony (8/2/70) and Courtney Ann (10/10/78).

Tippy owns a home in Towson and now splits his winters between the Baltimore area and Aurora... His hometown of La Junta held a "Tippy Martinez" day in his honor after the '79 World Series.

Scott had the lowest earned run average among the Orioles' starters at 3.26 and finished in a tie with K.C.'s Dennis Leonard for the A.L. 2nd highest win total with 13 (4 pitchers won 14 games).

He also tied for 5th in the league with 3 shutouts, had the A.L.'s 6th best winning percentage at .722, and placed 2nd on the staff to Dennis Martinez in wins, winning percentage, complete games (8), innings pitched (160), and strikeouts (82).

Scott is now 46-19 over the last 3 seasons, a .708 winning percentage that is the best among American League starters in that period (see "Winning" below).

Season Summary: Scott was 6-2 in 10 1st half starts (11 total games) with a 3.15 era (26 er in 74.1 ip) as he enjoyed his 1st injury free start in 3 seasons (see "Injuries" below)...Was 7-3 in 12 2nd half starts (13 games) with a 3.36 era (32 er in 85.2 ip).

1st Half: Did not start over the 1st 13 days of the season because of rainouts and off days...Pitched once in that span, 4 innings against Kansas City on Apr. 12...After lasting just 3 innings in his 1st start, an 18-5 loss at Chicago on Apr. 23', won 6 of his last 7 1st half decisions...That included a season high 5 game winning streak over 5 starts from Apr. 27 thru May 22, during which time he compiled a 1.66 era (8 er in 43.1 ip)...Pitched consecutive 3-hit victories over Toronto on May 13 (4-0), and Oakland on May 17 (5-1).

2nd Half: Won 5 of 1st 6 decisions (over 8 starts)...Only loss in that span came on Aug. 22 at Oakland when he allowed just 3 hits in 8 innings, one of those a 2-run homer by Tony Armas in the 7th to account for A's 2-0 win...Split last 4 decisions, both wins being shutouts over New York (see "Blanking the Yanks" below).

Odds and Ends: Fanned career high 9 batters at Toronto, May 13, then bettered that marked with 11 strikeouts at New York, Sep. 25...Otherwise, had as many as 6 k's in just 2 other starts.

Was 7-2 at Memorial Stadium with 3.50 era and 6-3 on the road with 2.97 era...Had 13-2 record in night games but was 0-3 during the day...Tippy Martinez saved 3 of his wins, Tim Stoddard 2 and Sammy Stewart 1.

All-Star Team: Scott was selected to the A.L. squad for the 1st time by K.C. Manager Jim Frey . . . Was one of just three American Leaguers not to see action (pitchers Britt Burns and Doug Corbett were the others) in Aug. 9 game at Cleveland won by N.L., 5-4.

1981 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Winning: In addition to the 46-19 record in the last 3 seasons, Scott is 46-17 starting June 11, '79, and 61-29 (.678) beginning Apr. 30, '78 . . . Prior to that, was just 3-9 in the major leagues . . . Is now 3rd on O's all-time list in winning percentage at .627 (50 or more decisions) behind Steve Stone (.656) and Jim Palmer (.639).

April is the only month in which he has a lifetime losing record (3-6) . . . In the other months he is: May (12-4), June (10-4), July (10-7), August (14-7), September (13-10), October (2-0).

Injuries: Scott's injury free start in '81 can be partly attributed to an extensive off-season program of strengthening and stretching the muscles in his left elbow and shoulder . . . The previous 2 springs he was bothered by inflamed muscles in the elbow, the result of trying to throw after his arm had become tight from the off-season's inactivity.

In '80, felt a twinge while pitching in an exhibition game on March 30 and did not work again for 23 days when made 1st regular season start on Apr. 22 . . . In '79, didn't win 1st game until the season was 2 months old (June 11) and made only 4 appearances over the 1st 7 weeks, thanks to sore left elbow which originally developed the previous September.

Control: Scott led the O's starters by yielding just 2.25 bases on balls per 9 innings (40 bb, 160 ip), but that was his highest career yield . . . Allowed 2.80 walks/9 innings (23 bb, 74.1 ip) in 1st half but had much better control in 2nd half with a ratio of 1.79 bases on balls per 9 innings (17 bb, 85.2 ip) . . . In 12 2nd half starts, walked more than 2 on just 3 occasions.

His overall '81 ratio placed him 9th among the 49 qualifiers . . . Led the league with a 1.18 average in '79, and his career ratio of 1.93 walks/9 innings is 3rd best in club history (500 innings minimum) behind Dick Hall (1.47) and Robin Roberts (1.81).

Over the last 4 years, has issued no more than 1 walk in 69 of 113 games . . . In one month long stretch in '79, pitched 46.1 consecutive innings without walking a batter. After passing Toronto's Dan Ainge on June 29, didn't walk another until Amos Otis waited him out on July 29 . . . Walked career high 6 batters vs. Toronto on Apr. 9, '78 but shut out Blue Jays, 4-0.

Few Pitches: Because of his fine control, Scott has consistently thrown the fewest pitches of anyone on the O's staff . . . In '81, was the only O's pitcher to throw less than 100 pitches in a complete game performance at Memorial Stadium . . . Accomplished the feat twice: Aug. 27 vs. Cal. (97) and Oct. 3 vs. N.Y. (85) . . . Also used just 93 pitches in shutout at Yankee Stadium on Sep. 25 (see more below).

In '80 threw just 79 pitches in beating Toronto at home on June 24 and had 3 other sub-100 pitch cgs at Memorial Stadium.

Shutouts/1-0 Scores: He has pitched 13 shutouts in the last 4 years (not including one in '79 ALCS), tied for 2nd in the league in that span with Leonard behind Ron Guidry (14) and tied for 6th on O's all-time list.

Had 3 shutouts in '81: May 13 at Toronto (4-0); Sep. 25 at New York (1-0); Oct. 3 vs. New York at Baltimore (3-0) . . . Two of his 4 '80 shutouts were by 1-0 scores (see "Blanking the Yanks" below).

His career shutouts have been at the expense of: New York-4, Toronto-3, and California, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Minnesota, and Oakland-once each.

Blanking the Yanks: While Scott is just 5-5 lifetime against New York, all 5 of the wins have been shutouts, 3 by 1-0 scores . . . Has gone the route in 4 of those: Aug. 13, '78, at Baltimore (3-0, see "Bizarre Yankee Shutout" below); Aug. 17, '80, at Baltimore (1-0); Sep. 25, '81, at N.Y. (1-0); Oct. 3, '81 at Baltimore (3-0) . . . Tommy John was the losing pitcher in both '81 games.

In addition, also defeated New York at Yankee Stadium on Aug. 3, '79, 1-0, with 9th inning relief help from Tippy Martinez . . . Has now won 4 of last 5 decisions against the Yankees.

Bizarre Yankee Shutout: Picked up 1st lifetime win against the Yankees in a way that is no longer possible. . . In game of Aug. 13, '78, was leading, 3-0 thru 6 innings but was then touched for 5 runs in top of the 7th.

However, the rains came with the O's batting in their half of the inning, and the game was ultimately called. The score reverted to the last completed inning, and the O's won, 3-0. The rules have since been changed to prevent a recurrence.

That was the weekend in which 2 games were shortened by rain (Yanks won 1), and 2 others were interrupted by light failure.

Vs. Other Opponents: Scott was 3-0 against California (despite a 4.22 era) and is 9-0 vs. the Angels in the last 3 years, including his pennant clinching shutout in the '79 ALCS. . . Has a 1.59 era against California in that span (73.2 ip, 50 h, 13 er) and has held the Angels to a .183 average (42-for-230). . . Last loss was to Chris Knapp on Aug. 18, '78 . . . See "vs. California" on page 41 for more details.

Compiled 2-0 mark against Cleveland, defeating Len Barker on both occasions. . . Has now faced Barker in each of his last 5 starts vs. the Indians over 2 seasons, going 4-0 with 1 no decision. . . Has not lost to Cleveland since Sep. 22, '79 (Rick Waits was the winner), and is 7-2 lifetime.

Defeated Detroit and Milt Wilcox on May 22 for 6th straight win over Tigers and 10-1 record lifetime. . . Then lost last 3 '81 starts against Detroit. . . Was 2-0 against Toronto and has beaten the Blue Jays 4 straight times since losing to Tom Underwood on Sep. 11, '79.

Did not pitch against Minnesota or Texas but has enjoyed great career success against both. . . Has beaten the Twins 6 straight times dating back to July 22, '78, and is 7-1 lifetime. . . Is 4-0 in career versus the Rangers. . . Has had the most problems with Boston (2-5) and Milwaukee (1-5).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1980: Scott became a 20-game winner for the 1st time in his career when he defeated Cleveland's Barker (also going for 20th win) on the final day of the season. . . Was one of 5 A.L. pitchers to reach that plateau and combined with Steve Stone (25 victories) to give the O's the only staff in the majors with 2 20-game winners.

Was 3rd in the league in winning percentage (.714) and set personal highs in starts (36), wins, innings (252), and strikeouts (119), while matching previous best for shutouts (4 in '78). . . Was just 1-2 thru May 21 before going 19-6 the rest of the way, including 11-3 after July 19.

1979: He recovered from a sore elbow and an 0-2 record over the 1st 2 months of the season to go 13-4 with a 2.94 era starting June 11 . . . Then clinched the pennant with a game 4 shutout in the ALCS and went 1-1 in the world series (see below). . . After 0-2 start, never again lost as many as 2 in a row.

In addition to posting the league's lowest walks/9 ip average (1.18), also had the best ratio of men on base to innings pitched, +15 (175 ip, 165 h, 22 bb, 2 hb). . . Ron Guidry was 2nd at +38. . . Was chosen A.L. "player of the week" for Aug. 27-Sep. 3 after pair of complete game wins vs. Minnesota.

ALCS: Scott became the 1st pitcher other than Jim Palmer to clinch a pennant for the O's when he shut out California in the 4th game of the ALCS at Anaheim on Oct. 6. . . Threw a 6-hitter, walked 1 and fanned 4.

Though the O's won the game, 8-0, it was a lot closer than that until the Birds struck for 5 runs in the 7th inning. . . In the 5th, the O's led 3-0, but the Angels loaded the bases with 1 out. . . Then, a brilliant play by Doug DeCinces took Scotty and the O's out of a dangeous situation when he turned Jim Anderson's possible game-tying 3-run double into a miraculous inning ending double play.

WS: Scott drew the O's starting assignment for game 3 at Pittsburgh and was shaky at the start. At the point that a 1:07 rain delay intervened, the O's had just scored twice in the 3rd, but still trailed the Pirates, 3-2.

After play resumed Scott was completely in control and went on to limit the Bucs to 1 run and 4 hits over the last 7 innings. Meanwhile, the Birds pounced on John Candelaria and Enrique Romo for 5 in the 4th and went on to win, 8-4. Scott went the route, allowing 9 hits and no walks while fanning 6.

With the series deadlocked at 3 apiece, Scott earned the start in game 7. He led, 1-0 on Dauer's 3rd inning home run until the 6th when Willie Stargell hit a 2-run shot. The score remained 2-1 when Scott left for a pinch-hitter in the 8th, and he received the 4-1 loss as the Pirates scored 2 more in the 9th off 5 O's reliefers . . . Scott's total for the game: 8 ip, 7 h, 2 bb (both intentional). . . In last 15 innings in series, allowed just 11 hits and 3 earned runs.

1978: In 1st year as regular starter, started slowly with 0-3 record and 13.50 era thru Apr. 24. . . Was 15-10 with 2.74 era from then on . . . 1st win of year, Apr. 24 in relief, was beginning of career high 7 game winning streak (over 7 appearances). . . In that stretch, completed 5 of 6 starts and had 0.96 era (56.1 ip, 33 h, 6 er) to reduce era from 13.50 to 3.26 . . . Later that season lost career high 4 straight, June 24 thru July 7.

Retired 1st 20 batters against K.C. on Aug. 20 before Hal McRae doubled with 2 out in the 7th, precipitating a 2-run outburst that resulted in 2-0 Royals' win. . . On Sep. 5 gave up hits to 1st 3 Boston batters (including 3-run hr to Carl Yastrzemski) before retiring next 23 hitters en route to 5-3 victory. . . Also retired 20 in a row on Aug. 9 and twice set down 15 straight in '78.

1977: Was 2-1 in 5 starts and 1-4 with 4 saves in 24 relief appearances. . . Picked up 1st big league win in starting role against Cleveland on Apr. 20, then waited 4 months and 4 days for next victory, in relief on Aug. 20 vs. Chicago.

Yankees System: He was the Yankees 1st pick in the June '72 free agent draft. . . Went to spring training 4 straight years with the Yankees at Fort Lauderdale ('73-'76) but never spent a day on the regular season roster.

Amateur Background: Scott was a teammate of K.C.'s George Brett (whom he out-hit senior year) at El Segundo High School where he was 51-5 with an 0.29 era (including 18-1 as a senior) in 4 seasons. . . Also played basketball there.

Played Little League, Babe Ruth, and American Legion baseball. . . His El Segundo team won the Babe Ruth world championship in '69.

Personal: Has attended El Camino Jr. College. . . Hobby: photography. . . Is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and coordinates the Orioles' chapel services. . . Is the club's player representative. . . Spent part of the winters in '79 and '81 teaching at Gilman School in Baltimore.

Scott and his wife, the former Cara Bell, were married in Baltimore on Sep. 27, '76. . . They have 2 children: Eric Scott (11/22/78) and Katherine Noel (10/28/80).

Lum will play this season in Japan.

Lifetime in the majors he's batting .280 (99-for-353) as a pinch-swinger with an on-base percentage of .323 (126-for-390, including 26 walks + 1 hp). In 4 A.L. seasons his pinch-hitting average is .285 (41-for-144) and his on-base pct. is .344 (54-for-157, including 12 walks & 1 hp).

He has led his league in pinch-hits 4 times in 7 seasons: '75 (tied with Cubs' John Summers); '76; '78 and '80.

Record Year: In '76 with Montreal, he set 3 major league pinch-hitting records and fell just shy of matching another.

He was 25-for-78 (.321) and established records for:

(1) most hits, season—25, breaking the old mark of 24 held jointly by the O's Dave Philley ('61) and Vic Davalillo, St. L. ('70).

(2) most at bats, season—78, surpassing the old standard of 73 by Davalillo in '73.

(3) most games, season—82, breaking '60 record of 81 set by Elmer Valo while with Yankees and Senators. . .However, Merv Rettenmund broke that one in '77 when he appeared in 86 games as a pinch-swinger for Padres.

Jose's 24 rbi in a pinch-hitting role fell one short of matching the existing mark (25) shared by Joe Cronin ('43 with Boston) and Jerry Lynch ('61 with Cincinnati).

That season he had five pinch-hits against Houston (including 3 off Ken Forsch and one off J.R. Richard). . .His record breaking 25th pinch-hit was a bases-loaded double off the Cubs' Bruce Sutter.

He had 11 pinch-hits in the 9th inning or later and 17 in the 8th or later. . .His 14 pinch-hits for the Twins in '78 set a club record.

'81 Season: Primarily a starter thru most of his career, he turned almost exclusively to relief last year in deference to his right shoulder which was recuperating from surgery performed the previous winter. His lone '81 start was on Aug. 30 vs. Mets (no decision).

Experienced one month-long hot stretch from Apr. 22 to May 22 during which he did not allow a run over 7 appearances (17.1 innings)... Allowed only 10 hits in that period and was 1-0 with 2 saves...Was inconsistent after play resumed in August. Did not pitch after Sep. 8.

'80 Season/Surgery: Pitched effectively both in relief (4-1, 2 svs, 2.00 era) and as a starter, and was 9-5 with a 3.46 era on Aug. 28... Then shoulder problems, which he'd experienced several years earlier, resurfaced and he pitched only 15 ineffective innings the rest of the way.

After the season he underwent surgery in which a piece of his collarbone was removed to alleviate the pain in his right shoulder.

Batting: Paul has hit 2 home runs in the majors, both against the Phillies: off Randy Lerch (6/20/77 at Phi.) and off Jim Lonborg (7/29/78 at Cin.)...Has .175 career average in majors (24-for-137), but led Reds' staff in rbi in '78 (11). Once drove in 4 runs in one game (vs. S.F. on Sep. 17, '78).

In minors, he had a .289 mark (46-for-159) and hit 5 home runs with 28 rbi in his first 2½ campaigns (52 games).

vs. N.L. Opponents (W-L): Atl. (3-0), Chi. (2-0), Cin. (0-0), Hou. (2-2), L.A. (4-6), Mtl. (1-2), N.Y. (1-1), Phi. (3-1), Pit. (3-3), St.L. (3-4), S.D. (5-0), S.F. (1-3).

EARLY CAREER

Reds, '77-'79: Trained with Reds for 1st time in '77, as non-roster player, and almost made club, but was sent down to Indianapolis at end of spring. After a 7-1 start in American Association, was called up in mid-June...Had 2 complete games that year, both shutouts (vs. Phillies and Padres).

In '78 he experienced pitching problems in spring training and again started the campaign at Indianapolis, but joined Reds in mid-May... Had some shoulder trouble that year, but finished with a flourish, going 3-0 in 4 September starts...Had 15 no decisions as a starter, but Reds won 12 of them.

In '79 he was used sparingly until Tom Seaver was injured in late April, and he took Seaver's position in the rotation...Was 4-0 on the year before losing back-to-back 2-1 decisions, then won only one more game the rest of the year...Was farmed to Indianapolis on Aug. 1, but returned to Cincinnati in Sep.

Minors: Was 30-9 in 52 games with a 1.54 era after just 2½ minor league seasons when he was called up to Cincinnati in '77...

Led Northwest League in wins (10), era (1.50), strikeouts (92 so in 84 ip) and percentage (.909) in '75, his rookie pro season. Fanned 17 in one game, on Aug. 15 vs. Walla Walla (Padres), and won 7-0...His mound opponent Mike Lentz, the 1st player picked in the June draft that year, struck out 16 so there were 33 strikeouts in that one game.

In '76 he paced the Eastern League in era (1.55) and shutouts (6)... Was named to league all star teams in both '75 & '76.

After being sent back to Indianapolis in '79, he combined with 3 other pitchers (Davis May, Sheldon Burnside and Angel Torres) to throw a no-hitter...Paul pitched the first 3 innings in what turned out to be the only 4 pitcher no-hitter in American Association history.

Amateur Background: Played varsity baseball at Arizona State for 2 years ('72-'73) and hit .369 and .330 as a 1st baseman...A.S.U. reached finals of college world series both years.

Paul then transferred to Azusa (CA) Pacific College where he pitched and played the outfield for 2 more seasons ('74-'75)...In his final year, he was 10-5 with a 2.08 era, and 131 strikeouts in 117 innings, and as a batter hit .411 with 19 homers and 60 rbi in 50 games...Was named NAIA 1st team all-American in '75 and set Azusa 1-season records in strikeouts as a pitcher, and in home runs, rbi, runs (54) and total bases (148) as a batter.

At Rincon High in Tucson (graduated '71) he was all-city twice and all-state as a senior...Pitched a no-hitter in the Arizona state semi-final playoffs in '71.

Personal: He and his wife, the former Anna Zoback, have 2 children: Ryan Paul (8/22/77) and Rachel (6/25/80).

Despite the abbreviated season (105 games), Eddie has averaged 26½ home runs and 95 rbi in his 5 seasons as an Oriole.

Eddie led the A.L. with 78 rbi and tied 3 others for league high honors with 22 homers, thus becoming only the 2nd Oriole (joining Frank Robinson, '66) ever to lead (or share lead) the A.L. in both home runs and rbi in the same season.

He topped the O's in batting for the 2nd time in 3 seasons with a .294 average and finished among the league leaders in slugging (2nd, .534), total bases (5th, 202), gwrbi (tied for 9th, 10), runs (tied for 10th, 57) and hits (13th, 111).

In addition Eddie tied Doug DeCinces and the Mets' Dave Kingman for the major league lead with 2 grand slams and was the top fielding 1st baseman in the A.L.

For his efforts, he earned the Sports Boosters of Maryland's annual "most valuable oriole" award (by vote of writers and broadcasters covering the club) for the 2nd time and was the 1st unanimous selection since Ken Singleton in '77.

Batting: Eddie batted over .290 for the 3rd consecutive season despite a very slow start. . . Hit .331 (103-for-311) in his final 82 games (starting May 9[2]) with 22 homers and 74 rbi.

1st Half: After his best ever spring training (.391, 27-for-69, 12 rbi) in which he hit safely in 17 of his last 18 games, Eddie batted just .119 (8-for-67) with no homers and only 4 rbi in his 1st 17 regular season contests. Much of that can be attributed to a lingering viral infection which hampered him throughout April and sidelined him for 5 games (Apr. 20-26).

However, starting with the 2nd game of a doubleheader at Texas on May 9, he batted .331 (43-for-130) over the last 32 1st half games with 8 homers and 22 rbi to bring his average to .259.

At that point he was 2nd on club in homers (8) and 3rd in rbi (26). . . Hit 1st home run in 20th game, May 12 off Toronto's Dave Stieb.

Was runner-up in A.L. "player of week" voting for May 11-17 when he batted .556 (15-for-28) with 2 homers and 8 rbi in 6 games. . . Cleveland's Len Barker pitched a perfect game vs. Toronto that week to win the award.

2nd Half: Eddie had an outstanding 2nd season, batting .331 (60-for-181) and slugging percentage (.635, 115 tb) with 14 homers and 52 rbi in 50 games. . . Led league in rbi during that span, was 2nd to California's Bobby Grich (16) in homers, and had 6th best average while driving in nearly 26% (52 of 201) of all Orioles' runs.

Had great finish, hitting .390 (39-for-100) over his last 28 games starting Sep. 4 with 8 home runs and 30 rbi. . . In that span, had 2 4-hit games and 4 or more rbi 4 times. . . In last two games of year, vs. N.Y. on Oct. 3-4, had 2 homers and 5 rbi to win rbi crown outright and gain share of home run title.

Shared A.L. "player of month" honors for 2nd straight year (see "Strong Finishes" below) with K.C.'s Willie Wilson after a .340 performance with 6 homers and 27 games. . . Earlier that month he won back-to-back A.L. "player of week" awards for weeks of Sep. 7-13 (.423, 3 hr, 10 rbi) and Sep. 14-20 (.500, 2 hr, 9 rbi), only 3rd time that has been done in history of the award.

By Month: April-.135 (5-for-37), 0 hr, 2 rbi, 10 g. . . May-.286 (34-for-119), 5 hr, 17 rbi, 29 g. . . June-.293 (12-for-41), 3 hr, 7 rbi, 10 g. . . August-.286 (20-for-70), 6 hr, 20 rbi, 19 g. . . September-.340 (33-for-97), 6 hr, 26 rbi, 27 g. . . October-.500 (7-for-14) 2 hr, 6 rbi, 4 g.

Odds and Ends: Batted .309 (58-for-188) with 10 hr and 37 rbi in 46 road games and .279 (53-for-190) with 12 hr and 41 rbi in 53 home games. . . Was O's top "key run" producer (run that puts club one down, in tie, lead or 2 up) with 44, 12 in the 6th inning or later.

Ejection: Was ejected for 3rd time in career on May 18 vs. Oakland by Durwood Merrill for arguing balls and strikes. Was tossed out twice in '79 by: Larry Barnett in Cleveland June 18 and by Rich Garcia in N.Y. on Aug. 4.

MVP Vote/Other Honors: Finished 5th in BBWAA vote for A.L. "mvp" with 137 votes, his highest finish ever. . . Trailed Rollie Fingers (319), Ricky Henderson (308), Dwight Evans (140) and Tony Armas (139). . . Was also selected as Sylvania "Super Player" in fan voting as outstanding player in spring training.

Won CROWN-Orioles "player of month" honors in 3 of the 4 months award was made: May (edging Doug DeCinces 4 "game" awards to 3½); August (beating DeCinces again, 3½ to 3) and September (topping Lenn Sakata 5 to 4). . . For the season, he led club with 15½ game awards (by vote of writers and announcers covering club on a regular basis).

Home Runs: Eddie homered on final day of season to tie A's Tony Armas, Boston's Dwight Evans and California's Bobby Grich for A.L. home run title. It was only 2nd time an Oriole has won or shared the title (Frank Robinson in '66).

Among Youngest Leaders: At 24 years, 7 months Eddie was youngest major leaguer to win or tie for home run crown since Boston's Jim Rice (24-6) in '77. . . In last 20 years, Rice, Reds' Johnny Bench (22-9) in '70 and Boston's Tony Conigliaro (20-9, youngest ever) in '65 are the only other younger players to have achieved that distinction.

20 or More 5 Times: Has hit 20 or more homers in each of his 1st 5 big league seasons. . . Only Boog Powell (8), Brooks (6) and Frank (5) have had more 20 home run seasons for the O's.

Career Leaders: His 133 career homers rank him 6th on Baltimore's all-time list (see page 6) and he's 7th in the majors over the last 5 seasons ('77-'81) behind: Mike Schmidt (183), George Foster (169), Rice (165), Reggie Jackson (144), Dave Kingman (142) and Gorman Thomas (136).

32 HRs, '80: In '80 became 6th Oriole to have hit 30 homers in one season (see page 6). . .

Was also only the 5th switch-hitter ever to crack the 30-homer plateau and joined Ken Singleton (35 hrs in '79) as the 2nd Oriole. . . The others are Mickey Mantle (9 times), Reggie Smith (twice) and Rip Collins (once, only N.L. player). . .

Eddie is 9th all-time in homers among switchers. . . Mantle (536), Smith (296) and Singleton (208) are the top 3.

Multi HR Games/HR from Both Sides: Has tied club record with 3 home runs in a game twice: Aug. 29², '79 at Minnesota (2 off Geoff Zahn, 1 off Mike Marshall) and Sep. 14, '80 at Toronto (2 off Jackson Todd, 1 off Mike Barlow). . . Only other Oriole to accomplish the feat more than once was Powell (3 times).

Has homered twice in a game 5 times including once in '81 (Aug. 16 at Baltimore off Chicago's Ross Baumgarten-lhp and Ed Farmer-rhp).

That also marked the 3rd occasion on which he has hit homers from each side of the plate in the same game. The others: Aug. 3, '77 (Dave Giusti-rhp, Bob Lacey-lhp), and Aug. 29², '79 at Min. (Zahn-lhp-2, Marshall-rhp). That feat has been accomplished only 29 times in A.L. history (10 times by Mantle).

Grand Slams: Hit 2 slams in '80 to tie DeCinces and Kingman for major league lead: Aug. 16 off Chicago's Ross Baumgarten and Sep. 7 off Cleveland's Wayne Garland, both at Memorial Stadium. . . His other 2 career slams have been hit on the road: Apr. 28, '78 off Lerrin LaGrow at Chicago, and July 31, '79 off Reggie Cleveland at Milwaukee.

Among Leaders: Over last 3 years has 293 rbi, and is tied with Milwaukee's Gorman Thomas for 2nd in majors behind Phillies' Mike Schmidt (326). His 5-year career total of 476 is already 8th in O's history and ranks 6th in majors during that period ('77-'81).

Youngest: Was majors' youngest rbi leader since Texas' Jeff Burroughs (23 yrs, 7 mos.) in '74 and 2nd youngest in A.L. (to Burroughs) in last 37 years.

Became youngest Oriole ever to drive in 100 runs in a season in '80 and his total of 116 rbi was 5th highest ever.

Switchers: In '80 Eddie and Singleton (104) became only the 2nd switch-hitting duo to drive in 100 runs apiece in the last 50 years . . . Ted Simmons and Reggie Smith of the '74 Cardinals were the other pair.

Ironman: Although he missed a career high of 6 games in '81 (5 with viral infection in April and one with sore wrist on Aug. 22), he has played in 98.5% (737 of 748) of the O's games during his career. Played in 444 consecutive games from Aug. 21, '77 to July 14, '80, the 2nd longest such streak in club history to Brooks' 463.

Switch-Hitting: In '81 for the 3rd time in his 5 seasons, Eddie had a better average and a higher power quotient as a righthanded batter.

1981: As a rhb, hit .387 (41-for-106), up from .286 in '80, and his highest average ever from the right side. He had a .660 slugging percentage and homered every 15.1 at bats, his highest frequency ever from either side.

As a lhb, batted .257 (70-for-272), down from .307 in '80; had a .485 slugging percentage, and homered every 18.1 at bats.

Career: As a result of '81, his career figures for both average and slugging are now superior from the right side though his home run frequency is better as a lefthander.

Righthanded-.298 (259-for-870); .493 slugging; 38 hr; 1/22.89 home run frequency.

A Natural Righthander, Eddie turned to switch-hitting in '75 & '76 while in the minors...Cal Ripken and Jim Schaffer (now with Royals) were instrumental in assisting him with the changeover.

vs. Opponents: Eddie excelled against 4 clubs in particular last year: Milwaukee-.522 (12-for-23), Minnesota-.393 (11-for-28), Cleveland-.391 (9-for-23) and Seattle-.360 (9-for-25)...Had highs of 4 home runs vs. Yankees and 11 rbi against Cleveland.

Has a .300 lifetime average against 6 clubs: Toronto-.335, Cleveland-.326, California-.318, Milwaukee-.317, Minnesota-.310 and Seattle-.302...Career highs are 14 home runs against Boston and 50 rbi vs. Detroit...See pages 34-35.

Vs. individual pitchers, he's enjoyed considerable success against: Milwaukee's Pete Vuckovich-.500 (7-for-14); Texas' Jon Matlack-.474 (9-for-19), Oakland's Rick Langford-.417 (20-for-48) and California's Don Aase-.391 (9-for-23).

Fielding: Eddie led A.L. 1st basemen with a .999 fielding percentage with just one error in 991 total chances...That equals the major league record for fielding percentage by a 1st baseman, season, but Eddie fell one game short of the 100 game minimum needed to qualify for the mark.

He also topped the circuit in assists (91) and finished 2nd to Brewers' Cecil Cooper in putouts (899), total chances (991) and double plays (98).

Committed only miscue of the year Sep. 21 against Detroit when he misplayed a pickoff attempt in 6th inning. That broke his string of 113 consecutive errorless games (1,112 total chances), dating back to Sep. 7, '80, the longest of his career. Since that date, he's erred just once in 126 games (1,252 tc).

Has career fielding percentage of .995 (30 e in 6,150 tc)...Was also 2nd in A.L. in chances in both '79 & '80, and, in '78, his 1st season as a full-time 1st baseman, led the league with 1,615 total chances (was a dh most of '77, his rookie year). Has also had errorless game streaks of 80 (July 9, '78 to Apr. 10, '79) and 61 (June 6 to Aug. 20, '80) games.

All-Star Games: Was selected to the A.L. all-star team as a reserve for the 2nd time in '81...Played the last 5 innings at 1st base, reaching on a fielder's choice and grounding to 2nd in his 2 at bats in the Aug. 9 game at Cleveland. Was also named to squad for the '78 game in San Diego, but did not see action.

CS/WS '79: After striking out in his first 2 trips in game one of the ALCS, Eddie reached safely 10 times in his final 15 plate appearances with 5 walks and 5 hits...Was the series' leading hitter at .417 (5-for-12) and top rbi producer with 4...Hit a 3-run homer off California's Mark Clear in game 2.

Continued his success in 1st 2 games of the world series against Pirates, reaching safely 7 times in 8 plate appearances on 4 hits and 3 walks, including a solo homer off Bert Blyleven in game 2. However, over the last 5 games, went 0-for-21 and drew just one base on balls.

In game 7 with the O's trailing 2-1, in the bottom of the 8th, Eddie came up with 2 out and the bases loaded and lined a shot to deep right off Kent Tekulve. Dave Parker slipped while breaking back on the ball, but then caught up with it to make the catch for the final out. That was the O's last threat in the decisive 7th game.

Fast Finishes: He has always finished strong in his 5 big league seasons, combining for a .339 average (199-for-587) in September-October with 32 homers and 125 rbi in 152 games...Has hit over .300 during that period each year: '77-.364, '78-.305, '79-.333,'80-.328, '81-.360.

In '81 Jim experienced only the 2nd sub-.500 year in 16 seasons with the Orioles.

He was 3-4 with a 2.94 era in 1st half and 4-4 with a 4.74 in the 2nd . . . See detailed stats on page 28. He was 4-5 at home and 3-3 on the road.

Though his record was only 4-5 on Aug. 25, Jim's era was an impressive 2.88 at that point. In his last 7 starts, however, he was touched for 22 earned runs in 30.1 innings (6.53) a yield that boosted his final figure by nearly a full run per 9 innings to a final 3.75.

During that stretch he was knocked out 4 times in the 3rd inning or earlier (including twice in the 1st), yet, on 2 other occasions, beat the Brewers (Sep. 20) and Yankees (Sep. 24) with strong route-going efforts.

Since his 8th 20-win season, in '78, Jim has gone 33-24 in 3 seasons.

'81 & CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

vs. Opponents: Jim has 20 or more career wins against 7 opponents: New York & Cleveland (27 each); California & Chicago (24 each); Boston, Kansas City & Milwaukee (20 each). . . He's beaten 4 other clubs 19 times apiece: Detroit, Minnesota, Oakland & Texas. Has 7 shutouts against both Yankees and Indians.

New York . . . His 27 career wins (15 losses) vs. the Yankees represents a high among active pitchers and ranks 16th on the all-time list (Walter Johnson leads with 60 wins over N.Y.).

Jim is 15-6 lifetime at Yankee Stadium and 6-2 since that ballpark was renovated (starting '76).

Chicago . . . Had no decisions vs. Chicago in '81, but is 13-2 against the White Sox since June 16, '74. . . He's 24-9 lifetime.

Cleveland . . . Has a 2.17 career era (368.1 ip, 270 h, 89 er) against the Indians, his lowest vs. one opponent. . . He's 27-11 in decisions.

Detroit . . . Though 0-1 in '81 he's beaten the Tigers 7 times in 8 decisions since July 31, '76.

Oakland . . . Was 0-1 in '81 and is 1-4 in last 3 years since going 4-0 vs. the A's in '78.

Seattle . . . Has had more trouble with Mariners than any other club, as his 2-3 record and 5.88 era (33.2 ip, 42 h, 22 er) attest . . . His lone appearance against the M's last Aug. 25 at Seattle (no decision) was his 1st at the Kingdome in 4 years; since '77 when he lost his 1st 2 appearances there, both to Glenn Abbott (May 16 & July 31).

In 3 games there lifetime he's given up 13 hits and 11 runs in 9 innings. Jim didn't pitch at all against Seattle in '78 or '79.

20-Win Seasons: In '78 he became the 1st 8-time 20-game winner in the A.L. in 43 years since Lefty Grove turned the trick for the 8th (and last) time in '35. . . Palmer, Grove and Walter Johnson (a 12-time 20-gamer, for the last time in '25) are the only 3 in the 80 year history of the A.L. to have enjoyed 8 20-win campaigns.

Jim is only the 2nd major leaguer in the last 43 seasons to win 20 that often. Warren Spahn did it 13 times for the Braves, the last in '63.

Palmer is only the 6th among pitchers who worked exclusively in the 20th century and only the 16th in the entire history of major league baseball to notch 20 wins 8 times.

The major league record is 16 by Cy Young (between 1890 and 1909 in both leagues). . . The N.L. mark is 13, held jointly by Spahn & Christy Mathewson.

Other multi 20-game winners over the last several decades include: Bob Lemon and Fergie Jenkins-7 each; Robin Roberts and Bob Feller-6; Gaylord Perry, Catfish Hunter, Tom Seaver and Steve Carlton-5; Luis Tiant-4.

Lifetime Wins: With 248-140 record, Jim ranks 36th on the all-time list of winners. . . He is 6th among actives behind: Gaylord Perry (297), Jim Kaat (278), Fergie Jenkins (264), Steve Carlton (262) and Tom Seaver (259).

There are 4 other active pitchers with 200+ wins: Don Sutton (241), Phil Niekro (240), Luis Tiant (227) and Tommy John (223).

Low ERA: Jim's 2.78 era is 5th on the all-time list (since era became an official stat in '12-NL and '13-AL) among pitchers with 3000 or more innings, and 2nd among actives behind Tom Seaver.

The 5 Leaders: (1) Walter Johnson-2.37...(2) Grover C. Alexander-2.56...(3) Seaver-2.60...(4) Whitey Ford-2.74...(5) Palmer-2.78.

Jim's era is the lowest in the A.L. since Johnson retired 54 years ago ('27)...He has finished in the A.L.'s "top 5" 9 times in the past 13 seasons (exceptions '74, '79, '80, '81) and has twice won the era title ('73, '75).

W-L Percentage: Jim's .639 percentage is tops in the A.L. today and 2nd only to Seaver's .644 among active major leaguers (200 or more decisions minimum).

He ranks 12th on the list among those who have toiled in the 20th century exclusively...The leader is Whitey Ford (.690, 236-106).

Shutouts/Scoreless Innings: Though he hasn't pitched a shutout in the last 3 seasons (he had 6 in '78, the last on Aug. 23, '78 vs. Oakland), Jim ranks 13th on the all-time list with 51 (Walter Johnson leads with 113) and is 4th among actives behind: (1) Don Sutton-55...(2) Tom Seaver-54...(3) Gaylord Perry-52...Behind Palmer are: Luis Tiant-49, Nolan Ryan & Fergie Jenkins-47 each and Steve Carlton-46.

Jim's 10 shutouts in '75 are a club record and represent an A.L. high since Dean Chance had 11 in '64.

During an 18 day period in '78 (May 24 thru June 10), Jim pitched 4 shutouts in 5 starts. Three of them were in succession which gave him a piece of the club record along with Jack Fisher ('60), Hal Brown ('61), Milt Pappas ('64) and Tom Phoebus ('67)...He also had a string of 30.1 scoreless innings in that span, shy of the club record, 36, held by Hal Brown ('61).

Winning Streaks: He won 10 straight in '73 (July 14 thru Aug. 26), 9 in a row (Aug. 30, '77 thru Apr. 21, '78) and 8 straight (Aug. 23, '78 thru Apr. 6, '79).

In one 13 month period, spanning 2 seasons (from Aug. 30, '77 thru Sep. '78), Jim put together 3 7-game winning streaks, including the last 7 decisions in both '77 & '78.

1-0 Wins: He has an 8-3 record in complete game 1-0 decisions and is 9-5 overall...In '78, during a period in which he hurled 4 shutouts in 5 starts (see above), he went route to win 1-0 3 times (May 24 vs. Det., June 1 vs. N.Y. and June 10 vs. Oak.).

Among actives, Bert Blyleven (13), Gaylord Perry (12) and Fergie Jenkins (11) are the leaders in 1-0 wins.

200th Win: He became the 1st pitcher ever to win 200 games, all in a Baltimore uniform, on May 28, '78 (2nd game) when he blanked Cleveland at Memorial Stadium...Two former Orioles won more than 200, but not all with Baltimore: Robin Roberts (286, 42 with O's) and Milt Pappas (209, 110 with O's).

No-Hitter/Near Misses: He no-hit Oakland Aug. 13, '69 beating Chuck Dobson, 8-0, only 4 days after coming off a 6 week stretch on the disabled list (2nd start).

In '73 he experienced 2 near misses, both in Baltimore...Had a perfect game with 1 out in the 9th vs. Texas on June 16 (had retired 1st 25 batters) when Ken Suarez singled. Jim ultimately won a 9-1 2-hitter ...Then, on July 27, a leadoff single in the 8th by Cleveland's George Hendrick was the only hit he allowed.

Jim pitched a no-hitter in the minors, at Aberdeen (Northern League) in '64, his 1st pro season.

Low Hitters: Among his 203 complete games are 55 in which he has limited the opponent to 4 hits or less...See details listed below his career statistical record on page 130.

Club Records: See pages 11 & 13.

Cy Young: Jim is 1 of 4 pitchers to have won the award 3 times ('73, '75, '76) in its 26-year history (starting '56) along with Sandy Koufax, Tom Seaver and Steve Carlton.

He, Koufax and Denny McLain are the only ones to have won the award in 2 straight years (McLain shared his 2nd with Mike Cuellar).

In '75 and '76 Jim was the only pitcher named on all 24 ballots (2 per A.L. city)...He polled 108 points in '76 to win handily over Mark Fidrych (51 points). In '75, he totaled 98 points to win over Catfish Hunter (74 points)...In '73 he was named on 20 of 24 ballots good for 88 points to beat out Nolan Ryan (52 points).

Jim has finished among the top 3 in Cy Young balloting 5 times: '73-1st, '75-1st, '76-1st, '77-2nd, '78-3rd.

Other Awards: Was TSN's A.L. "pitcher of the year" in '73, '75 & '76, and has been named to TSN's A.L. all-star team (by vote of fellow A.L. players) as the top righthander a total of 6 times.

He was voted to the A.P. major league all-star team in '75 & '76 and to the A.P. A.L. all-star team in '77 & '78. . . He won 4 straight Gold Gloves as the top fielding pitcher in the A.L. from '76 thru '79.

Jim is a 2-time winner of the Sports Boosters of Maryland's "most valuable Oriole" award ('72 & '73) and has been runner-up 3 times: in '75 (to Ken Singleton), in '76 (to Lee May) and in '78 (to Eddie Murray).

He was voted "comeback player of the year" in '75 by TSN and UPI . . . He won the Joe Cronin Award in '76 for significant achievement in the A.L. and finished 2nd in the BBWAA's A.L. "most valuable player" balloting to Reggie Jackson in '73.

All-Star Games: Jim has been named to the A.L. all-star team 6 times ('70, '71, '72, '75, '77, '78) and has started 4 times ('70, '72, '77, '78). In his last 2 starts he didn't fare too well.

In '78 he gave up 3 hits, 3 runs (all earned), 4 walks and fanned 4 in 2.2 innings at San Diego, but didn't give up any home runs and didn't get the loss.

In '77 at Yankee Stadium he yielded 5 hits including 3 homers (Joe Morgan, Greg Luzinski and Steve Garvey) and was the losing pitcher, 7-5.

In 3 previous games ('70, '71, '72) he had pitched a total of 8 scoreless innings while allowing only 3 hits and 2 walks, and striking out 8.

Has not pitched in an all-star game in any of the 3 years that he went on to win the Cy Young. . . He wasn't picked to the squad in '73 and '76 and did not pitch in '75 because of a tender arm, but was on the team.

WS/ALCS: Has a 7-3 record, has appeared in a total of 16 post-season games (15 starts) for the O's, and has an aggregate era of 2.65 (122.1 ip, 36 er).

1979: Started ALCS game #1 vs. Nolan Ryan, but came out after 9 innings in a 3-3 tie. . . Don Stanhouse picked up the 6-3 win an inning later on John Lowenstein's 3-run homer.

In the WS, he was O's starter in games #2 & #6. . . In 2nd game came out after 7 for a pinch-hitter in a tie game. Stanhouse ultimately lost that one in the 9th.

He lost to John Candelaria in #6, 4-0, after giving up 10 hits and all 4 runs in an 8 inning stint.

Pennant Clinchers: Went the route to win the pennant clinching games in each of O's first 4 A.L. championship seasons. . . That string was broken in '79 by Scott McGregor.

In '66, Jim beat the K.C. A's Sep. 22 to wrap up the first A.L. title, then won the 3rd and final game of the ALCS against the Twins in '69 & '70 and the Oakland A's in '71 as the O's swept all 3 series.

Youngest Shutout: Became the youngest ever to pitch a WS shutout when he blanked Sandy Koufax, 6-0, in game #2 in '66 at Dodger Stadium on 4 hits and 6 L.A. errors. At the time Jim was 20 years, 11 months and 21 days old. . . That, incidentally, was Koufax' last game in professional baseball.

'69-'70-'71 WS: He won opening game of '70 series vs. Cincinnati and won game 2 in '71 vs. Pittsburgh. . . Then, he pitched 9 innings in game #6 against the Pirates, one of the biggest games in O's history, and left with score tied 2-2. The O's ultimately won in the 10th to force the series to a 7th game with Dave McNally getting the win in relief.

Jim's only world series loss until '79 was at the hands of the Mets in '69 game #3 to Gary Gentry, 5-0.

ALCS Records: Jim holds total series records for most wins (4, tied with Catfish Hunter), most complete games (5), most strikeouts (46) and most walks (19, tied with Mike Cuellar).

CAREER SIDELIGHTS

Big League Debut/Early Career: Made his big league debut in relief at Boston Apr. 17, '65, then earned his 1st win on May 16, '65, also in relief, vs. Yankees' Pete Mikkelsen in Baltimore.

Led O's in wins (15) in '66, the Birds 1st pennant winning season. . . Dave McNally was 2nd with 13.

Pitched his 1st professional game at age 18, on May 1, '64 for the Aberdeen Pheasants (Northern League) at Grand Forks. . . He wasn't the pitcher of record in that game Aberdeen rallied to win 10-4. The big offensive gun for Manager Cal Ermer's club that night was shortstop Mark Belanger who had 2 triples and 3 rbi.

One week later, in his 2nd pro start, (May 8, '64) Jim won his 1st game and pitched his 1st shutout, a 3-hitter, also against Grand Forks, in 10 innings.

Major Injuries: Back and shoulder injuries nearly ruined his career in '67-'68. He worked in only 2 games for the O's between June 8, '67 and the start of the '69 season.

During that period, he pitched at Rochester, Elmira and Miami trying to shake the ailments, but it wasn't until a stint in the Puerto Rican winter league after the '68 season that he began to overcome his physical problems.

Since then he has been afflicted with a series of arm, shoulder and back problems, but only 3 times have the injuries been serious enough to put him on the disabled list.

1969: After recovering from his '67-'68 maladies, Jim jumped out to a 9-2 start in '69 before tearing shoulder muscles on June 26. . . He went on disabled list for 42 days, then, 4 days after being activated, pitched a no-hitter against Oakland.

1974: In his only losing season (prior to '81), he spent nearly 8 weeks (June 20 to Aug. 13) on the disabled list with a sore elbow.

1979: He didn't pitch for 44 days (from July 1 until Aug. 13) and saw action in only 3 games over a 10 week period (from June 3 to Aug. 13) while suffering from tendinitis in the right elbow. During that span, Jim was on the disabled list from July 16 to Aug. 9.

Strikeouts/Walks: He has fanned 10 or more batters 13 times including a career high of 13 strikeouts at Cleveland July 1, '71. . . He had one 12 strikeout effort in '77 vs. Milwaukee on May 24 at Baltimore and has fanned 11 Twins 3 different times, all at Memorial Stadium ('70-1, '71-2).

He has twice walked 8 batters in a game, both times in 1st appearances of the year ('66 & '70).

Home Runs: In 3626 innings spread over 503 games, Jim has NEVER GIVEN UP A GRAND SLAM HOME RUN. . . Johnny Bench hit one off him while both were in the International League in '67 and Fred Patek once hit one in a spring exhibition game, but never in a regular season (or post-season) game.

He has yielded a total of 268 home runs, but is in no danger of matching Catfish Hunter's A.L. record (374), let alone Robin Roberts' major league mark (502).

Losing Streaks: Jim lost 7 in a row in '74 (7 straight starts from Apr. 30 thru June 7). . . Otherwise, he has never dropped more than 4 consecutive decisions, and he's done that only once (in '78 from June 23 thru July 15).

Long Games: Jim has pitched more than 9 innings 19 times: 10 innings-11. . . 11 innings-4. . . 12 innings-4. . . He has a 5-6 record with 8 no-decisions in those 19 games. . . The last time he went into "overtime" was on Sep. 28, '77 when he went the route to win a 3-2 decision over Detroit in 11 innings.

In Relief: He has relieved 28 times in 503 appearances (regular seasons). . . He came out of the bullpen 21 times as a rookie in '65 and made 3 more relief appearances in '69. . . Since June 28, '69, he has relieved only 4 times in 423 games, most recently on May 14, '80 vs. Texas in a losing cause.

In post-season he has relieved only once, in the final game of a losing cause against Oakland in the '73 ALCS (relieved starter Doyle Alexander. . . Jim had started the previous day).

Batting: He has hit 3 home runs lifetime: off New York's Jim Bouton in Baltimore May 16, '65; off Dave Morehead in Boston Apr. 13, '66, and off Cleveland's Rich Hand May 27, '70 in Baltimore.

Jim has a lifetime batting average of .174 (85-for-489), but hasn't batted in a regular season game since Sep. 29, '72.

In 3 ALCS (before the dh rule) he went 1-for-14 with 1 rbi and 1 double ('70 vs. Twins) and in 5 world series he is 1-for-21, a single in '70 vs. Cincinnati. . . He did set an offensive record in '71 vs. Pittsburgh by drawing 2 bases loaded walks in the same game (game #2).

Signing and Amateur Background: Jim was signed to a bonus contract with the Orioles by Jim Russo and Jim Wilson. . . He was an outstanding 3-sport athlete at Scottsdale High School (graduated '63) where he earned all-Arizona honors in baseball, basketball and football.

Personal: Jim has been the highly publicized sports representative for Jockey Underwear since the spring of '80. . . In January '81 he was selected the best dressed man in baseball in the national Cutty Sark sports fashion poll of some 200 sportswriters and sportscasters.

He has worked actively on behalf of the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation for the past 11 years, serving most of that time as national sports chairman.

Worked as color man for ABC-TV during '78 & '80 ALCS, and '81 World Series. Participated in Superstars competition for television in '75, '76, '78 & '79.

Attended Arizona State University. . . He has 2 daughters: Jamie Michell (11/16/66) and Kelly Christina (6/5/69).

Cal was enjoying an outstanding season at Rochester when he was recalled by the Orioles on Aug. 8 as the 2nd half began...Played sparingly over the final 2 months but was still selected as the shortstop on the major league all-rookie team selected by Topps, the only A.L. player so honored.

Rochester: Despite spending the final 3 weeks of the season in Baltimore, Cal was selected as the International League's "rookie of the year" and as the 3rd baseman on the all-league team chosen by managers and media...Led the league in slugging at .535 (234 tb/434 ab), and was also among the leaders in doubles (3rd, 31), game-winning rbi (tied for 3rd, 11), total bases (4th), home runs (tied for 4th, 23), rbi (5th, 75), and batting (11th, .288).

Topped Rochester in batting, runs (74), doubles, rbi, game-winning rbi, and tied Dan Logan for the home run lead...At the time of his recall, was also 1st in the I.L. in games (114), total bases, and doubles.

Had an outstanding start, batting .340 (32-for-94) in 1st 27 games...Hit 3 homers vs. Charleston on Apr. 27...Drove in 6 runs vs. Pawtucket on May 31 and scored 4 times against Richmond on June 9...Had season high 10 game hitting streak from May 1-10 (.444, 16-for-36, 10 rbi).

Played in 85 games at 3rd and 35 contests at shortstop, primarily when Bob Bonner was sidelined with injuries.

Baltimore: Cal made his major league debut in the Orioles' 1st game of the 2nd half on Aug. 10 when he was inserted as a pinch-runner in the 12th inning and scored the winning run against Kansas City... Singled off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on Aug. 16 for 1st big league hit.

Saw action in 12 games at short (9 starts), 6 games at 3rd, was employed as a pinch-runner 5 times, and was 0-for-4 as a pinch-hitter... Did not bat and played in just 2 games defensively after Sep. 11.

Youngest: Became the youngest player in the American League and 2nd youngest in majors (to Los Angeles' Fernando Valenzuela) when he joined the O's two weeks shy of his 21st birthday... Was the youngest Oriole to appear in a major league game since pitcher Mike Adamson made his debut at 19 years, 9 months in July, '67... Other notable O's "youngsters" include: Brooks Robinson (18-4), Wally Bunker (18-7), Jim Palmer (19-7), Frank Bertaina (20-3), and Paul Blair (20-7).

'81 SEASON/ORIOLES CAREER

'81 Summary: Played in all of O's last 30 games (starting Sep. 2) and started the final 28 (beginning Sep. 4), all but one at shortstop... Prior to Sep. 2, he was batting only .189 (10-for-53) and had appeared in only 31 of the club's 75 games...After that he hit .247 (23-for-97)...In one 5 game stretch, from Sep. 2 thru 8, he went 9-for-16 to raise his average from .189 to .270...Hit all 5 of his homers in Sep.-Oct. (see below).

Sprained his right ankle on May 9 at Texas and was disabled until May 28.

Home Runs/Big Days: His 1st home run of the year was also his 1st career grand slam, off Oakland's Dave Beard at Baltimore, Sep. 6 ...The blast, a game-winner, broke a 4-4 tie in the 7th inning.

Exactly 2 weeks later, on Sep. 20 also at Baltimore, he enjoyed the most productive day of his career. He had his 1st 2-homer game (0 on off Brewers' Mike Caldwell and 2 on off Reggie Cleveland), had a 4-hit day for the 1st time and set a career high for rbi in a game (5).

On Oct. 1, he homered twice again, both with bases empty off Dave Tobik at Tiger Stadium.

Fielding: After becoming a starter at shortstop on Sep. 4, he handled 128 chances with only 3 errors at that position (.977).

On the season, he appeared in 42 games at short (6 e in 164 chances, .963) and 20 games at 2nd base (1 e in 73 chances, .986).

vs. Opponents: Lifetime, he's batting .348 (8-for-23) vs. Brewers, his original club, and has hit 3 of his 8 home runs off Milwaukee pitching...See page 44 for more details on his success against Brewers...Has .524 career average (11-for-21) against Twins, but is 0-for-34 lifetime vs. Chisox.

1980: After coming from Milwaukee the previous winter, Lenn trained with O's but was assigned to Rochester at end of spring...Was leading International League in hitting when recalled to Baltimore May 23 (after Kiko Garcia and John Lowenstein were disabled). Was used primarily as backup 2nd baseman rest of year...Went 4-for-5 as a pinch-hitter (had never been used in that capacity in majors previously) with a home run, double and 4 rbi.

"Sudden Death" Sakata: Won 2 games in "sudden death" in his 1st 2 pinch-hit appearances (lifetime)...On June 2 homered off Brewers Bob McClure in bottom of 11th at Baltimore to give O's 9-8 win...In next pinch-hit effort, 8 days later (June 10), he singled off Oakland's Bob Lacey in bottom of the 9th to give Birds a 3-2 win.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Milwaukee: Spent parts of '77, '78, '79 seasons with the Brewers...Called up to majors first time on July 19, '77 when injuries sidelined Robin Yount, Don Money and Tim Johnson and started 46 of next 50 games at 2nd base. Made big league debut by going 0-for-7 in a doubleheader at Yankee Stadium on July 21, but picked up his 1st hit the next day, a single off Ron Guidry, and hit his 1st home run off Dennis Martinez at Memorial Stadium July 25.

Started '78 as Brewers regular 2nd baseman vs. lefthanders, but was ultimately optioned to Spokane July 9...A 2-run single against Baltimore Apr. 9 accounted for 2 of his 3 rbi.

Over the first 7 weeks of the season, Ken put together what was probably the best individual start in Orioles history (even better than Frank Robby's debut for O's in '66). After May 24, however, Ken's power and run production declined steeply and he was never able to regain that touch.

His average, on the other hand, remained among the league's highest until late August (was batting .337 on Aug. 25) when he plunged into a slump that extended over the last 35 games of the year and reduced his percentage by 59 points to a final .278.

April: Ken homered in his 1st at bat of the year on opening day vs. K.C. and went on to hit .472 (25-for-53) in April with 7 homers and 14 rbi in 15 games . . . It was the highest average ever by an Oriole in the opening month and the highest in the majors since '73. . . His on-base percentage for the month was .517 (30-for-58) and his slugging percentage was .981 (52 bases in 53 at bats).

It was little wonder that Ken was voted the A.L.'s "player of the month" award (though Oakland's Tony Armas was a close 2nd) and was also the winner of the 1st Crown-Orioles "player of the month" trophy.

10-for-10: During the April spree Ken set a club standard with 10 straight hits over a 2½ game span, all in Baltimore, on Apr. 26 (4-for-4 vs. Bos.), Apr. 27 (4-for-4 vs. Chi) and Apr. 28 (2-for-2 vs. Chi). Richard Dotson, off whom Ken had homered the previous trip, finally ended the streak by getting him on a gdp. . . See more about Dotson vs. Singleton below under "vs. Opponents".

Included among the 10 hits were 4 doubles and 2 homers plus 6 rbi . . . The previous club record was 8 straight hits held jointly by Brooks Robinson (twice), Bob Johnson and Don Baylor.

1st 7 Weeks: After going 3-for-4 in the 1st game of a doubleheader at Detroit on May 24, Ken was batting a league leading .383 (49-for-128) and was among the pace-setters with 9 homers and 31 rbi in just 36 games.

Power Failure: Beginning with the 2nd game of that Sunday doubleheader in Detroit (5/24), and extending thru the rest of the season, Ken managed only 18 rbi and 4 home runs in 67 games.

It was understandable that his average would also decline somewhat from the .383 level, but he was still batting .340 when play was suspended after games on June 11, and on Aug. 25 his average was a highly respectable .337 (83-for-246). After that, however, he batted only .154 (18-for-117) over the last 35 games of the season with no home runs (he had come out of his power slump briefly to hit home runs in 3 straight games on the west coast Aug. 23-24-25 but hit none after that) and only 7 rbi.

vs. Opponents: He batted .438 (14-for-32) with 4 homers and 9 rbi in 9 games vs. Chicago and was particularly devastating against Dotson who was 3-0 vs. the O's in '81. . . Ken went 5-for-9 off the Chicago righthander with 3 homers and has a .412 lifetime average (7-for-17) with 4 homers vs. Dotson.

In '81 Ken went 6-for-12 vs. Boston and batted .357 (10-for-28) against the Royals.

Lifetime, Ken has a .341 average (56-for-164) vs. Seattle with 18 home runs (a career high vs. a single opponent) and 50 rbi in 46 games . . . At the Kingdom, he is batting .345 (29-for-84) and has 10 homers plus 24 rbi in 23 games.

He is batting .326 (107-for-328) lifetime vs. Boston and .318 (83-for-261) against K.C. . . . His 54 rbi vs. Detroit represents a high against one club.

SWITCH-HITTING

1981: In '81 for the 10th time in 12 major league seasons Ken hit for a higher average lefthanded-.295 (76-for-258), 11 hr, 41 rbi, 51 bb, than righthanded-.238 (25-for-105), 2 hr, 8 rbi, 10 bb... His 2 home runs against lefthanded pitchers (batting righthanded) were at the expense of Larry Gura-K.C. (opening day) and Seattle's Jerry Don Gleaton (8/24 at Sea.).

Lifetime: Lifetime, Ken is batting .299 (1212-for-4052) lefthanded and .268 (458-for-1706) righthanded... He's hit 155 homers from the left side and 53 from the right side.

A.L. Only: In the A.L. only Ken has a .307 (808-for-2628) average as a lefthander and is batting .273 (288-for-1056) righthanded... He's hit 105 home runs lefthanded (1/25.03 at bats) and 39 righthanded (1/27.08 at bats).

Best Year Righthanded: In '77 Ken hit .377 (59-for-158) from the right side and was over .400 until Sep. 11... That year he hit .310 lefthanded... The only other season he hit better from the right side was in '70 for the Mets.

4th Switcher to Hit 30 HR ('79): In '79 Ken became only the 4th switch-hitter in major league history to hit 30 or more homers in a season... Eddie Murray became the 5th in '80... The others: Mickey Mantle (9 times), Reggie Smith (twice), and Rip Collins (once)... Ken and Mantle are the only switchers to have hit 35 or more in one season... In lifetime homers, Ken is 3rd among switch hitters with 208 behind Mantle (536) and Reggie Smith (296). Murray ranks 9th at 133.

Ken & Eddie Combo: In '80, Ken and Eddie Murray became only the 2nd pair of switch hitting teammates to produce 100 rbi each in a single season... The only others to do it were Ted Simmons and Reggie Smith with the '74 Cardinals.

Natural Lefty: Though a natural lefthander (he eats and writes lefthanded), Ken batted righthanded until becoming a permanent switch hitter in '65 (late in his amateur career).

ORIOLES CAREER

35 HRs-'79: Ken who hit 35 home runs in '79 is 1 of only 6 Orioles to have hit 30 or more in a single season during the club's 28 seasons in Baltimore. The others: Boog Powell (4 times), Frank Robinson (3 times), Jim Gentile (twice), Gus Triandos and Eddie Murray who hit 32 in '80 (once each).

Flanagan HRs: Mike Flanagan has been the principal beneficiary of Ken's home runs over the last several years. Since Mike made his debut on Sep. 5, '75, Singleton has hit 130 home runs, 44 of them (34%) in games Mike has pitched. Last year Ken hit only 2 of 13 for Flanagan, but in '80 it was 7 of 24 and in '79 15 of 35.

RBI: He is 1 of 7 different O's to have recorded 100 rbi seasons since '54. He is 1 of only 4 to have done it twice: Boog Powell (3 times); Brooks, Frank and Ken (twice each); Jim Gentile (141 in '61), Lee May (109 in '76) and Eddie Murray (116 in '80) have each had 1 100-rbi season for the O's.

Walks: Through his first 6 years with the Birds ('75 thru '80), Ken averaged 100 walks, and in 8 seasons ('73 thru '80) including his 2 years at Montreal his average was 102. In last year's abbreviated campaign he drew 61 walks, 6th best in the league (Dewey Evans led with 85).

He has finished 2nd in the A.L. in walks 4 times ('75, '77, '78, '79) and was also runner-up once in the N.L. ('73).

On-Base Pct.: Ken has a .400 lifetime major league on-base percentage (2724-for-6812) and in 7 A.L. seasons has reached safely at a .406 clip (1766-for-4354).

Last year his o.b. average was .381 (162-for-424), his lowest since '76 (.369), 9th best in the A.L. He's been in the top 6 in 5 different A.L. seasons and his .442 percentage (285-for-645) in '77 fell just short of Bob Nieman's club record .445 in '56.

Batting Streaks: Had no streaks of 10 or more games in '81 (longest was 9), but in 7 A.L. seasons has had 12 strings of at least 10 games. . . His longest was 17 in '78.

Sep.-Oct.: In his 1st 6 years with the O's Ken had an aggregate .320 average (202-for-631) in the months of September and October, and in '80 batted .373 (47-for-126) during those two months.

Last year, however, he dipped to .158 (16-for-101) in that period. That aberration brought his 7 year figure for September-October down to .297 (218-for-732).

"MVO"/"MVP": Has won the annual "Most Valuable Oriole" award 3 times ('75, '77, '78). . . Only Brooks (4 times) has won more while Frank has also earned 3 "mvo's".

In '79 he finished 2nd in the BBWAA vote for A.L. "mvp" with 241 points to Don Baylor (347). . . Baylor, Ken and George Brett were mentioned on all 28 ballots, but Baylor had 20 1st place votes to Ken's 3 and Brett's 2.

In '77 he was 3rd in the "mvp" voting with 200 votes behind Rod Carew (273) and Al Cowens (217).

Ejections: Has been ejected 3 times in the A.L.: (1) by Russ Goetz on Aug. 27, '75, (2) by emergency umpire Richard Heitzer for throwing his helmet on Apr. 13, '79, and (3) by Don Denkinger for charging Twins' Paul Hartzell after 2 high and tight pitches on Sep. 1, '79.

Japan: Accompanied Earl Weaver, Rick Dempsey, Dennis Martinez plus trainer Ralph Salvon and club physician Dr. Leonard Wallenstein to Japan in the fall of '79 for a series of all-star games between the A.L. and N.L.

ALL-STAR AND POST-SEASON GAMES

All-Star: In '81 Ken became the 1st Oriole elected to the A.L.'s starting team in the annual Gillette All-Star Game election since Bobby Grich in '76. . . He received 541,100 votes to finish 2nd in outfield balloting to Reggie Jackson (631,522). Dave Winfield was 3rd.

He played leftfield, hit the A.L.'s only home run (off Tom Seaver) to give the A.L. a 1-0 lead in the 2nd inning, and also chipped in with a single in 3 official trips.

He'd been selected to the A.L. squad twice earlier, in '77 & '79. . . In '77 he was hit by a Rick Reuschel pitch in his only plate appearance, at Yankee Stadium and was 0-for-1 as a pinch-hitter at Seattle in '79.

ALCS/WS '79: Had a combined .364 average (16-for-44) in 10 post-season games. . . Went 3-for-4 with 2 rbi in the ALCS clincher at Anaheim (game #4). . . In the World Series he was held to 2 rbi, but in 17 of his 30 plate appearances there were no runners aboard (he led off an inning 8 times).

SUMMARY OF PREVIOUS SEASONS WITH O's

1980: Led majors in game winning rbi (19), batted over .300 for 4th time in career (3rd time in 6 years with O's), drove in 100 runs for 2nd straight season and set career high in hits (177). . . Ranked 6th in both walks (92) and on-base pct. (.399).

Led O's regulars in scoring runners from 3rd base (.557, 37-for-67).

1979: Enjoyed his most productive A.L. season with career highs in home runs (35), rbi (111) and a personal A.L. high in runs (93). . . Didn't win club batting title for 1st time in 5 years, finishing .00064 behind Murray on last day (though both hit .295).

Was 2nd in league in walks to Darrell Porter (109 to 122). . . Won his 3rd "mvo" and was 2nd to Don Baylor for "mvp" honors.

1978: Though slowed by effects of a Dec. 10, '77 operation for removal of a bone chip and transplantation of the ulnar nerve in right elbow, Ken led O's in hitting for 4th straight time (.293) and was 2nd in league in both walks (97) and on-base percentage (.409).

1977: Set a club record with his .328 average, surpassing Bob Nieman's '56 mark of .322, finished 3rd behind Carew and the late Lyman Bostock in batting and was 2nd in both on-base percentage and walks while tying Lee May for club lead in rbi (99). Won his 2nd "mvo" award and was 3rd in A.L. "mvp" vote.

1976: Overcame a very slow start to lead club in batting... Was hitting only .185 (28-for-151) on June 2 (42 games), then batted .312 (123-for-393) the rest of the way and hit safely in 91 of his last 112 games ...Beat out Reggie Jackson as the O's top hitter (.278 to .277) on last day of season, but was 2nd on the club to Bobby Grich in both on-base percentage and walks.

Played leftfield when Jackson was in the lineup defensively (in right)...Despite a 22 point drop in his average from the year before, he increased his rbi total from 55 to 70.

1975: Won the "mvo" award by a slim margin over Jim Palmer ...Set a club record with 118 walks (1 behind league leader John Mayberry), was 3rd in A.L. in on-base percentage (.418) and led the A.L. in plate appearances (714)...Batted primarily in the leadoff position.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CAREER

Pitches: Fastball, slider, curve.

Last Winter: Served as coach in Puerto Rico under Caguas Manager Ray Miller and threw daily trying to regain his old arm strength.

DODGERS, '80 & '81

Release: Drew his release by the Dodgers the night before opening day '81 with 4 more years remaining on his 5 year contract. He'd attempted a comeback in spring training, following an injury marred '80, after taking therapy during the winter to correct a condition diagnosed as "atrophy of the muscles in the upper arm".

The Dodgers' decision boiled down to keeping Don (by this time healthy again, but not strong), or taking a chance of losing hard throwing young prospect Dave Stewart who was out of options.

Dodger Blues: His troubles with the Dodgers began in spring training '80 when he was afflicted by back pains. Then, only 3 mound appearances into the regular season, he was placed on the disabled list April 18 (lower back spasms and sore shoulder), and didn't return to action until July 24.

Odds 'n Ends: Despite the long layoff, he accumulated 7 saves, 2nd on the staff. . . Gave up 4 home runs in 25 innings. . . Earned 2 wins & 5 saves in one stretch of 9 appearances in August. . . Was helpful as unofficial pitching tutor to young hurlers.

ORIOLES, '78 & '79

In 2 years with the O's he relieved in 108 games, went 13-12 with 45 saves and had a 2.86 era (47 er, 147 ip). Credited with 93 games finished.

If you add the last several months of '77 after he turned exclusively to relief work at Montreal (starting July 26), his stats out of the bullpen are even more impressive. In that period of nearly 2½ years, he pitched in 132 games, was 18-14 with 54 saves and his era was 2.44 (54 er, 199 ip).

Among Leaders: Don was 3rd in the A.L. in saves in each of his 2 years with O's. . . In the Rolaids "Relief Man of the Year" competition (2 points for each win and save minus 1 for each loss) he ranked 3rd in '78 with 51 points (behind Gossage-63 and LaRoche-61) and 4th in '79 with 53 points (behind Kern-79, Marshall-69 and Lopez-57).

Home Runs: He didn't allow a single home run in '78 and, between homers by the Mets' John Stearns on Sep. 13, '77 and another by Seattle's Joe Simpson on Apr. 30, '79, he worked in 69 games and pitched 98 innings without throwing a gopher ball.

Over a longer period comprising 90 appearances (148 innings) from July 15, '77 thru Apr. 25, '79, only one of his pitches left the park in fair territory.

Saves For: In his 2 seasons with the O's Stanley's 45 saves were on behalf of: Jim Palmer-10; Mike Flanagan-9; Dennis Martinez-7; Steve Stone-6; Scott McGregor, Sammy Stewart and Tippy Martinez-3 each; Nellie Briles-2; Dave Ford and John Flinn-1 each.

'78 Miscellaneous: Didn't allow a run in his first 8 appearances as an Oriole (9 innings). . . Earned a save without throwing a pitch on Sep. 4 vs. Boston. . . Relieved McGregor with 2 out in the 9th, a 2 run lead and the tying runs on, then promptly picked off Carlton Fisk at 1st to end it (Tim Stoddard had similar good fortune in a game vs. Tor. in '80 on a Rick Dempsey pickoff).

'79 Miscellaneous: Unlike '78, Don started slowly in '79 and had a 4.58 era (9 er, 17.2 ip) thru 12 appearances (May 17). . . After that his era was 2.29 (14 er, 55 ip) and he was scored on in only 7 of his final 40 appearances.

Had streaks of 12.2 and 13 consecutive scoreless innings.

CS/WS: After picking up a win in ALCS #1 following a perfect 10th inning in relief of Palmer and John Lowenstein's game winning "sudden death" homer, he was ineffective in 5 additional post-season appearances, and picked up losses in ALCS #3 and WS #2.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Montreal, '75-'77: In 2 and a fraction seasons with the Expos, he was 11-20 with a 4.50 era (264 ip, 277 h, 132 er) in 45 games as a starter . . . In relief, he was 8-2 with 11 saves and a 1.68 era (91 ip, 71 h, 17er) in 40 appearances.

Started '77 with Montreal's AAA club at Memphis, but was called up June 5. However, after appearing in only 4 games he developed a sore shoulder, and returned on June 18 to Memphis where he spent the rest of the season.

At start of '76, he relieved in 8 games then became a regular starter for the balance of the year. . . Though he was only 7-12 in that capacity, he was Expos' "player of the month" in June during which he was 3-2 with 4 complete games in 6 starts and a 1.71 era.

Texas, '72-'74: Struck out first 3 batters he faced in major league debut on Apr. 19, '72 vs. White Sox (Pat Kelly, Jorge Orta and Richie Allen) and fanned 9 in 6.2 innings that day (still a career high)...Sammy Stewart fanned 7 White Sox in a row during his 1st major league game in '78, and Dennis Martinez struck out the first 3 hitters he faced in the majors (vs. Detroit) in '76.

Was 4-17 overall for Rangers with 4.28 era (206 ip, 191 h, 98 er, 134 bb, 146 so) in parts of 3 seasons...Never spent a whole year with Texas.

Early Career: Was A's 1st round pick in June '69 as 3rd baseman...Played 39 games at 3rd and short that year at Tri-City, WA in Northwest League and batted .267 (44-for165) with 2 homers and 36 rbi.

Started to pitch part way thru that season...Was called on to hurl in an extra inning game and fanned 8...In his first 2 starts he whiffed 16 and 15 batters and wound up leading the league with 88 strikeouts in 61 innings.

Amateur Background: Averaged 2 k's an inning in 3 years at DuQuoin, IL High School where he also starred in football...Played Little League, Babe Ruth and American Legion baseball in DuQuoin.

Personal: Nicknamed "Stanley" and "Stan the Man Unusual," the latter a product of Mike Flanagan's unlimited wit...In turn, Don nicknamed Mike, "Flan, the Man, as usual."...Earl Weaver knows him as "Full Pack" because he usually went thru a complete pack of cigarettes every time Don pitched for him.

While with O's in '78 & '79, he garnished his locker with a large stuffed gorilla and a street sign "Stanhouse Place" that reportedly once marked a genuine street in New Brunswick.

Attended Mesa, AZ Community College....Married the former Kyle Stevenson, an American Air Lines flight attendant, on Oct. 24, '81....They met for the first time on an Orioles' flight.

Strikeout Highs: 9—Sep. 1, '78 (first game) vs. Chi. at Bal; 6—four times, the latest Sep. 8, '80 (first game) at Det.

Used primarily in long relief for the third straight year, Sammy had the American League's lowest earned run average for actual number of innings pitched but lost the era title at season's end in a disputed decision (see "Earned Run Average Dispute" below). Also made 3 starts for the 3rd consecutive season, losing all 3...Held opposition to .225 batting average (89-for-396), the lowest figure on the O's pitching staff... Finished 3rd in voting for "most valuable Oriole."

Earned Run Average Dispute: Despite allowing 5 runs in 1.2 innings in his last outing of the year (raising his era from 1.95), it appeared that Sammy had won the A.L. earned run average title in a close race with Oakland's Steve McCatty, New York's Dave Righetti (had 2.06 era but 2 innings short of qualifying), and Chicago's Dennis Lamp (allowed 3 runs in 5 innings in last start to finish at 2.41). Stewart allowed 29 runs in 112.1 innings for a 2.32351 era to edge McCatty, who surrendered 48 earned runs in 185.2 innings for a 2.32670 era.

However, official playing rule 10.22 calls for earned run averages to be figured after rounding off the number of innings pitched to the nearest full inning. When this was done, McCatty had the lower era, 2.32258 (rounded up to 186 innings) to Stewart's 2.33036 (rounded down to 112 innings). After a review of the situation, the Official Scoring Rules Committee declared McCatty the winner with Stewart placing 2nd. The rule was changed at the '81 annual baseball meetings to determine era on actual innings pitched, effective with the '82 season.

Had Sammy won the title, he would have been the 1st A.L. era leader with a losing record (4-8) in 58 years (Cleveland's Stan Coveleski led with 2.76 era on 13-14 record in '23). Since that time, it's been accomplished just twice in the N.L., and, since 1900, has been done in the majors just 6 times.

ERA Summary: Had era under 2.00 all year until August 14 when rose from 1.66 to 2.05 in start vs. Chicago (see "Starts" below)... Had 1.80 era in next 8 appearances to lower to 1.96...Increased to 2.11 in outing vs. Detroit on Sep. 22 (3 er in 6 ip), but lowered to 1.95 with 8.1 shutout innings vs. the Tigers on Sep. 28...Allowed 5 runs in 1.2 frames vs. N.Y. on Oct. 2 to finish at 2.33.

Reliefer/Starter: Pitched only once in relief in his last 3 minor league seasons, but in 3 full big league campaigns ('79, '80, '81), has made only 9 starts in 93 appearances...Did start twice when he made M.L. debut in Sep. '78.

In '81, appeared in 26 games in relief with 4-5 record, 4 saves, and a 1.58 era (96.2 ip, 17 er, 74 h)...Walked 49, fanned 49, and allowed 5 homers.

Lost all 3 starts with 6.89 era (15.2 ip, 12 er, 15 h), 8 walks, 8 strikeouts, and 3 homers.

Starts: Is now 5-6 in 11 career starts with 3.74 era (74.2 ip, 31 er, 59 h)...Made all 3 '81 starts in 2nd half...Lost to Chicago, 5-3 on Aug. 14 (7 ip, 4 er, 6 h); Cleveland, 4-1, on Sep. 12 (7 ip, 3 er, 6 h); and New York, 9-0, on Oct. 2 (1.2 ip, 5 er, 3 h) in game that cost him the era title.

Relief: For 2nd straight year, was more effective in relief in 2nd half...Was 2-3 with 3 saves and 1.81 era (10 er in 49.2 ip) in 15 1st-half appearances and 2-2 with one save and 1.34 (7 er in 47 ip) in 11 2nd-half games (does not include starts).

Did not allow a run in 1st 15.2 innings of '81 season before surrendering 6th-inning run vs. Minnesota on May 6 (6th appearance)... Allowed more than one run only 5 times all season and finished 18 of 26 games in relief.

Came on in relief 9 times with the Orioles trailing (7 times in the 5th inning or earlier), and Baltimore rallied to win just once...Preserved 9 of 11 leads and 3 of 6 ties when entering a game.

Long Stints: Worked 4 or more innings on 12 occasions and 7 or more innings 4 times, including 8 innings vs. Milwaukee on Sep. 18 ...Has now pitched 7 or more relief innings 6 times in his career.

Entered a game in the 5th inning or earlier 13 times...Best effort came in his final relief appearance of the year, Sep. 28 at Detroit, when he pitched shutout ball for final 8.1 innings to earn 7-3 victory.

vs. Opponents: Pitched 8.2 scoreless innings vs. K.C. and has not allowed a run in last 15.1 innings vs. the Royals since Aug. '79... Also held Boston (6 ip) and California (7.1 ip) without an earned run.

Pitched 25 innings vs. Detroit, 14 more than against any other opponent...Over last 3 seasons is 4-1 vs. the Tigers with 2 saves and a 1.37 era (8 er in 52.2 ip), including 1-1 with a save and 1.80 era in '81... Defeated Chicago in major league debut in '78 (see "Record Breaker" below) but, since that time, is 0-4 vs. the White Sox with a 4.95 era (22 er in 40 ip)...See page 28 for complete stats vs. each opponent.

Odds and Ends: Saved one game each for Mike Flanagan, Dennis Martinez, Scott McGregor, and Steve Stone...Was more effective on the road (2-3, 3 svs, 1.64 era) than at home (2-5, 1 sv, 2.77 era).

1981 SEASON/ORIOLES CAREER

Tim experienced a marked decline in efficiency from his club record-setting efforts of 1980. However, he preserved a lead or tie 16 times in 20 opportunities (.800) and prevented 36 of 47 inherited runners from scoring (.766)...Both percentages were tops among O's relievers.

Was 1-1 with 2 saves and a 4.61 era in 1st half (15 g, 13.2 ip, 20 h, 7 r-er, 7 bb, 13 so), and 3-1 with 5 saves plus a 3.42 era in 2nd half (16 g, 23.2 ip, 18 h, 9 r-er, 11 bb, 19 so).

Opponents batted a collective .268 against him (38-for-142), somewhat above the .260 average compiled by all opponents against the entire Orioles staff. Walked more than 1 batter on only one occasion.

Saves: In '81 he saved 3 for Mike Flanagan and 2 each for Jim Palmer and Scott McGregor...Lifetime for the O's he saved: 10 for Palmer, 9 for Steve Stone (all in '80), 8 for Flanagan, 5 for McGregor, 2 for Tippy Martinez and 1 each for Dennis Martinez and Don Stanhouse.

1980: Set club record for saves (26) and appeared in more games (64) than any previous Baltimore reliever except Stu Miller...Miller, who held the previous saves record (25 in '63), pitched in 71, 66 and 64 games in '63, '64 and '65, respectively.

Tim was 4th in A.L. in saves (Quisenberry & Gossage had 33 and Farmer 30) and was 5th in the competition for the Rolaids "Relief Man of the Year" award with 59 points (2 for each win & save minus 1 point for each loss).

Tight Spots: Held a lead or tie on 43 of 52 occasions (.827) and prevented 60 of 78 inherited runners from scoring (.769)...Worked out of 4 bases loaded situations unscathed.

Strong Finish: Was particularly effective after July 21, in his final 30 appearances...In that period was 5-0 with 14 saves and a 2.04 era...Was scored on in only 4 of those 30 games.

Did not give up a run in 14 straight appearances (15.1 ip) from Sep. 6 until finally being scored on in his final outing of the year (Oct. 4)...Pitched 17 consecutive scoreless innings over 12 appearances from July 26 thru Aug. 23 (3-0, 7 svs).

Was A.L.'s "pitcher of the month" in September: 16 games, including 14 straight scoreless appearances, 2-0 with 7 saves and a 2.04 era.

Home Runs: A homerless streak spanning 55 games and 74.1 innings was abruptly snapped by California's Jason Thompson and Bob Clark in 8th inning on Aug. 30. They were only 2 homers Tim allowed all year.

Odds & Ends: Picked up a save without retiring a batter vs. Toronto on Sep. 21...He entered game with 2 out and 1 on, and worked the count to 2-2 on Steve Braun when Rick Dempsey picked Lloyd Moseby off 2nd base to end the game.

1979: Was O's most effective reliever in early season and was 3-1 with a 1.66 era when he suffered muscle tear under his right armpit on June 23... Pitched only once in next 11 weeks (including 5 weeks on disabled list) before returning to action in September... Had lowest era on staff (1.71) and fanned 47 in 58 innings.

ALCS/WS: Did not see action in '79 ALCS, but did appear in each of the last 4 games of the world series.

Was winning pitcher in game 4 at Three Rivers Stadium... O's trailed 6-3 when he came on in 7th... He went on to pitch 3 scoreless innings, and the Birds rallied for 6 runs in the 8th to win, 9-6.

Tim contributed to the O's uprising with a single to left that scored Billy Smith with 5th run of the big inning... It was Tim's 1st basehit in pro baseball (he was 0-for-9 in the minors), and it came on his 1st big league at bat.

1978: After an impressive effort in spring exhibitions, Tim came north with the club, but was ineffective in 7 appearances and was sent to Rochester in May. Rejoined O's on Sep. 1, but pitched in only one game thereafter... Led Puerto Rican League with 1.86 era while pitching for Frank Robinson at Santurce.

1977: Tim was signed to a Charlotte contract by the late Orioles' Director of Player Development Clyde Kluttz, 11 days after the White Sox released him in spring training... Started 18 of his 1st 20 games at Charlotte, but from July 21 on, he pitched exclusively in relief.

WHITE SOX

Was signed originally for the White Sox by Walt Widmayer... Had been selected previously by Texas in June '74, but chose to remain in college.

Was called up to Chicago in Sep. '75 after his rookie season at Knoxville... Appeared in 1 game, and pitched 1 inning vs. the Twins on Sep. 7... Went to spring training with Chisox in both '75 & '77.

After winning the American League Cy Young Award and a club record 25 victories in '80, Steve was plagued by elbow and shoulder problems most of the season. . . Spent 3 months on the disabled list and made just 12 starts, while failing to pitch a complete game.

Despite a 4-7 record, Steve is 40-21 in 3 years with the Orioles, a .656 winning percentage that is the best in club history (50 or more decisions) . . . Has a 34-14 mark (.708) since July 22, '79.

Summary: Steve was 2-3 with a 4.72 era (18 er in 34.1 ip) in 7 1st half starts and 2-4 with a 4.45 era (14 er in 28.1 ip) in 8 2nd half games (5 starts).

Was the O's opening day pitcher on Apr. 10, defeating Kansas City, 5-3, (5 ip, 8 h, 3 r) with relief help from Sammy Stewart. . . Went 0-3 in next 4 starts with a 6.75 era (16 er in 21.1 ip). . . Experienced arm problems in next 2 starts before being disabled (see "Arm Trouble" below).

Lost to California in 1st start after being reactivated in August, then put together two best games of the year. . . Allowed just 2 hits in 7.1 innings vs. Seattle on Sep. 1 to share 2-hit, 1-0 shutout with Tippy Martinez, the fewest hits allowed by O's in '81. . . Defeated Oakland in next appearance on Sep. 5 (7 ip, 6 h, 3 r), again with help from Tippy.

Lost final 2 starts (allowing 7 er in 4.2 ip) while having recurring arm trouble. . . Appeared just twice in relief over final 21 days of season.

Arm Trouble: He first began to have pain in his right shoulder and elbow during spring training, when he was 1-3 with a 9.00 era (22 er in 22 ip) in 5 starts. . . The soreness grew progressively worse, forcing him to retire after allowing just 1 hit in the 1st 6 innings at Texas on May 9[2]. . . Rested for a week but lasted just 2 innings at Minnesota on May 16 before leaving with same problem. . . Was placed on the disabled list 2 days later with tendinitis in his right elbow and shoulder.

Had begun a rehabilitation program in early June but rested his arm during baseball's 7 week layoff. . . Was reactivated on August 20 but again experienced soreness in his elbow in mid-September, hampering him the rest of the year.

Vs. Opponents: With the 1-0 victory over Seattle (see above), Steve is now 6-0 with an 0.78 era (58 ip, 31 h, 5 er) and 5 complete games vs. Mariners in his 3 years with Baltimore. . . Is 9-3 lifetime.

Suffered 1st loss to New York since '77 on Sep. 26 despite facing just 1 batter. . . Came on in relief with 1 on in bottom of 9th and O's leading, 4-3. . . Got the 1st batter, Willie Randolph, to hit a ground ball, but Doug DeCinces booted it. . . Tim Stoddard then came in and allowed 3-run homer to Bobby Murcer, giving the Yankees a 6-5 win and Steve the loss in a game that all but knocked Baltimore out of the pennant race. . . Steve was 3-0 vs. N.Y. in '80.

Has defeated every major league club in his career with the exception of the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds (see page 29 for complete statistics vs. A.L. opponents).

Odds and Ends: Tippy Martinez saved 3 of his wins and Sammy Stewart the other. . . Was 3-4 at home and 1-3 on the road.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1980: Steve's 25 wins led the majors as he captured Baltimore's 6th Cy Young Award in 12 seasons and the 2nd in a row (Mike Flanagan won in '79). . . Also topped the A.L. in winning percentage (.781) and was in top 10 in starts (tied for 2nd, 37), era (7th, 3.23), strikeouts (tied for 7th, 149), and innings (tied for 8th, 251). . . Set career highs for wins (previous high was 15 in '77), starts, innings, strikeouts, and complete games (9).

Was 2-3 with 4.74 era thru May 5 before winning 23 of final 27 decisions with a 3.06 era and 9 complete games. . . That included 14 consecutive victories over 17 starts from May 9 thru July 26, the longest winning streak in A.L. since '74 and one short of the O's record for consecutive wins in 1 season (held by Dave McNally, '69).

20-Game Winner: Steve surpassed the Orioles' record for victories shared by Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally (both in '70). . . Also became the earliest 20-game winner in O's history when he defeated California at Anaheim on Aug. 19. . . Was the earliest in the majors since '73 when Wilbur Wood of the Chicago White Sox picked up his 20th victory on July 30.

When he defeated Cleveland on May 19, went over the career .500 mark for the 1st time since he was 4-3 with the Giants on May 21, '71.

Cy Young and Other Honors: Steve edged Oakland's Mike Norris in a close race for the BBWAA's award, capturing 13 firsts, 10 seconds, and 5 thirds for a total of 100 points (5-3-1 scoring system) . . . Norris received the same number of first (13) and third (5) place votes as Steve but received 7 seconds (left off 3 ballots) to finish with 91 points. New York's Rich Gossage was 3rd with the other 2 firsts and 37½ points . . . Steve was the 1st righthander to win the A.L. Cy Young Award since '76.

In addition, was named A.L. "pitcher of the year" by The Sporting News (by vote of fellow players) and was selected as the top righthander on A.L. all-star teams selected by TSN, Associated Press, and United Press International.

Finished 9th in the A.L. "mvp" voting and was selected as the American Amateur Baseball Congress' "graduate of the year" . . . Was chosen as the A.L.'s "pitcher of the month" for June when he was 5-0, and was the circuit's "player of the week" for the week of June 16-22.

All-Star Game: Steve was selected to the A.L. all-star team for the 1st time in his career and was manager Earl Weaver's starting pitcher for the July 8 game at Los Angeles . . . Retired all 9 N.L. batters he faced in 3 inning stint, the 1st time that had been done in the all-star game since Detroit's Denny McLain accomplished the feat in '66.

Pitching Adjustments: Steve credits O's pitching coach Ray Miller with making 2 adjustments that helped him significantly in '80 . . . Miller got him to speed up his time between pitches and to limit his pitch selection early in the game by establishing 1 or 2 pitches in the 1st few innings, then going to his other pitches in later frames.

Miscellaneous: Pitched 7.1 no-hit innings against California on Aug. 19 before sharing 2-hitter with Tippy Martinez (20th win) . . . Defeated every A.L. club at least once . . . Was 14-1 against the East (only loss to Detroit on Sep. 16) and 11-6 vs. the West . . . Was 14-4 at home and 11-3 on the road.

Was the club's "stopper" as 12 of his 25 victories immediately followed Baltimore losses . . . Tim Stoddard saved 9 of his wins.

Re-Entry: He was 2nd player signed by the O's thru re-entry (see page 10) and is believed to be the 1st player to have gone thru the re-entry system twice and signed twice.

1979: Steve had a slow start and was 6-7 with a 4.40 era thru July 10 . . . From that point on, was 5-0 with a 2.94 era.

One-Hitter: Pitched one of the finest games of his career on July 30 at Milwaukee . . . Allowed just 1 hit, 3rd inning homer by Charlie Moore, in 1st 8.2 innings before Tippy Martinez came on to get the final out in 2-1 win . . . That is the O's only one-hitter in the last 5 years.

White Sox: He did 2 tours of duty with the White Sox ('73, '77-'78) and had a combined 33-35 record . . . In last 2 seasons was 27-24, including a then career best 15 wins in '77.

Cubs: He was 23-20 in his 3 seasons with the Cubs ('74-'76) with a 20-14 mark in the 1st 2 years . . . A sore shoulder limited his efforts to a total of 17 games and 75 innings in '76 (was on the disabled list from Apr. 25 thru July 2).

Giants: Steve was signed by the Giants after they had selected him in the Jan. '69 free agent draft . . . Spent only 2½ years in the minors before coming to the majors to stay . . . Made the Giants' 25-man roster in '71 after coming to camp as a non-roster player but was optioned to Phoenix in June . . . Was recalled in September but was ineligible for the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh.

N.L. Career Record: Atl. (5-2), Chi. (0-2), Cin. (0-4), Hou. (3-4), L.A. (2-2), Mon. (4-3), N.Y. (3-5), Phi. (4-4), Pit. (4-2), St. L. (2-4), S.D. (5-2), S.F. (2-3), Total (34-37).

Amateur Background: He played 2 years at Kent State University (Kent, Ohio) where he was a batterymate of the late New York Yankees' catcher Thurman Munson . . . Was all-Mid American Conference and team captain in junior year.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

The Orioles, like most major league ballclubs, are extremely active in the support of charitable causes, both as an organization and individually. Over the past several years the O's charity participation has reached an all-time high. Listed below is a sampling of the club's activities in that area:

Johns Hopkins Children's Center: For many years the Orioles' wives have worked actively on behalf of the Johns Hopkins Hospital Children's Center, and have raised considerable money for the Center's on-going improvement program. The wives' most significant contribution has been an annual auction which netted the Center $28,500 in '80.

Frito-Lay/Orioles Challenge: Last year the wives' fund-raising for the Hopkins Children's Center was generously supplemented by Frito-Lay, makers of LAYS® and RUFFLES® brand potato chips, which agreed to donate $50 to the Center for every run scored by the Orioles during the regular season. In the abbreviated season the O's scored 427 runs which translated into $21,850.

However, the people from Frito-Lay went one better. They calculated that the Birds would have scored an average of 5 runs in the 55 games not played between June 11 and August 10 and, at $50 per run, came up with an additional $13,750. So the total donation by Frito-Lay to the Hopkins Children's Center was a whopping $35,600.

Frito-Lay will resume that program in '82.

O's Basketball Team: During the past winter the Orioles off-season basketball team compiled a 26-0 record while raising more than $30,000 for a variety of charities.

Santa Claus Anonymous: The Orioles' Christmas Sale at the stadium generated some $4,000 for the benefit of Santa Claus Anonymous.

"Take Me Out To The Ballgame": For the second year in a row, two Orioles, Eddie Murray and Ken Singleton, have purchased large blocks of tickets to home games to be given to fans in the Baltimore area who might not otherwise have the opportunity to watch Orioles baseball in person.

Murray has bought 50 upper box seats for each of the club's 80 home dates, and he will distribute them to youngsters from among the 33 Baltimore neighborhoods as part of "Project 33". That project will be jointly administered by the Baltimore Junior Association of Commerce and the Baltimore City Department of Human Resources.

Singleton has purchased 64 lower reserved seats for all 13 Sunday games and he will pass those on to senior citizens groups. That endeavor is known as "Project 29".

"Summer Fun In Birdland": The Orioles will also operate their long standing "Summer Fun in Birdland" program which enables disadvantaged youngsters to come to the ballpark during the summer vacation period.

Individual Participation: Virtually every Orioles player is involved in at least one charity and some lent their support to as many as 7 different worthwhile causes in '81.

MEMORIAL STADIUM—A BRIEF HISTORY

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. However, when the original Baltimore NFL franchise left town after the '50 football season, work on the new facility was suspended until '52.

Despite the construction the International League Orioles continued to play their home games here on 33rd Street (thru '53) as did the current Baltimore Colts franchise when it re-located from Dallas (Texans) prior to the '53 football season.

The new stadium was completed essentially in October, '53, but refinements continued on thru the early stages of the '54 baseball season, the A.L. Orioles first in Baltimore.

The original Municipal Stadium was built for football and completed in 1924. However, when old Oriole Park (29th Street and Greenmount Avenue) burned down on the night and early morning of July 3-4, 1944, the Orioles moved into the big ballpark (in those days home plate was in what is now dead center field).

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was built for $6 million on 28¾ acres of city owned property and financed by two city bond issues.

Over the years, there have been some changes made. In '54, the distance from home plate to the fence in dead center was 450'. That has been whittled down gradually to its present 405'.

The Orioles dugout was originally on the first base side, but when some 2,600 field boxes were installed in front of the original boxes in '61 (prior to that there was an 8' wall between the front row of the boxes and the field, and Baltimore led the world in foul territory), new dugouts had to be constructed and the home team moved over to third base.

In 1964 additional upper deck sections were added, increasing the capacity by another 2,600 seats. In 1970 (mid-season) the new score-

ORIOLES SET A.L. RECORDS FOR CONSECUTIVE SHUTOUTS (5) AND CONSECUTIVE SCORELESS INNINGS (54) IN 1974

The Orioles pitching staff set two A.L. records in early September, 1974 by putting together a string of five straight shutouts and by blanking their opponents over a stretch of 54 consecutive innings. The scoreless streak actually started in the 9th inning of a game in Kansas City on September 1. Dave McNally gave up his only run in the 8th and then pitched a scoreless 9th while beating the Royals, 7-1. The streak ended six games later in the 9th inning on September 7 when Ross Grimsley working on a 3-0 lead gave up a two-run home run to Cleveland's Charlie Spikes. Grimsley, who was the winner anyway by a 3-2 score, was relieved at that point by Bob Reynolds. That also ended another string, of six straight complete games, but extended the Birds' winning streak to 10.

Date	Opponent	H/A	Score	Consec. Scoreless Innings	Pitcher	Hits Allowed
Sept. 1	Kansas City	A	7-1	1 (9th)	Dave McNally-cg	4
Sept. 2	Boston	H	1-0	9	Ross Grimsley-cg	3
Sept. 2	Boston	H	1-0	9	Mike Cuellar-cg	2
Sept. 4	Boston	H	6-0	9	Jim Palmer-cg	3
Sept. 6	Cleveland	A	2-0	9	Dave McNally-cg	3
Sept. 6	Cleveland	A	1-0	9	Mike Cuellar-cg	5
Sept. 7	Cleveland	A	3-2	8 (1st-8th)	Ross Grimsley	4

During the 54 inning skein the O's out-scored their opponents, 14-0, and out-hit them 37-20...Mike Cuellar won two of the five straight shutouts, both by 1-0.

The major league records of six straight shutouts and 56 consecutive innings which the O's came very close to at least tying were set by the 1903 Pirates (June 1 thru 9). The previous A.L. record of 47 consecutive innings was held by the 1948 Cleveland Indians and the mark of four consecutive shutouts had been accomplished four times, most recently by the Orioles' foursome of Hal Brown, Billy Loes, Connie Johnson, and Ray Moore between June 24 and 28, 1957.

board was installed. In recent years the old splintery wooden benches (without backs) have been completely replaced by chairs and non-wooden benches with back rests, and a 35th row has been added to the upper deck.

In 1980, six new towers, housing a new ticket window and additional ticket office space, storage areas and rest rooms, were completed in the latest Memorial Stadium renovations.

O'S HAVE BEST RECORD IN MAJORS FOR LAST 25 YEARS

It was in 1957 that the Orioles first began to jell as a team. That year they finished at .500 (76-76) for the first time, after having gone 180-282 (.390) in their first three Baltimore seasons ('54-'55-'56).

During the 25 seasons that have elapsed from 1957 thru 1981, the O's have won more games than any other big league club and have compiled the best won-lost percentage. In that period they are 541 games over .500.

Listed below are the standings of the 16 clubs that have played during that entire 25-year span.

1. Orioles	2238-1697 (.569)	10. White Sox	1994-1951 (.505)
2. Yankees	2210-1737 (.560)	11. Braves	1980-1963 (.502)
3. Reds	2198-1746 (.557)	12. Twins, nee
4. Dodgers	2187-1768 (.553)	Senators	1971-1976 (.499)
5. Pirates	2117-1823 (.537)	13. Phillies	1930-2015 (.489)
6. Giants	2059-1893 (.521)	14. Indians	1893-2042 (.481)
7. Cardinals	2047-1893 (.520)	15. A's	1869-2081 (.473)
8. Tigers	2046-1907 (.518)	16. Cubs	1829-2112 (.464)
9. Red Sox	2037-1911 (.516)

Since the franchise came to Baltimore from St. Louis prior to the 1954 season (28 seasons thru '81), the O's have compiled the fourth best record in the majors—.550 (2418-1979) behind: Yankees—.569 (2506-1901), Dodgers—.559 (2470-1946), and Reds—.553 (2438-1968). In those 28 seasons, the Orioles have won 100 or more games five times ('69, '70, '71, '79, '80), an achievement bettered by only the Yankees (six times). Baltimore's five 100-victory seasons in the last 13 years is unsurpassed.

In addition, the Orioles have had 14 consecutive winning seasons (starting '68). The only major league club with a longer streak is the Red Sox, who have been over the .500 mark in 15 straight campaigns (starting '67).
